Place and Displacement in the Narrative Worlds of Jorge Luis Borges and Julio Cortázar Nataly Tcherepashenets, 2008 Place and Displacement in the Narrative Worlds of Jorge Luis Borges and Julio Cortázar engages the notions of place and displacement as heuristic devices for literary analysis of Borges's and Cortázar's narratives It maps out these authors' visions of place and displacement in some of their most famous texts locates the place of Borges's texts within Cortázar's fictional universe and delineates new routes in communication between different literary traditions and philosophical and anthropological discourses This book also suggests that the challenge of a strict opposition between place and displacement in Borges's and Cortázar's works is both representative and emblematic of a continuum of Latin American literature

Reclaiming the Author Lucille Kerr, 1992 The recent fiction of Spanish America has been widely acclaimed for its experimental and revolutionary qualities In Reclaiming the Author Lucille Kerr studies the sources of power of this newly emergent literature in her detailed examination of the critical concept of the author Kerr considers how Spanish American narratives raise questions about authorial identity and activity through the different figures of the author they propose These author figures she maintains both complement and contradict notions of authority that exist outside of the world of fiction By focusing on works by well known Spanish American authors Cortázar Donoso Fuentes Poniátowska Puig and Vargas Llosa Kerr shows how the Spanish Americans have formed a radical poetics of the author Her readings demonstrate how exemplary Spanish American texts such as Rayuela Terra nostra and El hablador call into question the author as a unitary or uniform and therefore unproblematic figure Individually and together Kerr's readings reclaim the author as a complex critical concept encompassing diverse conflicting even competitive roles

The Dissenting Voice Martin S. Stabb, 2014-05-23 Political social and aesthetic change marked Latin American society in the years between 1960 and 1985 In this book Martin Stabb explores how these changes made their way into the essayistic writings of twenty six Spanish American intellectuals Stabb posits that dissent against ideology against simplistic notions of technological progress against urban values and even against the direct linear expository style of the essay itself characterizes the work of these contemporary essayists He draws his examples from major canonical figures including Paz Vargas Llosa Fuentes and Cortázar and from lesser known writers who merit a wider readership such as Monterroso Zaid Edwards and Ibarra Engoitia This exploration overturns many conventional assumptions about Latin American intellectuals and also highlights some of the other achievements of authors famous primarily for novels or short stories
