Understanding Alain Robbe-Grillet Roch C. Smith, 2000 Transforming bewilderment into understanding and pleasure while preserving a sense of Robbe Grillet s considerable richness and complexity Smith elucidates the defining elements of the writer s fictional world characters that barely exist changeable narrators plots that defy logic notoriously meticulous descriptions that never quite form a complete story Smith examines Robbe Grillet s embrace of discontinuity circularity indeterminacy and linguistic play Smith also poses questions about how we should view this perplexing writer as an author of hyperobjective novels and short stories a subjective novelist a realist or a writer who undermines the narrative s claim to represent reality In addition Smith evaluates the sado erotic imagery of Robbe Grillet s middle and late novels as a metaphorical play with textual and social conventions BOOK JACKET

Narrative Causalities Emma Kafalenos,2006 Narrative Causalities offers both an argument and a methodology The argument is that interpretations of the consequences and causes of events are contextual and that narratives by determining the context in which events are perceived shape interpretations The methodology on which the argument is based is a theory of functions A function in this theory is a position in a causal sequence A set of functions provides a vocabulary to analyze and compare interpretations of the causes and consequences of events in our world in narratives about our world and in fictional narratives

Inventing the Real World Marjorie Hellerstein,1998 Alain Robbe Grillet uses techniques from film to make his novels and adapts novel techniques to construct and then shatter his film narratives Both forms of art are indebted to painters and printmakers visual perceptions of their material and their use of space and spatial relationships to construct artistic illusions

Une forte absence Katrin Meise,1996 Quinquereme ,1984 Detecting Texts Patricia Merivale,Susan Elizabeth Sweeney,2011-06-07 Although readers of detective fiction ordinarily expect to learn the mystery s solution at the end there is another kind of detective story the history of which encompasses writers as diverse as Poe Borges Robbe Grillet Auster and Stephen King that ends with a question rather than an answer The detective not only fails to solve the crime but also confronts insoluble mysteries of interpretation and identity As the contributors to Detecting Texts contend such stories belong to a distinct genre the metaphysical detective story in which the detective hero s inability to interpret the mystery inevitably casts doubt on the reader s similar attempt to make sense of the text and the world Detecting Texts includes an introduction by the editors that defines the metaphysical detective story and traces its history from Poe s classic tales to today s postmodernist experiments In addition to the editors contributors include Stephen Bernstein Joel Black John T Irwin Jeffrey T Nealon and others

Dropping Ashes on the Buddha Sungsan Tae Sönsa,1976 Somebody comes into the Zen center with a lighted cigarette walks up to the Buddha statue blows smoke in its face and drops ashes on its lap You are standing there What can you do This is a problem that Zen Master Seung Sahn is fond of posing to his American students who attend his Zen centers Dropping Ashes on the Buddha is a delightful irreverent and often hilariously funny living record of the dialogue between Korean Zen Master Seung Sahn and his American students Consisting of dialogues stories formal Zen interviews Dharma speeches and letters using the Zen Master s actual words in spontaneous living interaction with his students this book is a fresh presentation of the Zen teaching method of instant dialogue between Master and student which

Printed Books 1976 to 1982 British Library, 1983 Of Words and the World David R. Ellison, 1993-03-22 Here David Ellison explores the problems encountered by France's best experimental authors writing between 1956 and 1984 when faced with the question What should my writing be about These years are characterized by the rise of the new novelists who questioned the representational function of writing as they created works of imagination that turned in upon themselves and away from exterior reality It became fashionable at one point to affirm that literature was no longer about the world but uniquely about the words on a page the signifying surface of the text Ellison tests this assumption showing that even in the most seemingly self referential fictions the words point to the world from which they can never completely separate themselves Through close readings Ellison examines the novels and theoretical writings of authors whose works are fundamental to our perception of contemporary French writing and thought Camus Robbe Grillet Simon Duras Sarraute Blanchot and Beckett The result is a new understanding of the link between the referential function of literary language and the problematic of the ethics of fiction Postmodernist Fiction Brian McHale, 2003-09-02 In this trenchant and lively study Brian McHale undertakes to construct a version of postmodernist fiction which encompasses forms as wide ranging as North American metafiction Latin American magic realism the French New Novel concrete prose and science fiction Considering a variety of theoretical approaches including those of Ingarden Eco Dolezel Pavel and Hrushovski McHale shows that the common denominator is postmodernist fiction's ability to thrust its own ontological status into the foreground and to raise questions about the world or worlds in which we live Exploiting various theoretical approaches to literary ontology those of Ingarden Eco Dolezel Pavel Hrushovski and others and ranging widely over contemporary world literature McHale assembles a comprehensive repertoire of postmodernist fiction's strategies of world making and unmaking
