Mao II By Don DeLillo:

Mao II Don DeLillo, 2011-02-28 Bill Gray a famous reclusive novelist emerges from his isolation when he becomes the key figure in an event staged to force the release of a poet hostage in Beirut Mao II explores a world in which the novelist's power to influence the inner life of a culture now belongs to bomb makers and gunmen Don DeLillo Stacey Olster, 2011-04-21 A wide ranging study of the post 1990 fiction of one of America's most respected writers and cultural critics this volume focuses on three of Don DeLillo's most recent novels Mao II Underworld and Falling Man that span pivotal moments in recent history the end of the Cold War the millennium and 9 11 Consisting of original essays written by scholars whose interdisciplinary approaches drawn from art history and religious history ethnic studies and urban studies popular culture and political science shed new light on DeLillo's work it investigates DeLillo's portrait of turn of the century America as the nation confronts the defining phenomena of globalism and terrorism With an eye always on the impact that shifts in historical sensibility produce on aesthetic sensibility the volume also considers the role that DeLillo sees narrative playing in a world dominated by digital images and provides the first extended analysis of how much faith he has in fiction's ability to convey the trauma of September 11 an event commonly conceived as resistant to all forms of artistic expression

Mao II Don DeLillo, 1992-05-01 One of the most ironic intelligent grimly funny voices to comment on life in present day America The New York Times Don DeLillo presents an extraordinary new novel about novelists and terrorists the mass mind and the arch individualist A love triangle that moves from New York to London to Beirut Mao II tells an intimate story of faith longing and redemption Don DeLillo: Mao II & Underworld (LOA #374) Don DeLillo, 2023-10-17 The definitive edition of a modern master continues with 2 mid career masterpieces published here with new prefaces from the author This second volume in the Library of America DeLillo edition collects two extraordinary novels he published in the 1990s the peak of his career In the PEN Faulkner Award winning Mao II 1991 the celebrated novelist Bill Gray has withdrawn into seclusion his everyday affairs managed by a pair of assistants And yet within the protective solitude he has built for himself he still finds himself struggling with pills and with a novel he can't manage to complete A visit from a Swedish photographer who specializes in author portraits spurs him to shake off his world weariness and soon the reclusive writer is embarked on an unlikely journey to help broker the release of a poet held hostage by terrorists in Beirut Mao II writes the critic Sven Birkerts is DeLillo's strongest statement yet about the crisis of crises Namely that we are living in the last violet twilight of the individual and that the future belongs to crowds Underworld 1997 DeLillo's magnum opus and a book that ranks among the greatest of twentieth century novels is a sprawling ambitious and moving panorama of the postwar American experience It begins with a tour de force re imagination of one of the great moments in sports the decisive pennant game between the New York Giants and the Brooklyn Dodgers at the Polo Grounds in 1951 culminating in the now legendary shot heard round the world home run by Bobby Thomson In DeLillo's hands the excitement of the game is juxtaposed with something far more momentous the announcement of the Soviets first atomic test a coincidence that initiates a kaleidoscopic saga that is woven across more than four decades shuttling back and forth through time and mixing fictional characters with historical figures such as Lenny Bruce and J Edgar Hoover The novel is at once a profound meditation on our contemporary condition and a deeply personal book for its author drawing poignantly on his memories of growing up in the Bronx All of DeLillo is in Underworld writes Harold Bloom DeLillo s sense of America in the second half of the twentieth century is achieved perfectly Here is the ultimate gift for DeLillo fans and perfect introduction for readers interested in discovering or rediscovering a great American writer

Plotting Terror Margaret Scanlan,2001 Scanlan English Indiana University South Bend considers several novels about terrorists and considers what they say about the role of the writer in modern society and politics She examines the figure of the writer as a rival or a mirror of the terrorist tracing the development of this relationship from its Romantic origins to the age of the Unabomber The works of DeLillo Rushdie McNamee Mary McCarthy Lessing Coetzee Durrenmatt Roth Robert Stone Volodine and Conrad are specifically considered c Book News Inc Don DeLillo David Cowart,2012-08-15 Don DeLillo author of twelve novels and winner of the National Book Award the PEN Faulkner Award the William Dean Howells Medal and the Jerusalem Prize has begun to rival Thomas Pynchon as the definitive postmodern novelist Always thought provoking and occasionally controversial DeLillo has become the voice of the bimillennial moment Charting DeLillo s emergence as a contemporary novelist of major stature David Cowart discusses each of DeLillo s twelve novels including his most recent work The Body Artist 2001 Rejecting the idea that DeLillo lacks affinities across the cultural spectrum Cowart argues that DeLillo s work invites comparison with that of wide range of antecedents including Dunbar Whitman Wittgenstein Heidegger Freud Lacan Derrida Hemingway Joyce Rilke and Eliot At the same time Cowart explores the ways in which DeLillo s art anticipates parallels and contests ideas that have become the common currency of poststructuralist theory The major site of DeLillo s engagement with postmodernism Cowart argues is language which DeLillo represents as more mysterious numinous even than current theory allows For DeLillo language remains what Cowart calls the ground of all making Don DeLillo The Physics of Language is a provocative investigation of the most compelling issues of contemporary fiction

The Future Belongs To Crowds: Media in Don DeLillo's Libra, Mao II and *White Noise Jan Riepe,2007-08-23 Thesis M A from the year 2006 in the subject American Studies Literature grade 2 0 University of Freiburg Englisches Seminar course Magisterpr fung language English abstract This paper analyzes the treatment of media in novels by Don DeLillo Key concepts in the study of media will be presented and explained in regard to how they are represented in DeLillo s novels The focus will be on the novels and not on the media after all this is a master s thesis in Literary and not in Communications Studies Media and media theory in our age of information capitalism are now more than ever before a topic that deserves close scholarly attention Media theorists agree that to study the media is to study one of the most important topics of the day and that such study should be compulsory part of every citizens liberal education Fred Inglis

Media Theory An Introduction Oxford Basil Blackwell 1990 p 6 Most people in their daily lives are permanently surrounded by media No matter if it is our entertainment information health knowledge memory identity dreams emotions or even our dying all have by now been incorporated by the media It is impossible to understand our acting and thinking without considering the influence of mediation The entire history of mankind is inseparable from media from language to the alphabet and the printing press all the way to today s instant electronic communication Every interpretation of anything is medially determined Arjen Mulder Understanding Media Theory Language Image Sound Behavior Rotterdam V2 Publishing NAI Publishers 2004 p 179 media are our means of understanding it is through them that we try to make sense of the world As this paper will show the mass media now have an enormous influence of both public and private life of Western culture in fact individuals as much as nations today formulate their agendas memories and identities in response to values and passions that are increasingly formed through mechanically reproduced images Lutz Koepnick Walter Benjamin and the Aesthetics of Power Lincoln London University of Nebraska Press 1999 p 213 Images and electronic media increase their cultural authority to the disadvantage of the print medium essentially it has been argued to the disadvantage of literature Yet this paper will show how the media are in turn incorporated into the contemporary American novel by Don DeLillo Don DeLillo Peter Boxall, 2006-04-18 One of the few available books of criticism on the topic this monograph presents the fullest account to date of Don DeLillo s writing situating his oeuvre within a wider analysis of the condition of contemporary fiction and dealing with his entire work in relation to contemporary political and economic concerns for the first time Providing a lucid and nuanced reading of DeLillo s ambivalent engagement with American and European culture as well as with modernism and postmodernism and globalization and terrorism this fascinating volume interrogates the critical and aesthetic capacities of fiction in what is an age of global capitalism and US cultural imperialism The World that is the Book Aliko Varvogli, 2001-01-01 The World that is the Book offers an in depth analysis of Paul Auster s fiction It explores the rich literary and cultural sources that Auster taps into in order to create compelling stories that investigate the nature of language the workings of chance and the individual s complex relations with the world at large Whereas most Auster criticism has concentrated on readings of individual novels this book emphasizes the continuity in Auster s writing by discussing throughout the philosophical underpinnings that lead the author to question the boundaries separating the fictional from the factual and the real from the imagined Terrorism and Temporality in the Works of Thomas Pynchon and Don DeLillo James Gourley, 2013-06-06 Terrorism and Temporality in the Works of Thomas Pynchon and Don DeLillo starts from a simple premise that the events of the 11th of September 2001 must have had a major effect on two New York residents and two of the seminal authors of American letters Pynchon and DeLillo By examining implicit and explicit allusion to these events in their work it becomes apparent that both consider 9 11 a crucial event and that it has profoundly impacted their work From this important point the volume focuses on the major change identifiable in both authors work a change in the perception and conception of time This is not however a simple change after 2001 It allows at the same time a re examination of both authors work and the acknowledgment of time as a crucial concept to both authors throughout their careers Engaging with several theories of time and their reiteration and examination in both authors work this volume contributes both to the understanding of literary time and to the work of Pynchon and DeLillo Arts and Terror Vladimir L.

Marchenkov,2014-06-26 This book examines the manifestations of terror in the arts From classical tragedy to post 9 11 responses terror as an emotion violent act and state of the world has been a preoccupation of artists in all genres Using philosophy art history film studies interdisciplinary arts theatre studies and musicology the authors included here delve into this perennially contemporary theme to produce insights articulated in a variety of idioms from traditional philosophical humanism to phenomenology to feminism Their approaches may vary but together they reinforce the notion that terror is a thread in the fabric of artistic expression as much as it has always been and alas remains a thread in the fabric of life

New York Magazine ,1991-06-17 New York magazine was born in 1968 after a run as an insert of the New York Herald Tribune and quickly made a place for itself as the trusted resource for readers across the country With award winning writing and photography covering everything from politics and food to theater and fashion the magazine s consistent mission has been to reflect back to its audience the energy and excitement of the city itself while celebrating New York as both a place and an idea Conversations with Don DeLillo Don DeLillo,2005 Throughout long profiles and conversations ranging from 1982 to 2001 the renowned author makes clear his distinctions between historical fact and his own creative leaps

Contemporary American Fiction Kenneth Millard,2000 Millard leads the interpretation of post 1970 fiction by addressing particular authors and themes Literature in Society Regina Rudaitytė,2012-12-05 The essays in this volume focus on the text world dichotomy that has been a pivotal problem since Plato implicating notions of mimesis and representation and raising a series of debatable issues Do literary texts relate only to the fictional world and not to the real one Do they not only describe but also perform and thus create and transform reality Is literature a mere reflection expression of society a field and a tool of political manipulations a playground to exercise ideological and social power Herbert Grabes seminal essay Literature in Society Society and Its Literature which opens this volume perfectly captures the essential functions of literature in society whether it be Derridean belief in a revolutionary potential of literature the power of literature to say everything or Hillis Miller s view of literature having the potential to create or reveal alternative realities or according to Grabes the ability of literature to offer to society a possibility of self reflection by way of presenting a double of what is held to be reality and last but not least the ability of literature to considerably contribute to the joy of life by enabling a particular kind of pleasure the pleasure of reading literature The subsequent essays collected in this volume deal with complex relations between Literature and Society approaching this issue from different angles and in various historical epochs They are on diverse thematics and written from diverse theoretical perspectives differing in scope and methodology Literature and Terrorism, 2012-01-01 The years following the attacks of September 11 2001 have seen the publication of a wide range of scientific analyses of terrorism Literary studies seem to lag curiously behind this general shift of academic interest The present volume sets out to fill this gap It does so in the conviction that the study of literature has much to offer to the transdisciplinary investigation of terror not only with respect to the present post 9 11 situation but also with respect to earlier historical contexts Literary texts are media of cultural self reflection and as such they have always played a crucial role in the discursive response to terror both contributing to and resisting dominant conceptions of the causes motivations dynamics and aftermath of terrorist violence By bringing together experts from various fields and by combining case studies of works from diverse periods and national literatures the volume Literature and Terrorism chooses a diachronic and comparative perspective It is interested in the specific cultural work performed by narrative and dramatic literature in the face of terrorism focusing on literature's ambivalent relationship to other competing modes of discourse American

Fiction of the 1990s Jay Prosser, 2016-04-01 American Fiction of the 1990s Reflections of History and Culture brings together essays from international experts to examine one of the most vital and energized decades in American literature This volume reads the rich body of 1990s American fiction in the context of key cultural concerns of the period The issues that the contributors identify as especially productive include Immigration and America's geographical borders particularly those with Latin America Racial tensions race relations and racial exchanges Historical memory and the recording of history Sex scandal and the politicization of sexuality Postmodern technologies terrorism and paranoia American Fiction of the 1990s examines texts by established authors such as Don DeLillo Toni Morrison Philip Roth and Thomas Pynchon who write some of their most ambitious work in the period but also by emergent writers such as Sherman Alexie Chang Rae Lee E Annie Proulx David Foster Wallace and Jonathan Franzen Offering new insight into both the literature and the culture of the period as well as the interaction between the two in a way that furthers the New American Studies this volume will be essential reading for students and lecturers of American literature and culture and late twentieth century fiction Contributors include Timothy Aubry Alex Blazer Kasia Boddy Stephen J Burn Andrew Dix Brian Jarvis Suzanne W Jones Peter Knight A Robert Lee Stacey Olster Derek Parker Royal Krishna Sen Zoe Trodd Andrew Warnes and Nahem Yousaf The Metareferential Turn in

Contemporary Arts and Media Werner Wolf, 2011-01-01 One possible description of the contemporary medial landscape in Western culture is that it has gone meta to an unprecedented extent so that a remarkable meta culture has emerged Indeed metareference i e self reflexive comments on or references to various kinds of media related aspects of a given medial artefact or performance specific media and arts or the media in general is omnipresent and can nowadays be encountered in high art and literature as frequently as in their popular counterparts in the traditional media as well as in new media From the Simpsons pop music children's literature computer games and pornography to the contemporary visual arts feature film postmodern fiction drama and even architecture everywhere one can find metareferential explorations comments on or criticism of representation medial conventions or modes of production and reception and related issues Within individual media and genres notably in research on postmodernist metafiction this outspoken tendency towards metaization is known well enough and various reasons have been given for it Yet never has there been an attempt to account for what one may aptly term the current metareferential turn on a larger transmedial scale This is what The Metareferential Turn in Contemporary Arts and Media Forms Functions Attempts at Explanation undertakes to do as a sequel to its predecessor the volume Metareference across Media vol 4 in the series Studies in Intermediality which was dedicated to theoretical issues and transhistorical case studies Coming from diverse disciplinary and methodological backgrounds the contributors to the present volume propose explanations of impressive subtlety breadth and depth for the current situation in addition to exploring individual forms and functions of metareference which may be linked with particular explanations As expected there is no monocausal reason to be found for the situation under scrutiny yet the proposals made have in their compination a remarkable explanatory power which contributes to a better understanding of an important facet of current media production and reception The essays assembled in the volume which also contains an introduction with a detailed survey over the possibilities of accounting for the metareferential turn will be relevant to students and scholars from a wide variety of fields cultural history at large intermediality and media studies as well as more particularly literary studies music film and art history

Bookforum      Representations of Technoculture in Don DeLillo's Novels Laila Sougri, 2023-09-04 This book is the first to explore technoculture in all of Don DeLillo s novels From Americana 1971 to The Silence 2020 the American author anatomizes the constantly changing relationship between culture and technology in overt and layered aspects of the characters experiences Through a tendency to discover and rediscover technocultural modes of appearance DeLillo emphasizes settings wherein technological progress is implicated in cultural imperatives This study brings forth representations of such implication interaction through various themes particularly perception history reality space architecture information and the posthuman The chapters are based on a thematic structure that weaves DeLillo s novels with the rich literary criticism produced on the author and with the various theoretical frameworks of technoculture This leads to the formulation and elaboration on numerous objects of research extracted from DeLillo s novels namely the theorization of DeLillo s radiance in dailiness the investigation of various uses of technology as an extension the role of image technologies in redefining history the reconceptualization of the ethical and behavioral aspects of reality the development of tele visual and embodied perceptions in various technocultural spaces and the involvement of information technologies in reconstructing the beliefs behaviors and activities of the posthuman One of the main aims of the study is to show how DeLillo s novels bring to light the constant transformation of technocultural everydayness It is argued that though such transformation is confusing or resisted at times it points to a transitional mode of being This transitional state does not dehumanize DeLillo s characters it reveals their humanity in a continually changing world
