Lislam Et Le Rveil Arabe By Tariq Ramadan:

Islam and the Arab Awakening Tariq Ramadan, 2012-10-12 Tariq Ramadan presents analysis of the Arab Spring focusing on the role played by Islam in the uprisings and considering what its position will be in the new societies taking shape

Making of the Tunisian Revolution Nouri Gana, 2013-09-07 From late 2010 to the present day the Arab world has been shot through with insurrection and revolt As a result Tunisia is now seen as the unlikely birth place and exemplar of the process of democratisation long overdue in the Arab world Mixing political historical economic social and cultural analyses and approaches these essays reflect on the local regional and transnational dynamics together with the long and short term factors that when combined set in motion the Tunisian revolution and the Arab uprisings Above all the book maps the intertwined genealogies of cultural dissent that have contributed to the mobilisation of protesters and to the sustenance of protests between 17 December 2010 and 14 January 2011 and beyond

North African Societies after the Arab Spring Massimiliano Cricco, Leila El Houssi, Alessia Melcangi, 2016-06-22 No attempt to define the Mediterranean as a region can overlook the multiplicity of political religious and social forces at work along its shores Responding to changes in the global and regional environment these forces have interacted in complex ways as evidenced by their impact on the social cultural and political life of the states comprised between the covers of this collaborative volume The peculiarity of the Mediterranean as has been noted time and again lies in its geographical position as a sea in the middle of the land where different religions and cultures vie for recognition and self expression In the wake of the popular uprisings that have inflamed the region beginning in Tunisia in December 2010 a drastic reorganisation of their respective state systems is coming into focus in Tunisia Egypt and Libya Though their paths do not run along parallel lines they share a common denominator the determination of their people to become the masters of their destinies and to do so by grappling with new forms of democracy Almost five years later after their rulers became the target of violent mass protests Tunisia Egypt and Libya are going through an exceptionally difficult transition trying to accommodate their nascent constitutional forms to the new forces inspired by the Arab Spring

Islam and the Governing of Muslims in France Frank Peter, 2021-02-11 Will Islam be able to adapt to France's secularity and its strict separation of public and private spheres Can France accommodate Muslims In this book Frank Peter argues that the debate about Islam and Muslims is not simply caused by ignorance or Islamophobia Rather it is an integral part of how secularism is reasoned Islam and the Governing of Muslims in France shows that understanding religion as separate from other aspects of life such as politics economy and culture disregards the ways religion has operated and been managed in secular societies such as France This book uncovers the varying rationalities of the secular that have developed over the past few decades in France to govern Islam in order to examine how Muslims engage with the secular regime and contribute to its transformation This book offers a close analysis of French secularism as it has been debated by Islamic intellectuals and activists from the 1990s until the present It will influence the study of secularism as well as the study of Islam in the French Republic and reveal new connections between Islamic traditions and secular rationalities

Islamism and Social Movements in North Africa, the Sahel and Beyond Aurelie Campana, Cédric Jourde, 2018-12-07 As North African Middle Eastern and Sahelian societies adapt to the post Arab Spring era and the rise of violence across the area various groups find in Islam an answer to the challenges of the era This book explores how Islamist social movements Sufi brotherhoods and Jihadi armed groups in their great diversity elaborate their social networks and recruit sympathizers and militants in complicated times The book innovates by transcending regional boundaries bringing together specialists of the three aforementioned regions First it highlights how geographically dispersed religious groups define themselves as members of a larger universal Umma while evolving in deeply embedded local contexts Second its contributors prioritize in depth fieldwork research offering fine grained original insights into the manifold mobilization of Islamist inspired social movements in Egypt Libya Tunisia Mali Senegal Mauritania Burkina Faso and Western Europe The book sheds light on the tense debates and competition taking place amongst the different trends composing the Islamist galaxy and between other groups that also claim an Islamic legitimacy including Sufi brotherhoods and ethnic and or tribal groups as well This book was originally published as a special issue of Mediterranean Politics factors that when combined set in motion the Tunisian revolution and the Arab uprisings Above all the book maps the intertwined genealogies of cultural dissent that have contributed to the mobilisation of protesters and to the sustenance of protests between 17 December 2010 and 14 January 2011 and beyond Humanitarian Intervention, Colonialism, Islam and Democracy Gustavo Gozzi, 2021-04-13 This book offers a critical analysis of the European colonial heritage in the Arab countries and highlights the way this legacy is still with us today informing the current state of relations between Europe and the formerly colonized states The work analyses the fraught relationship between the Western powers and the Arab countries that have been subject to their colonial rule It does so by looking at this relationship from two vantage points On the one hand is that of humanitarian intervention a paradigm under which colonial rule coexisted alongside humanitarian policies pursued on the dual assumption that the colonized were barbarous peoples who wanted to be civilized and that the West could lay a claim of superiority over an inferior humanity On the other hand is the Arab view from which the humanitarian paradigm does not hold up and which accordingly offers its own insights into the processes through which the Arab countries have sought to wrest themselves from colonial rule In unpacking this analysis the book traces a history of international and colonial law to this end also using the tools offered by the history of political thought The book will be of interest to students academics and researchers working in legal history international law international relations the history of political thought and colonial studies
