of the book views Levittown from the outside Contributors consider the community's place in planning and architectural history and the Levitts strategies for the mass production of housing Other chapters address the class stratification of neighborhood sections through price structuring individual attempts to personalize a home's form and space as a representation of class and identity the builders focus on the kitchen as the centerpiece of the home and its greatest selling point the community's environmental and ecological legacy racist and exclusionary sales policies resident activism during the gas riots of 1979 and America's lost Eden Bringing together some of the top scholars in architectural history American studies and landscape studies Second Suburb explores the surprisingly rich interplay of design technology and social response that marks the emergence and maturation of an exceptionally potent rendition of the American Dream The
