The Enemy in Contemporary Film Martin Löschnigg, Marzena Sokołowska-Paryż, 2018-08-21 Culture and conflict inevitably go hand in hand. The very idea of culture is marked by the notion of difference and by the creative, fraught interaction between conflicting concepts and values. The same can be said of all key ideas in the study of culture such as identity and diversity, memory and trauma, the translation of cultures and globalization, dislocation and emplacement, mediation and exclusion. This series publishes theoretically informed original scholarship from the fields of literary and cultural studies as well as media, visual and film studies. It fosters an interdisciplinary dialogue on the multiple ways in which conflict supports and constrains the production of meaning, on how conflict is represented, how it relates to the past and projects the present, and how it frames scholarship within the humanities. Editors: Isabel Capeloa Gil, Catholic University of Portugal, Lisbon, Portugal; Paulo de Medeiros, University of Warwick, UK; Catherine Nesci, University of California, Santa Barbara, USA. Editorial Board: Arjun Appadurai, New York University; Claudia Benthien, Universität Hamburg; Elisabeth Bronfen, Universität Zürich; Bishnupriya Ghosh, University of California, Santa Barbara; Joyce Goggin, Universiteit van Amsterdam; Lawrence Grossberg, University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill; Andreas Huyssen, Columbia University; Ansgar Nünning, Universität Gießen; Naomi Segal, University of London; Birkbeck College; Marcio Seligmann Silva, Universidade Estadual de Campinas; António Sousa Ribeiro, Universidade de Coimbra; Roberto Vecchi, Università di Bologna; Samuel Weber, Northwestern University; Liliane Weissberg, University of Pennsylvania; Christoph Wulf, FU Berlin; Longxi Zhang, City University of Hong Kong.

Conflict Management and Intercultural Communication Xiaodong Dai, Guo-Ming Chen, 2022-11-15 Conflict management and harmony building are two key issues of intercultural communication research and merit particular attention in the globally interconnected world. In the expanded second edition, the book explores the effective ways to manage intercultural conflict and develop intercultural harmony and takes an interdisciplinary approach to address the two issues. The book begins with the theoretical perspectives on conflict management and harmony building. It examines intercultural communication, ethics, diversity and inclusion, conflict resolution, conflict face negotiation and intercultural competence. It presents both Western and non-Western perspectives. The book then addresses, in its second section, conflict management and harmony building in specific contexts. These include communication in intergenerational relationships, multinational corporations and virtual spaces, and covers a range of national cultures including the USA, Japan, Germany and China. Drawing on the current research findings, this book covers the major theoretical perspectives and provides for a wide range of discussions on intercultural conflict management. It is a crucial reference for teachers, students, researchers and practitioners alike.

A Different Mirror Ronald Takaki, 2012-06-05 Takaki traces the economic and political history of Indians, African Americans, Mexicans, Japanese, Chinese, Irish and Jewish people in America, with considerable attention given to instances and consequences of racism. The narrative is laced with short quotations, cameos of personal experiences and excerpts from folk music and literature. Well-known occurrences such as the Triangle Shirtwaist Factory Fire the Trail of Tears the Harlem Renaissance and the Japanese internment are included Students may be surprised by some of the revelations but will recognize a constant thread of rampant racism The author concludes with a summary of today s changing economic climate and offers Rodney King s challenge to all of us to try to get along Readers will find this overview to be an accessible cogent jumping off place for American history and political science plus a guide to the myriad other sources identified in the notes

The Handbook of Intercultural Discourse and Communication Christina Bratt Paulston, Scott F. Kiesling, Elizabeth S. Rangel, 2014-09-15 The Handbook of Intercultural Discourse and Communication Intercultural discourse and communication is emerging as an important area of research in a highly globalized and connected world where language and culture contact is frequent and cultural misunderstandings and misconceptions abound The handbook contains contributions from established scholars and up and coming researchers from a range of subfields to survey the theoretical perspectives and applied work in this burgeoning area of linguistics This timely volume features first a part that introduces the background detailing the scope and topics of the field followed by one that describes four different theoretical approaches and their basic research questions from Ethnography of Speaking and John Gumperz s Interactional Sociolinguistics to Critical Approaches and Postmodernism The third part Interactional Discourse Features describes and explains the features of talk that are frequently studied in cross cultural research such as turn taking and politeness The volume also includes a section on Interactional Discourse sites examining cross cultural communication such as Greek Turkish discourse The final part considers a variety of domains in which interaction takes place such as Translation Business Law Medicine Education and Religion
