Jazz Age Chicago: Crucible of Modern America Joseph Gustaitis, 2022 When people imagine 1920s Chicago they usually and justifiably think of Al Capone speakeasies gang wars flappers and flivvers Yet this narrative overlooks the crucial role the Windy City played in the modernization of America The city's incredible ethnic variety and massive building boom gave it unparalleled creative space as design trends from Art Deco skyscrapers to streamlined household appliances reflected Chicago's unmistakable style The emergence of mass media in the 1920s helped make professional sports a national obsession even as Chicago radio stations were inventing the sitcom and the soap opera Join Joseph Gustaitis as he chases the beat of America's Jazz Age back to its jazz capital Page 4 of cover

The Harlem Renaissance and Transatlantic Modernism Denise Murrell, 2024-02-25 Beginning in the 1920s Upper Manhattan became the center of an explosion of art writing and ideas that has since become legendary But what we now know as the Harlem Renaissance the first movement of international modern art led by African Americans extended far beyond New York City This volume reexamines the Harlem Renaissance as part of a global flowering of Black creativity with roots in the New Negro theories and aesthetics of Alain Locke its founding philosopher as well as the writings of W E B Du Bois Langston Hughes and Zora Neale Hurston Featuring artists such as Aaron Douglas Charles Henry Alston Augusta Savage and William H Johnson who synthesized the expressive figuration of the European avant garde with the aesthetics of African sculpture and folk art to render all aspects of African American city life this publication also includes works by lesser known contributors including Laura Wheeler Waring and Samuel Joseph Brown Jr who took a more classical approach to depicting Black subjects with dignity interiority and gravitas The works of New Negro artists active abroad are also examined in juxtaposition with those of their European and international African diasporan peers from Germaine Casse and Ronald Moody to Henri Matisse Edvard Munch and Pablo Picasso This reframing of a celebrated cultural phenomenon shows how the flow of ideas through Black artistic communities on both sides of the Atlantic contributed to international conversations around art race and identity while helping to define our notion of modernism

Archibald Motley Jr. and Racial Reinvention Phoebe Wolfskill, 2017-08-10 An essential African American artist of his era Archibald Motley Jr created paintings of black Chicago that aligned him with the revisionist aims of the New Negro Renaissance Yet Motley's approach to constructing a New Negro a dignified figure both accomplished and worthy of respect reflected the challenges faced by African American artists working on the project of racial reinvention and uplift Phoebe Wolfskill demonstrates how Motley's art embodied the tenuous nature of the Black Renaissance and the wide range of ideas that structured it Focusing on key works in Motley's oeuvre Wolfskill reveals the artist's complexity and the variety of influences that informed his work Motley's paintings suggest that the racist problematic image of the Old Negro was not a relic of the past but an influence that pervaded the Black Renaissance Exploring Motley in relation to works by notable black and non black contemporaries Wolfskill reinterprets Motley's oeuvre as part of a broad effort to define American cultural identity through race class gender religion and regional affiliation The Routledge Companion to African Diaspora Art History Eddie Chambers, 2024-10-31 This is an authoritative companion that is global in scope recognizing the presence of African Diaspora artists across the world It is a bold and broad reframing of this neglected branch of art history challenging dominant presumptions about the field Diaspora pertains to the global scattering or dispersal of in this instance African peoples as well as their patterns of movement from the mid twentieth century onwards Chapters in this book emphasize the importance of cross fertilization interconnectedness and intersectionality in the framing of African Diaspora art history The book stresses the complexities of artists born within or living and working within the African continent alongside the complexities of Africa born artists who have migrated to other parts of the world The group of international contributors emphasizes and accentuates the interplay between for example Caribbean art and African Diaspora art or Latin American art and African Diaspora art or Black British art and African Diaspora art The book will be of interest to scholars and students working in art history the various branches of African studies African American studies African Diaspora studies Caribbean studies and Latin American studies The Harlem Renaissance Cheryl A. Wall, 2016 This Very Short Introduction offers an overview of the Harlem Renaissance a cultural awakening among African Americans between the two world wars Cheryl A Wall brings readers to the Harlem of 1920s to identify the cultural themes and issues that engaged writers musicians and visual artists alike Early Race Filmmaking in America Barbara Lupack, 2016-05-26 The early years of the twentieth century were a formative time in the long history of struggle for black representation More than any other medium movies reflected the tremendous changes occurring in American society Unfortunately since they drew heavily on the nineteenth century theatrical conventions of blackface minstrelsy and the Uncle Tom Show traditions early pictures persisted in casting blacks in demeaning and outrageous caricatures that marginalized and burlesqued them and emphasized their comic or servile behavior By contrast race films that is movies that were black cast black oriented and viewed primarily by black audiences in segregated theaters attempted to counter the crude stereotyping and regressive representations by presenting more authentic racial portrayals This volume examines race filmmaking from numerous perspectives By reanimating a critical but neglected period of early cinema the years between the turn of the century and 1930 the end of the silent film era it provides a fascinating look at the efforts of early race film pioneers and offers a vibrant portrait of race and racial representation in American film and culture Inventing Stereotype Martin A. Berger, 2025-10-31 Berger excavates the lineage of stereotype as a concept illustrating how perception of stereotypes in works of literature and fine art shifts relative to representational norms Upending a century of scholarly and popular thinking about stereotype Martin A Berger traces our current understanding of it to the 1920s when American journalist and public intellectual Walter Lippmann borrowed the term from printmaking techniques and defined it as a shared mental picture that simplified a person event group or thing so it could be easily grasped Berger uncovers stereotype s intellectual debts to philosophy psychology political science and in particular art history and interwar racial theories Inventing Stereotype analyzes a series of plays novels and paintings from the 1920s and 1930s that sparked fierce debate about whether they employed racial stereotypes in the depiction of Black Jewish and other characters Through careful attention to audience responses parsed by race political leanings religion and class the book illustrates how artistic depictions are categorized as either stereotyped or not relative to current representational norms rather than to their success in conveying the authentic identities of individuals or racial groups We Are the Culture Arionne Nettles,2024-04-16 Black Chicago culture is American culture During the Great Migration more than a half million Black Americans moved from the South to Chicago and with them they brought the blues amplifying what would be one of the city s greatest musical art forms In 1958 the iconic Johnson Publishing Company the voice of Black America launched the Ebony Fashion Fair show leading to the creation of the first makeup brand for Black skin For three decades starting in the 1970s households across the country were transported to a stage birthed in Chicago as they moved their hips in front of TV screens airing Soul Train Chicago is where Oprah Winfrey a Black woman who did not have the traditional look TV managers pushed on talent premiered her talk show which went on to break every record possible and solidify her position as the Queen of Daytime TV It s where Hall of Famer Michael Jordan led the Bulls to six championships including two three peats making the NBA a must see attraction worldwide and wearing Jordans a style symbol to this day And it s home to Grammy winner Chance the Rapper whose work honors the city s cultural institutions from the White Sox to modern art superstar Hebru Brantley Pop culture expert Arionne Nettles takes us through the history of how Black Chicagoans have led pop culture in America for decades and gives insight into the ways culture spreads and influences our lives The Civil War in Art and Memory Kirk Savage,2016-01-01 Proceedings of the symposium The Civil War in Art and Memory organized by the Center for Advanced Study in the Visual Arts National Gallery of Art and sponsored by the Arthur Vining Davis Foundations The symposium was held November 8 9 2013 in Washington Going There Richard J. Powell,2020-10-02 A kaleidoscopic survey of black satire in 20th and 21st century American art In this groundbreaking study Richard J Powell investigates the visual forms of satire produced by black artists in 20th and 21st century America Underscoring the historical use of visual satire as antiracist dissent and introspective critique Powell argues that it has a distinctly African American lineage Taking on some of the most controversial works of the past century in all their complexity humor and provocation Powell raises important questions about the social power of art Expansive in both historical reach and breadth of media presented Going There interweaves discussions of such works as the midcentury cartoons of Ollie Harrington the installations of Kara Walker the paintings of Robert Colescott and the movies of Spike Lee

Other artists featured in the book include David Hammons Arthur Jafa Beverly McIver Howardena Pindell Betye Saar and Carrie Mae Weems Thoroughly researched and rich in context Going There is essential reading in the history of satire racial politics and contemporary art

Martin Luther King Jr and Barack Obama Race and Real Estate Adrienne R. Brown, Valerie Smith, 2015 Race and Real Estate brings together new work by architects sociologists legal scholars and literary critics that qualifies and complicates traditional narratives of race property and citizenship in the United States Rather than simply rehearsing the standard account of how blacks were historically excluded from homeownership the authors of these essays explore how the raced history of property affects understandings of home and citizenship While the narrative of race and real estate in America has usually been relayed in terms of institutional subjugation dispossession and forced segregation the essays collected in this volume acknowledge the validity of these histories while presenting new perspectives on this story Roots of the Black Chicago Renaissance Richard A. Courage, Christopher Robert Reed, 2020-05-29 The Black Chicago Renaissance emerged from a foundational stage that stretched from the 1893 World s Columbian Exposition to the start of the Great Depression During this time African American innovators working across the landscape of the arts set the stage for an intellectual flowering that redefined black cultural life Richard A Courage and Christopher Robert Reed have brought together essays that explore the intersections in the backgrounds education professional affiliations and public lives and achievements of black writers journalists visual artists dance instructors and other creators working in the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries Organized chronologically the chapters unearth transformative forces that supported the emergence of individuals and social networks dedicated to work in arts and letters The result is an illuminating scholarly collaboration that remaps African American intellectual and cultural geography and reframes the concept of urban black renaissance Contributors Richard A Courage Mary Jo Deegan Brenda Ellis Fredericks James C Hall Bonnie Claudia Harrison Darlene Clark Hine John McCluskey Jr Amy M Mooney Christopher Robert Reed Clovis E Semmes Margaret Rose Vendryes and Richard Yarborough
