Media Madness Otto F. Wahl, 1995 From Psycho, Silence of the Lambs, Kojak and Melrose Place from books, music, cartoons, advertising and newspapers, we all derive our images of mental illness. These omnipresent media portrayals are at the least insensitive, inaccurate and unfavorable and at the worst stigmatizing and pernicious. In this important book, Dr. Otto Wahl examines the prevalence, nature and impact of such depictions using numerous examples from film, television and print media. He documents the remarkable frequency of these images and demonstrates how the media has stereotyped the mentally ill through exaggeration, misunderstanding, ridicule and disrespect. Media Madness also shows the damaging consequences of such stereotypes: stigma, rejection, loss of self-esteem, reluctance to seek, accept or reveal psychiatric treatment, discrimination and restriction of opportunity. The forces that shape current images of mental illness are clarified, as are the efforts of organizations and individuals to combat such exploitation.

The Literary Filmography Leonard Mustazza, 2006-05-17 From the very infancy of the film industry, filmmakers have relied heavily upon literature as the foundation for their movie material. A guide to English language works that have been adapted as theatrical and television films, this volume includes books, both fiction and non-fiction, short stories, newspaper and magazine articles and poems. Entries are arranged alphabetically by literary title, with cross-listings for films made under different titles. Each entry includes the original work's title, author, year of first publication, literary prizes and a brief plot summary.
