Susan Lynn Perry, 2007-11 Imagine that you are the mother of a beautiful baby boy Your bundle of joy was born perfectly healthy with ten little fingers and ten little toes He smiles walks and talks on time right on track with his peers You could not be happier Now imagine that your baby gets sick He's suddenly sick every week with ear infections bronchitis vomiting diarrhea allergies eczema fevers and colds Then imagine that he stops talking Imagine that he stops putting his hands out when he falls on the playground He seems dizzy distracted and disoriented most of the time Imagine that he stops responding to his name or responding to you his mother at all His doctor says he's fine but you know better You start asking around and reading and researching You have your suspicions but hope to God they are not true Then finally several months or even years later you are given the devastating diagnosis of autism And not only that but you are then faced with some even more horrifying news There is no cure for autism This is what I was faced with during the first four years of my son's life This is my story and the story of countless other families getting that same diagnosis every day with this growing worldwide epidemic Sounds pretty grim doesn't it But wait a minute What is that There's something flickering on the horizon It's gaining momentum with its incredible strength and power There may not be a cure for autism yet but there is definitely hope in the air There are things you can do today to help your child You just have to take one step and then another and then another
