Amour Rising A Collection Of Poetry:

The Refrain and the Rise of the Vernacular in Medieval French Music and Poetry Jennifer Saltzstein, 2013 A survey of the use of the refrain in thirteenth and fourteenth century French music and poetry showing how it was skilfully deployed to assert the validity of the vernacular The relationship between song quotation and the elevation of French as a literary language that could challenge the cultural authority of Latin is the focus of this book It approaches this phenomenon through a close examination of the refrain a short phrase of music and text quoted intertextually across thirteenth and early fourteenth century musical and poetic genres The author draws on a wide range of case studies from motets trouv re song plays romance vernacular translations and proverb collections to show that medieval composers quoted refrains as vernacular auctoritates she argues that their appropriation of scholastic Latinate writing techniques worked to authorize Old French music and poetry as media suitable for the transmission of knowledge Beginning with an exploration of the quasi scholastic usage of refrains in anonymous and less familiar clerical contexts the book goes on to articulate a new framework for understanding the emergence of the first two named authors of vernacular polyphonic music the cleric trouv res Adam de la Halle and Guillaume de Machaut It shows how by blending their craft with the writing practices of the universities composers could use refrain quotation to assert their status as authors with a new self consciousness and to position works in the vernacular as worthy of study and interpretation Jennifer Saltzstein is Assistant Professor of Musicology at the University of Oklahoma

The Arts of Love Duncan F. Kennedy, 1993 The five chapters that make up this short book examine the love elegies of the Roman poets Tibullus Propertius and Ovid from the point of view of the way the meanings attributed to the poems arise out of the interests and preoccupations of the cultural situation in which they are read Each study is centred around a reading of a poem or poems together with a discussion of a variety of sophisticated theoretical approaches drawn from modern scholars and theorists such as Paul Veyne Roland Barthes and Michel Foucault In each case the modes of analysis involved are pressed hard to see where they may lead and equally where they may show signs of strain All Latin texts and terms are translated or closely paraphrased

The Harmonic Orator Patricia M. Ranum, 2001 Proudly standing apart from its European neighbors the music of seventeenth and eighteenth century France represented a conscious synthesis of French speech rhythms French rhetorical practices and French theatrical recitation As such it demands its own performance style

Arabic-Andalusian Poetry and the Rise of the European Love-Lyric 'Abdulwāhid Lu'lu'a, 2013 The idea of this book goes back to the author's college days in the Department of Foreign Languages in Baghdad where he learned that English poetry developed under the influence of foreign types of poetry including classical medieval and Renaissance He began to wonder whether Arabic poetry had a role in that development especially in the love lyric its main aspect He researched during a sabbatical year in 1971-1972 in Cambridge UK and collected more material during summer vacations and conferences in Europe By 2010 he had enough material to write this book and a probable second edition The book covers

European poetry in the late Middle Ages and early Renaissance especially the rise of the first poetry in non Latin and on non ecclesiastical subjects as seen in the love lyrics of the troubadours The 12th century troubadour love lyric shows a clear influence of Arabic Andalusian poetry especially the new and non European attitude to love and women This new poetry spread to Sicily Italy and was popularized by Dante and his disciples A further development reached England in the 16th century best represented by Shakespeare

Amour Rising Tai Gooden, 2014-04-14 Experience the unique and emotionally charged storytelling of Tai Gooden in her first published collection of poetry Amour Rising delves deep into the innermost thoughts of this intriguing poet Although her poetry is based on her observations and experiences as an African American woman many of the themes are universal to all people love relationships and dreams deferred

Performance, Poetry and Politics on the Queen's Day Virginia Scott, Sara Sturm-Maddox, 2007 This collaborative interdisciplinary study explores issues in theatrical and literary history that converge in two performances during the fabled F tes de Fontainebleau produced for Catherine de Medici by Pierre de Ronsard and other artists and courtiers The authors also use their focus on the Queen's Day to consider a range of questions including the circumstances of the festival its political program and its relationship to court performance practices

The Poetic Theology of Love Thomas Hyde, 1986 This book argues that current criticism tends to take the mythology of love either too innocently or too skeptically and therefore distorts the complex roles played by the god of love in longer narrative poems and discursive works of the Middle Ages and the Renaissance

The Rise of the French Novel Martin Turnell, 1979

Painting, Poetry, and the Invention of Tenderness in the Early Roman Empire Hérica Valladares, 2020-12-17 This book connects the emergence of Latin love elegy and a new tender style in Roman wall painting earthly and divine love and between the secular lyric poet and the Christian auctor does little justice to his highly distinctive and often polemical handling of these categories The book firstly contextualizes traces and accounts for Dante s intriguing commitment to love poetry from the minor works to the Commedia It highlights his attempts especially in his masterpiece to overcome normative oppositions in formulating a uniquely redemptive vernacular poetics one oriented towards the eternal while rooted in his affective and indeed erotic past It then examines how this matter is at stake in Dante s treatment of three important lyric predecessors Guittone d Arezzo Arnaut Daniel and Folco of Marseilles Through a detailed reading of Dante s engagement with these poets the book illuminates his careful departure from a dualistic model of love and conversion and shows his erotic commitment to be at the heart of his claims to pre eminence as a vernacular author The Penguin
