The Tavernier Stones Stephen Parrish, 2010-09-08 When the body of seventeenth century mapmaker Johannes Cellarius floats to the surface of a bog in northern Germany with a 57 carat ruby clutched in his fist the grisly discovery ignites a deadly twenty first century international treasure hunt to unearth the fabled Tavernier stones The hoard reputedly contains some of the world's most notorious missing jewels including the 280 carat Great Mogul diamond and the 242 carat Great Table diamond Scrupulously honest Amish born cartographer John Graf teams up with outlaw prospector and gemologist David Freeman in a ferocious race to find the treasure and break a secret code that will unravel the centuries old Tavernier stones mystery But other fortune hunters opportunists and criminals alike are in hot pursuit of the mismatched partners and they'll stop at nothing to possess the legendary jewels Relentlessly fascinating Stephen Parrish's Tavernier Stones is reminiscent of Dan Brown's Lost Symbol It's one hell of a good time Mark Terry author of The Fallen

Culture Wars in British Literature Tracy J. Prince, 2012-09-21 The past century's culture wars that Britain has been consumed by but that few North Americans seem aware of have resulted in revised notions of Britishness and British literature Yet literary anthologies remain anchored to an archaic Anglo-English interpretation of British literature Conflicts have been played out over specific national vs British identity some residents prefer to describe themselves as being from Scotland England Wales or Northern Ireland instead of Britain in debates over immigration race ethnicity class and gender and in arguments over British literature These debates are strikingly detailed in such chapters as The Difficulty Defining Black British British Jewish Writers and Xenophobia and the Booker Prize Connections are also drawn between civil rights movements in the U.S. and UK This generalist cultural study is a lively read and a fascinating glimpse into Britain's changing identity as reflected in 20th and 21st century British literature

The Annotated Two Years Before the Mast Richard Henry Dana, 2013-11-07 A true story of the battered life of a foremast crewman Two Years Before the Mast is Richard Henry Dana's classic travel narrative which inspired canonical works such as Moby Dick and Sailing Alone Around the World As Rod Scher follows Dana the Harvard dropout turned sailor on his voyages around North America he annotates Dana's tale with critiques tie-ins to today and little known facts about both the book and the milieu of Dana's time

Ship of Lost Souls Rod Scher, 2024-11-05 Of all the stories of ships lost in what has come to be called the Graveyard of the Pacific that of the steamship Valencia is among the saddest In January 1906 the Valencia set out from San Francisco bound for Seattle with 108 passengers and some sixty-five crew members aboard Owing to bad weather and the captain's mistakes the ship struck a reef eleven miles off Cape Beale on the southwest coast of Vancouver Island Rocks

gashed open the ship's hull and a series of further missteps soon compounded the tragedy a hundredfold Only thirty seven people survived largely because of a lack of lifesaving infrastructure in the rugged area where the Valencia ran aground The wreck of the Valencia was an especially tragic one To begin with most on board perished including every woman and child many of whom had been lashed to the rigging high above the deck in an attempt to save them from the crashing waves Additionally the wreck itself was almost certainly avoidable due almost entirely to navigational errors the captain made Finally rescue efforts such as they were were hampered by not just the sea and weather but by the mistakes and some say the cowardice of the would be rescuers This book pieces together the story of the Valencia and her tragic end weaving together not just the threads of the ill fated voyage itself but also relevant contextual history including the development of radio technologies and lifesaving equipment and services that simply came too late to help the doomed voyagers People & Families ,2007

Table Manners Mia King,2009-08-04 The star of Mia King's entertaining Seattle Times debut novel Good Things is back and she's got a full plate Deidre McIntosh is everyone's favorite go to person She seems so successful so capable so just plain perfect with a popular cooking show her own line of cakes and cookies and an ideal relationship with Kevin Johnson considered one of the most desirable men in Seattle Then Kevin's ex fianc e sultry magazine publisher Sabine Durant suddenly appears and Deidre needs help Already intimidated by Kevin's glamorous moneyed world and his sister who wants Deidre out of Kevin's life she fears she's no match for Sabine And the go to girl must figure out where to go next before the tablecloth is pulled out from under her The Publishers Weekly ,1895

Sailing by Starlight Rod Scher,2022-11-01 Sailing by Starlight is the story of the adventure of a lifetime in fact of many lifetimes In the early 1980s retired geography professor Marvin Creamer set out to do what hadn't been done for a thousand years if indeed it had ever been done at all Marv and his crew boarded a 35 sailboat named Globe Star and set out into the frigid Atlantic planning to sail around the world without the use of any instruments There was no sextant aboard No compass No chart plotter No GPS No radar Not even a stopwatch Creamer wanted to prove to the world that it was possible for ancient mariners to have crossed the largest seas perhaps even sailed around the world using only their brains their experience their sense and their courage In attempting to prove his point Creamer would push his boat and his crew to the limit and occasionally beyond Travel with Creamer as Globe Star sails around the perilous Horn across the dangerous and tumultuous Tasman Sea and into an active war zone Sail around the world with a man who was taken prisoner by an idea a man obsessed with proving a point and who would let neither 40 foot waves nor fractious crewmembers deter him Cultures of Citizenship in the Twenty-First Century Vanessa Evans,Mita Banerjee,2023-12-04 In the early twenty first century the concept of citizenship is more contested than ever As refugees set out to cross the Mediterranean European nation states refer to cultural integrity and immigrant inassimilability revealing citizenship to be much more than a legal concept The contributors to this volume take an interdisciplinary approach to considering how cultures of citizenship are being envisioned and interrogated in literary and cultural contexts Through this framework they attend to the tension between the citizen and its spectral others a tension determined by how a country defines difference at a given moment      The Air We Breathe Andrea

Barrett, 2011-05-31 Autumn 1916 America is preparing to enter WWI but at Tamarack State Hospital the danger is barely felt Here in the crisp mountain air where wealthy tuberculosis patients recover in private cottages and charity patients mostly European migrants fill the sanatorium time stands still Prisoners of routine and yearning for absent families the inmates take solace in gossip rumour and secret attachments One enterprising patient initiates a weekly discussion group but his well meaning efforts lead instead to tragedy and betrayal The war comes home bringing with it a surge of anti immigrant prejudice and vigilante sentiment Andrea Barrett pits power and privilege against unrest and thwarted desire in a spellbinding tale of individual lives in a nation on the verge of extraordinary change      Sea Escape Lynne

Griffin, 2010-07-06 Acclaimed novelist and nationally recognized family expert Lynne Griffin returns with Sea Escape an emotional beautifully imagined story inspired by the author's family letters about the ties that bind mothers and daughters Laura Martinez is wedged in the middle place grappling with her busy life as a nurse wife and devoted mom to her two young children when her estranged mother Helen suffers a devastating stroke In a desperate attempt to lure her mother into choosing life Laura goes to Sea Escape the pristine beach home that Helen took refuge in after the death of her beloved husband Joseph There Laura hunts for the legendary love letters her father wrote to her mother when he served as a reporter for the Associated Press during wartime Vietnam Believing the beauty and sway of her father's words will have the power to heal Laura reads the letters bedside to her mother a woman who once spoke the language of fabric of Peony Sky in Jade and Paradise Garden Sage but who can't or won't speak to her now As Laura delves deeper into her tangled family history she becomes increasingly determined to save her mother As each letter reveals a patchwork detail of her parents marriage she discovers a common thread a secret that mother and daughter unknowingly share Weaving back and forth from Laura's story to her mother's beginning in the idyllic 1950s with Helen's love affair with Joseph through the tumultuous Vietnam War period on to the present Sea Escape takes a gratifying look at what women face in their everyday lives the balancing act of raising capable and happy children and being accomplished and steadfast wives while still being gracious and good daughters It is a story that opens the door to family secrets so gripping you won't be able to put this book down until each is revealed      The Annotated Sailing Alone Around the World Joshua Slocum, 2009 Joshua Slocum's Sailing Alone Around the World is a classic beloved by sailors the world over who have enjoyed this engrossing tale of a man who sails around the world alone in a small wooden sailboat built with his own hands This edition is thoroughly annotated by teacher journalist Rod Scher who provides explanation commentary clarification and historical context that will make Slocum's masterpiece more accessible to today's readers sailors and landlubbers alike      An Arsonist's Guide to Writers' Homes in New England

Brock Clarke, 2012-11-30 Sam Pulsifer has come to the end of a very long and unusual journey He spent ten years in prison for accidentally burning down poet Emily Dickinson's house and unwittingly killing two people in the process. He emerged aged twenty-eight and set about creating a new life for himself. He went to college, found love, got married, fathered two children, and made a new start, and then watched in almost silent awe as the vengeful past caught up with him right at his own front door. As one by one the homes of other famous New England writers are torched, Sam knows that this time he is most certainly not guilty. To prove his innocence, he sets out to uncover the identity of this literary-minded arsonist. What he discovers and how he deals with the reality of his discoveries is both hilariously funny and heartbreakingly sad. An Arsonist's Guide to Writers' Homes in New England is a novel disguised as a memoir, a deeply affecting story about truth and honesty and the damage they do.
