New Sincerity Adam Kelly, 2024-10-08 The years 1989-2008 were an era of neoliberal hegemony in US politics economy and culture Post 45 scholar Adam Kelly argues that American novelists who began their careers during these years specifically the post baby boom generation of writers born between the late 1950s and early 1970s responded to the times by developing in their fiction an aesthetics of sincerity How and in what way these writers ask can you mean what you say and avow what you feel when what you say and feel can be bought and sold on the market What is authentic art in a historical moment when the artist has become a model for neoliberal subjectivity rather than its negation Through six chapters focused on key writers of the period including Susan Choi Helen DeWitt Jennifer Egan Dave Eggers George Saunders Dana Spiotta Colson Whitehead and David Foster Wallace the book explores these central questions while intervening critically in a set of debates in contemporary literary studies concerning aesthetics economy gender race class and politics Offering the capstone articulation of a set of influential arguments made by the author over a decade and more New Sincerity constitutes a field defining account of a period that is simultaneously recent and historically bound and of a generation of writers who continue to shape the literary landscape of the present

Reflecting 9/11 Heather Pope, Victoria Bryan, 2016-06-22 In over fifteen years the cultural and artistic response to 9/11 has been wide ranging in form and function As the turbulent post 9/11 years have unfolded years that have been shaped and characterized by the War on Terror the Patriot Act the Wars in Afghanistan and Iraq 7 7 Abu Ghraib and Guant namo Bay these texts have been commemorative and heroic have attempted to work through collective and individual traumas and have struggled with trying to represent the terrorist other Many of these earlier domestic heroic and traumatic works have so often been read as limitations in narrative This collection however challenges the language of limitation and provides re readings of earlier work but also traces the emergence of a new paradigm for discussing the artistic responses to 9 11 one that frames these narratives as dialogic self conscious and self reflexive interventions in the responses to the attacks the initial representations of the attacks and the ever shifting social and geopolitical continuities of the 9 11 decade These texts widen the conversation about the lasting impacts of 9 11 and incorporate strands of discussion on American exceptionalism and imperialism torture and otherness whilst still remaining invested in the personal and collective traumas of the attacks The authors included here ask crucial questions about the way 9 11 is being historicized will it for example be read as a moment of rupture or epoch Will it inevitably be attached to the War on Terror or the Wars in Iraq and Afghanistan As they trace the emergent patterns of reflexivity politicization and dissent the contributions here are also implicitly invested in asking how far they extend The Encyclopedia of Contemporary American Fiction, 2 Volumes Patrick O'Donnell, Stephen J. Danger on the Page Brian Shawver, 2015-04-07 Although fiction writers must concern themselves with big picture issues such as plot theme and character development much of the day to day work of writing involves finding answers to seemingly minor questions How should I describe the exterior of a house How can I construct the voice of a historical narrator with authenticity How should I depict a physically atypical character Few books on the market address the problems and opportunities present in these and other questions yet they are the ones that most writers grapple with on a daily basis

Danger on the Page A Fiction Writer's Guide to Sex Violence Dead Narrators and Other Challenges identifies and explores some of the more common and intractable situational challenges of fiction writing with chapters grouped into the general subject areas such as scenes characters points of view and settings Shawver delves into the pitfalls and opportunities of writing about sex violence sports and love he examines writing from the perspective of a different race gender or species he interrogates conventional beliefs about the use of brand names the description of architecture and the portrayal of nature Throughout he gives dozens of examples from both literary and commercial fiction so readers can borrow or reject other writers techniques and explore the myriad challenges of fiction writing on their own A lively and witty approach to a diverse range of specific writing issues Shawver's book will appeal especially to intermediate level writers seeking to bring their craft to the next level

The Worst Years of Your Life Mark Jude Poirier, 2007-08-21 An anthology of short stories captures the humiliation depression angst growing pains first romance embarrassment and confusion of adolescence in a collection that features contributions by John Barth Stanley Elkin and A.M. Homes After Postmodernism Christopher K. Coffman, Theophilus Savvas, 2020-12-17

Several of American literature's most prominent authors and many of their most perceptive critics and reviewers argue that fiction of the last quarter century has turned away from the tendencies of postmodernist writing. Yet the nature of that turn and the defining qualities of American fiction after postmodernism remain less than clear. This volume identifies four prominent trends of the contemporary scene: the recovery of the real, a rethinking of historical engagement, a preoccupation with materiality, and a turn to the planetary. Readings of works by various leading figures including Dave Eggers, Jonathan Franzen, A.M. Homes, Lance Olsen, Richard Powers, William T. Vollmann, and David Foster Wallace support a variety of arguments about this recent revitalization of American literature. The chapters in this book were originally published as a special issue of the journal Textual Practice. Literature after 9/11 Ann Keniston, Jeanne Follansbee Quinn, 2013-04-15

Drawing on trauma theory, genre theory, political theory, and theories of postmodernity, space, and temporality, Literature After 9/11 suggests ways that these often distinct discourses can be recombined and set into dialogue with one another, as it explores 9/11's effects on literature and literature's attempts to convey 9/11. Neoliberalism and Contemporary Literary Culture Mitchum Huehls, Rachel Greenwald Smith, 2017-09-19

Neoliberalism and Contemporary Literary Culture is essential reading for anyone invested in the ever-changing state of literary culture. A Visit from the Goon Squad Reread Ivan Kreilkamp, 2021-02-02

Jennifer Egan described her Pulitzer Prize-winning novel A Visit from the Goon Squad as a combination of Proust and The Sopranos. In rereading the book, Ivan Kreilkamp takes Egan up on her comparison, showing how it blends a concern with the status of the novel in the twenty-first century with an elegiac meditation on how we experience the passage of time. Kreilkamp, a former music critic, examines how Egan's characters turn to rock and especially punk in search of community and meaning. He considers what the novel's portrayal of music says about the role of art in contemporary culture as digitization makes older technologies obsolete. Combining personal and critical reflection, he reveals how A Visit from the Goon Squad articulates and responds to the sense of loss many feel as cherished physical objects are replaced with immaterial data. For Kreilkamp, Egan's novel compellingly combines the psychological realism of the nineteenth-century novel with more recent and transient forms such as the celebrity magazine profile or a PowerPoint presentation to provide a self-reflective diagnosis of the decay and endurance of literature. Arranged like Egan's novel into A and B sides, this book highlights not only how A Visit from the Goon Squad speaks to our mass media and digital present but also its page-turning pleasure. Literature Against Criticism Martin Paul Eve, 2016-10-17

This is a book about the power game currently being played out between two symbiotic cultural institutions: the university and the novel. As the number of hyper-knowledgeable literary fans grows, students and researchers in English departments waver between dismissing and harnessing voices outside the academy. Meanwhile, the role that the university plays in contemporary literary fiction is becoming increasingly complex and metafictional moving far beyond the campus novel of the mid twentieth century Martin Paul Eve's engaging and far reaching study explores the novel's contribution to the ongoing displacement of cultural authority away from university English Spanning the works of Jennifer Egan Ishmael Reed Tom McCarthy Sarah Waters Percival Everett Roberto Bolaño and many others Literature Against Criticism forces us to re think our previous notions about the relationship between those who write literary fiction and those who critique it A Century of Fiction in The New Yorker New Yorker Magazine Inc, 2025-02-04 Edited by The New Yorker's fiction editor Deborah Treisman a celebratory selection from one hundred years of short stories in the magazine which has been the most influential and important showcase for the form and has launched dozens of stellar careers in fiction There is simply no A-Z like the alphabet of fiction writers who have appeared in the pages of The New Yorker in the last hundred years The book boasts inarguable classics like Salinger's A Perfect Day for Bananafish Annie Proulx's Brokeback Mountain and Shirley Jackson's The Lottery alongside stunners to be rediscovered Some stories defined a moment or a now lost world Isaac Bashevis Singer's The Cafeteria others showed us a whole new way fiction could sound and feel The Red Girl by Jamaica Kincaid With this vivid selection Treisman showcases how our fiction has changed over time and reminds us that past literary fashions continue to ripple outward in the fiction we love today What does a Donald Barthelme mean to the craft of short fiction now What will a Yiyun Li mean to the next generation of readers and writers This exquisite tour of the form as practiced at its highest level will leap directly into the hearts of readers of all ages all stripes and is a beautiful tribute to the magazine's influence on our literary culture over the last century
