Lang, 2025-06-03 This book comprehensively lays out the knowledge base required for architectural practice and education at a time when artificial intelligence AI algorithms are shaping the way architects think Architects with a desire to retain their creative role in the design of buildings and urban spaces must understand and articulate the theoretical bases of their work and what it can achieve This book provides a clear structure and outline of both the functional and procedural theoretical

Smith,2012 Presents common architectural subjects as though they were conversations across history between theorists by providing you with the original text a reflective text and a philosophical text      Le Corbusier, the Dishonest Architect Malcolm Millais,2018-01-23 This is not a book for architects but for all those that have suffered consciously and unconsciously from modern architecture and have wondered how it came about This was largely due to one man an architect called Le Corbusier For some he was a genius but the truth is he was a sham a fake a charlatan whose only gift was for self publicity He was the most influential architect of the second half of the twentieth century his influence overwhelmed the architectural profession on a global scale who swallowed his publicity whole and still hold him in awe For the rest of the world the mere mortals his influence was disastrous as traditional buildings were destroyed and replaced by featureless boxes of varying sizes imposing a dreariness hitherto unimagined As usual it was the poor who suffered most as they were herded into tower blocks These were often grouped into estates that ringed many towns and cities which then degenerated into high rise slums with all the well known attendant social problems This book exposes the myths that surround Le Corbusier detailing the endless failures of his proposals and his projects These were due to his profound dishonesty both as a person and as an architect His legacy was an architectural profession that believed and still believe they were designing buildings based on logic functionality and honesty whereas they were doing the opposite      An Introduction to Architectural Theory Harry Francis Mallgrave,David J. Goodman,2011-03-16 A sharp and lively text that covers issues in depth but not to the point that they become inaccessible to beginning students An Introduction to Architectural Theory is the first narrative history of this period charting the veritable revolution in architectural thinking that has taken place as well as the implications of this intellectual upheaval The first comprehensive and critical history of architectural theory over the last fifty years surveys the intellectual history of architecture since 1968 including criticisms of high modernism the rise of postmodern and poststructural theory critical regionalism and tectonics Offers a comprehensive overview of the significant changes that architectural thinking has undergone in the past fifteen years Includes an analysis of where architecture stands and where it will likely move in the coming years      The Visual Theology of the Huguenots Randal Carter Working,2016-02-18 The role of architecture within the French Reformed tradition has been of recent scholarly interest seen in the work of Helene Guicharnaud Catharine Randall Andrew Spicer and others Few however have explored in depth the relationship between Reformed theology and architectural forms This thesis explores the roots of Reformed aesthetics set against the background of late medieval church architecture The work of Serlio is demonstrably important in the spreading of the ideas of Vitruvius indicating the influence of classical Roman building on French Reformed architecture There follows an examination of five important Huguenot architects Philibert de l'Orme Bernard Palissy Jacques Androuet du Cerceau Salomon de Brosse and Jacques Perret We then undergo a comparative examination of three churches St Pierre in Geneva a medieval church overhauled by the Reformers St Gervais St Protais a Parisian Catholic church whose facade was completed by the French Reformed architect Salomon de Brosse and the temple at Charenton a structure also designed and built by de Brosse These three buildings reveal the contribution of Huguenot architecture a distinct language that gave expression to Reformed theological ideas and helped bring about the renewal of classicism in France
