Hollywood's Imperial Wars Armando José Prats, 2024-04-16 When the Vietnam War punctured the myth of American military invincibility Hollywood needed a new kind of war movie The familiar triumphal narrative was relegated to history and with it the heroic legacy that had passed from one generation to the next for more than two hundred years How Hollywood helped create and instill the American myth of heroic continuity and how films revised that myth after the Vietnam War is what Armando José Prats explores in Hollywood's Imperial Wars The book offers a new way of understanding the cultural and historical significance of Vietnam in relation to Hollywood's earlier representations of Americans at war from the mythic heroism of a film like Sands of Iwo Jima to the rupture of that myth in films such as The Deer Hunter Apocalypse Now and Platoon. As early as the mid 1940s Prats suggests fears aroused by the Cold War were stirring anxieties about sustaining the heroic myth anxieties reflected in the insistent aggressive patriotism in films of the period. In this context Prats considers the immeasurable cultural importance of John Wayne the cinematic apotheosis of wartime valor and righteousness whose patriotism was nonetheless deeply compromised by his not having served in World War II. Prats reveals how historical and cultural anxieties emerge in well known Vietnam movies in which characters inspired by the heroes of the Second World War are denied the heroic legacy of their fathers. American war movies in Prats's analysis were forever altered by the loss in Vietnam. Even movies like American Sniper that exalt war heroes are marked as much by the failure of the heroic tropes of old Hollywood war movies as by the tragic turn of actual historical events. Tracing what Prats calls the anxiety of legacy through the films of the World War II and post Vietnam War periods this book offers a new way of looking at both the Hollywood war movie and the profound cultural shifts it reflects and refracts.

Killing John Wayne* Ryan

Uytendewilligen, 2021-10-01 Behold the history of a film so scandalous so outrageous so explosive it disappeared from print for over a quarter century. A film so dangerous half its cast and crew met their demise bringing eccentric billionaire Howard Hughes' final cinematic vision to life. Starring All American legend John Wayne in full Fu Manchu make up as Mongol madman Genghis Khan. Featuring sultry seductress Susan Hayward as his lover. This is the true story of The Conqueror 1956 the worst movie ever made. Filmed during the dark underbelly of the 1950s the Cold War when nuclear testing in desolate southwestern landscapes was a must for survival the very same landscapes were where exotic stories set in faraway lands could be made. Just 153 miles from the St George Utah set nuclear bombs were detonated regularly at Yucca Flat and Frenchman Flat in Nevada providing a bizarre and possibly deadly background to an already surreal moment in cinema history. This book tells the full story of the making of The Conqueror its ignominious aftermath and the radiation induced cancer that may have killed John Wayne and many others.

The Films of Budd Boetticher* Robert Nott, 2018-10-02

Budd Boetticher 1916-2001 was a bullfighter a pleasant madman and a talented journeyman filmmaker who could with the right material and drive create a minor Western film classic as easily as he could kill a bull. Yet pain and passion naturally mixed in both endeavors. Drawing on studio archives and featuring insightful interviews with Boetticher and those who worked with him this retrospective looks at each of his 33 films in detail covering his cinematic career from his days as an assistant's assistant on the set of Hal Roach comedies to his last documentary some 45 years later.
