Last Orders Graham Swift, 2010 Four men once close to Jack Dodds a London butcher meet to carry out his peculiar last wish to have his ashes scattered into the sea For reasons best known to herself Jack's widow Amy declines to join them On the surface the tale of a simple if increasingly bizarre day's outing Last Orders is Graham Swift's most poignant exploration of the complexity and courage of ordinary lives Celebrating 40 years of outstanding international writing this is one of the essential Picador novels reissued in a beautiful new series style

Last Orders Graham Swift, 2012-09-19 Four men gather in a London pub They have taken it upon themselves to carry out the last orders of Jack Dodds master butcher and deliver his ashes to the sea As they drive towards the fulfillment of their mission their errand becomes an extraordinary journey into their collective and individual pasts Braiding these men's voices and that of Jack's widow into a choir of sorrow and resentment passion and regret Swift creates a testament to a changing England and to enduring mortality Swift has involved us in real lived lives Quietly but with conviction he seeks to affirm the values of decency loyalty love New York Review of Books A beautiful book a novel that speaks profoundly of human need and tenderness Even the most cynical will be warmed by it San Francisco Chronicle

Reading Graham Swift Tomasz Dobrogoszcz, Marta Goszczynska, 2019-11-22 This collection of essays on Graham Swift's fiction brings together the perspectives of renowned Swift scholars from around the world Authors look at the swift s oeuvre from different interpretative angles combining a variety of critical and theoretical approaches This book covers all of Swift s fiction including his novels and short stories special emphasis however is on his most recent books By approaching Swift s work from a number of perspectives the volume offers a synthetic overview of his literary output In particular it searches for thematic and formal continuities between his early and more recent fiction and attempts to emphasize its new developments and interests

Seaing through the Past Joanna Rostek,2011-01-01 From Daniel Defoe to Joseph Conrad from Virginia Woolf to Derek Walcott the sea has always been an inspiring setting and a powerful symbol for generations of British and Anglophone writers Seaing through the Past is the first study to explicitly address the enduring relevance of the maritime metaphor in contemporary Anglophone fiction through in depth readings of fourteen influential and acclaimed novels published in the course of the last three decades The book trenchantly argues that in contemporary fiction maritime imagery gives expression to postmodernism s troubled relationship with historical knowledge as theorised by Hayden White Linda Hutcheon and others The texts in question are interpreted against the backdrop of four aspects of metahistorical problematisation Thus among others Iris Murdoch s The Sea 1978 is read in the context of auto biographical writing John Banville s The Sea 2005 as a narrative of personal trauma Julian Barnes s A History of the World in 101 2 Chapters 1989 as investigating the connection between discourses of origin and the politics of power and Fred D Aguiar s Feeding the Ghosts 1997 as opening up a postcolonial perspective on the sea and history Persuasive and topical Seaing through the Past offers a compelling guide to the literary oceans of today

The Revisions of Englishness David Rogers,John McLeod,2004 Diverse and often competing notions of Englishness have been critiqued by a variety of writers and critics who have become concerned about received visions of Englishness in the post war period An exciting and provocative collection of essays which registers the changes to Englishness since the 1950s this book explores how Englishness has been revised for a variety of aesthetic and political purposes and makes a ground breaking contribution to the contemporary debates in literary and cultural studies

Ambiguous Selves Barbara Braid,2019-11-21 This collection of essays on selected texts in literature film and the media is driven by a shared theme of contesting the binary thinking in respect of gender and sexuality The three parts of this book contesting norms performing selves and blurring the lines delineate the queer celebration of difference and deviance They pinpoint the limitation of assumed norms and subverting them revel in the fluid and ambiguous self that springs from the contestation of those norms and then repeatedly transgress and as a result obscure the limits that separate the normal from the abnormal The variety of texts included in the collection ranges from a discussion of queer subjects represented in film television and literature to that of the representations of other non normative figures including a madwoman a freak or a prostitute and to gender role

contestation and gender bending practicing evidenced in the press theatre film literature and popular culture Fictional Dialogue Bronwen Thomas, 2012-05-01 Experimentation with the speech of characters has been hailed by Gerard Genette as one of the main paths of emancipation in the modern novel Dialogue as a stylistic and narrative device is a key feature in the development of the novel as a genre yet it is also a phenomenon little acknowledged or explored in the critical literature Fictional Dialogue demonstrates the richness and versatility of dialogue as a narrative technique in twentieth and twenty first century novels by focusing on extended extracts and sequences of utterances It also examines how different versions of dialogue may help to normalize or idealize certain patterns and practices thereby excluding alternative possibilities or eliding unevenness and differences Bronwen Thomas by bringing together theories and models of fictional dialogue from a wide range of disciplines and intellectual traditions shows how the subject raises profound questions concerning our understanding of narrative and human communication The first study of its kind to combine literary and narratological analysis with reference to linguistic terms and models Bakhtinian theory cultural history media theory and cognitive approaches this book is also the first to focus in depth on the dialogue novel in the twentieth and twenty first centuries and to bring together examples of dialogue from literature popular fiction and nonlinear narratives Beyond critiquing existing methods of analysis it outlines a promising new method for analyzing fictional dialogue Eventfulness in British Fiction Peter Hühn, 2010-03-26 An event defined as the decisive turn the surprising point in the plot of a narrative constitutes its tellability the motivation for reading it This book describes a framework for a narratological definition of eventfulness and its dependence on the historical socio cultural and literary context A series of fifteen analyses of British novels and tales from late medieval and early modern times to the late 20th century demonstrates how this concept can be put into practice for a new specifically contextual interpretation of the central relevance of these texts The examples include Chaucer's Miller's Tale Behn's Oroonoko Defoe's Moll Flanders Richardson's Pamela Fielding's Tom Jones Dickens's Great Expectations Hardy's On the Western Circuit James's The Beast in the Jungle Joyce's Grace Conrad's Shadow Line Woolf's Unwritten Novel Lawrence's Fanny and Annie Mansfield's At the Bay Fowles's Enigma and Swift's Last Orders This selection is focused on the transitional period from 19th century realism to 20th century modernism because during these decades traditional concepts of what counts as an event were variously problematized therefore these texts provide a particularly interesting field for testing the analytical capacity of the term of eventfulness Intertext Rama Kundu, 2008 Papers presented at a two day national seminar on Globalization a challenge to educational management Interpreting Texts Kim Ballard, 2013-04-15 Part of the Routledge A Level English Guides series this title focuses on developing the skills needed to successfully interpret texts and covers key aspects of the area including discourse intertextuality and theoretical approaches Posting the Male Daniel Lea, Berthold Schoene-Harwood, 2003 The essays collected in Posting the Male examine representations of masculinity in post war and contemporary British literature focussing on the works of writers as diverse as John Osborne Joe Orton James

Kelman Ian Rankin Carol Ann Duffy Alan Hollinghurst Ian McEwan Graham Swift and Jackie Kay The collection seeks to capture the current historical moment of crisis at which masculinity loses its universal transparency and becomes visible as a performative gender construct Rather than denoting just one fixed polarised point on a hierarchised axis of strictly segregated gender binaries masculinity is revealed to oscillate within a virtually limitless spectrum of gender identities characterised not by purity and self containment but by difference and alterity As the contributors demonstrate rather than a gender in crisis millennial manhood is a gender in transition Patriarchal strategies of man making are gradually being replaced by less exclusionary patterns of self identification inspired by feminism Men have begun to recognise themselves as gendered beings and as a result masculinity has been set in motion

Trauma and Ethics in the Novels of Graham Swift

Stef Craps, 2005 This book offers a critical reading of the novels of Graham Swift in light of recent developments in literary theory and criticism It shows how the novels elaborate an ethics of alterity by means of a detailed study of one of Swifts most persistent and fascinating yet all too often ignored concerns the traumatic experience of reality Swifts texts evoke the cultural pathologies of a nation post war Britain and an era modernity through the narratives of individual characters who are struggling to come to terms with a traumatic personal and collective past The author charts the entire trajectory of Swifts engagement with the perils pitfalls and possibilities of navigating a post traumatic condition proceeding from an emphasis on denial in his early work through an intense preoccupation with the demands of trauma in the middle period novels including Waterland to a liberating insistence on regeneration and renewal in Last Orders and The Light of Day By providing a w

The Beach in Anglophone Literatures and Cultures Ursula Kluwick, Virginia Richter, 2016-03-09 From early colonial encounters to the ecological disasters of the twenty first century the performativity of contact has been a crucial element in the political significance of the beach Conceptualising the beach as a creative trope and as a socio cultural site as well as an aesthetically productive topography this collection examines its multiplicity of meanings and functions as a natural environment engendering both desire and fear in the human imagination from the Victorian period to the present The contributors examine literature film and art in addition to moments of encounter and environmental crisis to highlight the beach as a social space inspiring particular codes of behaviour and specific discourses as a geographical frontier between land and water as an historical site of contact and conflict and as a vacationscape promising regeneration and withdrawal from everyday life The diversity of the beach is reflected in the geographical range with essays on locales and texts from Britain Ireland the Caribbean South Africa the United States Polynesia and New Zealand Focusing on the changed function of the beach as a result of processes of industrialisation and the rise of a modern leisure and health culture this interdisciplinary volume theorises the beach as a demarcater of the precarious boundary between land and the sea as well as between nature and culture
