Larry Niven & Jerry Pournelle's Lucifer's Hammer Terry Collins, 1993 Postapocalyptic Fiction and the Social Contract Claire P. Curtis, 2010-07-17 Postapocalyptic Fiction and the Social Contract We ll Not Go Home Again provides a framework for our fascination with the apocalyptic events The popular appeal of the end of the world genre is clear in movies novels and television shows Even our political debates over global warming nuclear threats and pandemic disease reflect a concern about the possibility of such events This popular fascination is really a fascination with survival how can we come out alive And what would we do next The end of the world is not about species death but about beginning again This book uses postapocalyptic fiction as a terrain for thinking about the state of nature the hypothetical fiction that is the driving force behind the social contract The first half of the book examines novels that tell the story of the move from the state of nature to civil society through a Hobbesian a Lockean or a Rousseauian lens including Lucifer s Hammer by Larry Niven and Jerry Pournelle Alas Babylon by Pat Frank Malevil by Robert Merle and Into the Forest by Jean Hegland The latter half of the book examines Octavia Butler s postapocalyptic Parable series in which a new kind of social contract emerges one built on the fact of human dependence and vulnerability The (Almost) Complete Hitchhiker in Time Shawn M. Tomlinson, 2015-11-07 The Hitchhiker in Time columns were the single most popular things ever written by Shawn M Tomlinson which honestly doesn t say all that much All together they appeared in fewer than 10 newspapers between 1988 and 2001 Well multiple copies of those newspapers of course The highest circulation was approximately 40 000 so not exactly Bob Greene levels Still Tomlinson had a following with these columns and to a great extent they hold up well today Either that or Tomlinson would like to think so Many of these columns appeared in chapbooks over the years but this is the first full collection of them to be in print Retreat Ethel Baraona Pohl, Marina Otero Verzier, Malkit Shoshan, 2020-07-31 Retreat is a lexicon or inventory of language to describe the action of withdrawal from civic life By creating a spatial approach to the language of escape the publication attempts to widen the definitions of familiar terms such as safety surveillance and self reliance The lexicon draws attention to current global events such as the thread of epidemic disease climate catastrophe the militarization of public space and the impact of mass surveillance on daily life specifically the emotional and social impact of the presence of unknown and potentially life threatening elements The editorial approach for the lexicon is to investigate the notion and practices of retreat its strategies and imaginaries through others words as they inform contemporary spatial paradigms A wide variety of source types from blogs to Wikipedia to academic texts and media photographs films books objects and forms of literary genres are mobilized to create a portrait of retreat that describes not only militarized zones but dreams and anxieties of individuals across the globe helping us better understand how humans might negotiate civil and human rights and freedoms within civic society at large
