Westall, 2012-05-24 College athlete Lily Brennon has always been the piece that doesn't quite fit in the puzzle especially in her blended family and no amount of rule following perfection seems to bring her any closer to the love and acceptance she desperately seeks If not for Jackson Carter her childhood best friend and the only boy she's ever loved she's sure she would have run away years ago But when Jackson loses his father and a future basketball career within months of each other his faith is so shattered he shuts out everyone including Lily After months of heartache Lily begins to piece together a life without Jackson and while vacationing on a beautiful island off the Georgia coast she begins a long distance romance with Alex Walker a police officer with a quick wit and a cocky grin He revives her hope in love again but their intense attraction and his devastating secret test Lily's values stretching them until they break Through her struggles to remain true to her principles an agonizing choice between Alex and Jackson and a series of terrifying events that threaten all of them Lily must endure losing everything she's been grasping so tightly Only then will she discover the depth of the love that already surrounds her      Healing Ruby Jennifer H.
