Divine Music in Archaic and Classical Greek Art Carolyn Laferrière, 2024-02-29 In this volume Carolyn M Laferrière examines Athenian vase paintings and reliefs depicting the gods most frequently shown as musicians to reconstruct how images suggest the sounds of the music the gods made Incorporating insights from recent work in sensory studies she considers formal analysis together with literary and archaeological evidence to explore the musical culture of Athens Laferrière argues that images could visually suggest the sounds of the gods music This representational strategy whereby sight and sound are blurred conveys the unhearable nature of their music because it cannot be physically heard it falls to the human imagination to provide its sounds and awaken viewers multisensory engagement with the images Moreover when situated within their likely original contexts the objects establish a network of interaction between the viewer the visualized music and the landscape all of which determined how divine music was depicted perceived and reciprocated Laferrière demonstrates that participation in the gods musical performances offered worshippers a multisensory experience of divine presence

Greek Art and Aesthetics in the Fourth Century B.C. William A. P. Childs,2018-04-10 Greek Art and Aesthetics in the Fourth Century B C analyzes the broad character of art produced during this period providing in depth analysis of and commentary on many of its most notable examples of sculpture and painting Taking into consideration developments in style and subject matter and elucidating political religious and intellectual context William A P Childs argues that Greek art in this era was a natural outgrowth of the high classical period and focused on developing the rudiments of individual expression that became the hallmark of the classical in the fifth century As Childs shows in many respects the art of this period corresponds with the philosophical inquiry by Plato and his contemporaries into the nature of art and speaks to the contemporaneous sense of insecurity and renewed religious devotion Delving into formal and iconographic developments in sculpture and painting Childs examines how the sensitive expressive quality of these works seamlessly links the classical and Hellenistic periods with no appreciable rupture in the continuous exploration of the human condition Another overarching theme concerns the nature of style as a concept of expression an issue that becomes more important given the increasingly multiple styles and functions of fourth century Greek art Childs also shows how the color and form of works suggested the unseen and revealed the profound character of individuals and the physical world The Birth of Greek Art, from the Mycenaean to the Archaic Period Roland Hampe,Erika Simon,1981 Not the Classical Ideal Beth Cohen,2021-11-22 A vision of reality in which a pre eminent human type was defined in opposition to non ideal Others characterized ancient Greece In democratic Athens the social structure privileged male citizens and women resident aliens and slaves were marginalized The Persian Wars polarized the opposition of Greeks and Barbarians This anthology provides the first investigation of the delineation of otherness across a broad spectrum of the imagery of Greek art An international cast of authors with methodologies ranging from traditional to avant garde examines manifestations of the Other in Late Archaic and Classical Greek representations that particularly interest them The 17 chapters develop a nuanced picture of the visual criteria that denoted otherness in regard to gender class and ethnicity and also reveal the social and political functions of this remarkable Greek imagery Also available in paperback ISBN 9789004117129     Images at the Crossroads Judy Barringer, 2021-11-30 This collection includes twenty one new essays by leading scholars in the field of Greek art and archaeology Exploring a range of media including vase painting sculpture gems and coins they each address questions that cross the boundaries of specialised fields 0They outline the range of visual experiences at stake in the various media used in antiquity and shed light on the specificities of each medium They show how meaning is produced according to the nature of the medium its use context and enunciative structure Also explored are the different methodologies used to produce meaning how do images make or create sense to their ancient viewers and how can we now access those meanings 0This richly illustrated volume offers new interpretations and arguments concerning fundamental questions in the field which expands our knowledge and understanding of Greek art patrons and viewers     The History Written on the Classical Greek Body Robin Osborne, 2011-07-07 Shows that history written on the basis of texts alone creates a misleading picture of classical Greece
