Architecture And Feminism Yale Publications On Architecture:

Architecture and Feminism Elizabeth Danze, Carol Henderson, 1996 How are the seemingly disparate disciplines of architecture and feminism related This volume addresses this question through diverse essays and projects articles range from a definition of new possibilities for a feminist architecture to an analysis of the Playboy bachelor pad Encyclopedia of Twentieth Century Architecture R. Stephen Sennott, 2004 A balance of sophistication and clarity in the writing authoritative entries and strong cross referencing that links architects and structures to entries on the history and theory of the profession make this an especially useful source on a century of the world's most notable architecture The contents feature major architects firms and professional issues buildings styles and sites the architecture of cities and countries critics and historians construction materials and planning topics schools movements and stylistic and theoretical terms Entries include well selected bibliographies and illustrations Reference that rocks American Libraries May 2005 Architecture and Feminisms Hélène Frichot, Catharina Gabrielsson, Helen Runtig, 2017-11-10 Set against the background of a general crisis that is environmental political and social this book examines a series of specific intersections between architecture and feminisms understood in the plural The collected essays and projects that make up the book follow transversal trajectories that criss cross between ecologies economies and technologies exploring specific cases and positions in relation to the themes of the archive control work and milieu This collective intellectual labour can be located amidst a worldwide depletion of material resources a hollowing out of political power and the degradation of constructed and natural environments Feminist positions suggest ways of ethically coping with a world that is becoming increasingly unstable and contested The many voices gathered here are united by the task of putting critical concepts and feminist design tools to use in order to offer experimental approaches to the creation of a more habitable world Drawing inspiration from the active archives of feminist precursors existing and re imagined and by way of a re engagement in the histories theories and projected futures of critical feminist projects the book presents a collection of twenty three essays and eight projects with the aim of taking stock of our current condition and re engaging in our precarious environment worlds Deconstructing the American Mosque Akel Ismail Kahera, 2008-10-01 From the avant garde design of the Islamic Cultural Center in New York City to the simplicity of the Dar al Islam Mosque in Abiquiu New Mexico the American mosque takes many forms of visual and architectural expression The absence of a single authoritative model and the plurality of design nuances reflect the heterogeneity of the American Muslim community itself which embodies a whole spectrum of ethnic origins traditions and religious practices In this book Akel Ismail Kahera explores the history and theory of Muslim religious aesthetics in the United States since 1950 Using a notion of deconstruction based on the concepts of jamal beauty subject and object found in the writings of Ibn Arabi d 1240 he interprets the forms and meanings of several American mosques from across the country His analysis contributes to three debates within the formulation of a Muslim aesthetics in North America first over the meaning purpose and function of visual religious expression second over the spatial and visual affinities between American and non American mosques including the Prophet s mosque at Madinah Arabia and third over the relevance of culture place and identity to the making of contemporary religious expression in North America

Valences of Historiography Gevork Hartoonian,2024-12-30 The compiled essays offer various themes and ways of approaching historiography Each chapter probes the state of contemporary theorization of architecture histories working toward the theme of critically re writing history Essential to each author s contribution are specific traditions created by the mole of history burrowing through the past This book concerns the historian s conjectures towards capturing the past and present zeitgeist Temporality is the theme running through the narrative of this volume It raises the question of whether the ever growing body of work on architectural history should be considered as history More specifically what is the intersection between history and architectural history Furthermore can every text focused on architecture s past be considered categorically historiographic In what capacity does architectural history index history beyond contingencies and without reducing the text to empirical realities and the historian s interest in a specific subject including those collected through archival research itself an emblem of textuality This book upholds the conviction that the past should be recalled accurately and that there is no history but historical criticism the scope of which exceeds the historicity of Humanism Dialectically the timeline experienced across contemporary techno economic and cultural domains aesthetics offers an opportunity to explore architecture produced outside the Euro American continents Valences of Historiography offers a fresh take on architectural history that is useful for academics researchers and architecture students

Architecture of the Everyday Deborah Berke,Steven Harris,2012-04-17 Ordinary Banal Quotidian These words are rarely used to praise architecture but in fact they represent the interest of a growing number of architects looking to the everyday to escape the ever quickening cycles of consumption and fashion that have reduced architecture to a series of stylistic fads Architecture of the Everyday makes a plea for an architecture that is emphatically un monumental anti heroic and unconcerned with formal extravagance Edited by Deborah Berke and Steven Harris this collection of writings photo essays and projects describes an architecture that draws strength from its simplicity use of common materials and relationship to other fields of study Topics range from a website that explores the politics of domesticity to a transformation of the sidewalk in Los Angeles Little Tokyo to a discussion of the work of Robert Venturi and Denise Scott Brown Contributors include Margaret Crawford Peggy Deamer Deborah Fausch Ben Gianni and Mark Robbins Joan Ockman Ernest Pascucci Alan Plattus and Mary Ann Ray Deborah Berke and Steven Harris are currently associate professors of architecture at Yale University and have their own practices in New York City

Television and Postfeminist Housekeeping Elizabeth Nathanson,2013 In this book Nathanson examines how contemporary American television and associated digital media depict women s everyday lives as homemakers career women and mothers Her focus on American popular culture from the 1990s through the present reveals two extremes narratives about women who cannot keep house and narratives about women who only keep house Nathanson looks specifically at the issue of time in this context and argues that the media constructs panics about domestic time scarcity while at the same time offering solutions for those very panics Analyzing TV programs such as How Clean is Your House Up All Night and Supernanny she finds that media's portrayals of women's time is crucial to understanding definitions of femininity women's labor and leisure in the postfeminist context Architecture

Reading Lists and Course Outlines: Architectural design Architectural theory, history and criticism Human behavior Professional practice Special topics Urbandesign theory and history Georgia Bizios,1998 Symbolic Houses in Judaism Mimi Levy Lipis,2017-05-15 Investigating Jewish spatial practices by exploring the symbol of the house in Judaism this book examines two groups of houses ritual objects based on the iconology of the house ritual houses and house metaphors the text community and the covenant with god as house This unique pairing is explored as place making tools which exist in a constant state of tension between diaspora and belonging Containing many photographs of historical and contemporary artefacts from Europe Israel and the United States this book maps out the intersection of architecture Jewish studies cultural and gender studies and opens up the discussion of distinctly Jewish objects and metaphors to discourses taking place outside explicitly Jewish contexts Ways of Residing in Transformation Sten Gromark,Mervi Ilmonen,Katrin Paadam,Eli Støa,2017-05-15

Profound transformations in residential practices are emerging in Europe as well as throughout the urban world They can be observed in the unfolding diversity of residential architecture and spatially restructured cities The complexity of urban and societal processes behind these changes requires new research approaches in order to fully grasp the significant changes in citizens lifestyles their residential preferences capacities and future opportunities for implementing resilient residential practices The international case studies in this book examine why ways of residing have changed as well as the meaning and the significance of the social economic political cultural and symbolic contexts The volume brings together an interdisciplinary range of perspectives to reflect specifically upon the dynamic exchange between evolving ways of residing and professional practices in the fields of architecture and design planning policy making facilities management property and market In doing so it provides a resourceful basis for further inquiries seeking an understanding of ways of residing in transformation as a reflection of diversifying residential cultures This book will offer insights of interest to academics policy makers and professionals as well as students of urban studies sociology architecture housing planning business and economics engineering and facilities management

Architectural Design, Architectural Theory, History, and Criticism, Human Behavior, Professional Practice, Special Topics, Urban Design Theory and History Georgia Bizios,1998 Lesbianism, Cinema, Space Lee Wallace,2011-01-13

In this cutting edge volume Wallace identifies a unique trend in post Production Code films that deal with lesbian content stories of lesbianism invariably engage with an apartment setting a spatial motif not typically associated with lesbian history or cultural representation Through the formal analysis of five lesbian apartment films Wallace demonstrates how the standard repertoire of visual techniques and spatial devices the elements of mise en scene favoured locations and sets classical systems of editing and the implied story world itself are used to scaffold female sexual visibility With its sustained focus on the filmic syntax surrounding lesbian representation on screen in the post Production Code era the book comprises an original contribution to queer film studies In addition Wallace also deploys its discussion of lesbianism and cinematic space to critique a number of tendencies in contemporary social theory particularly the theoretical identification of public sex cultures as the basis for a queer counterpublic sphere

Locating Visual-Material Rhetorics Amy Prosen, 2012-01-03 Parks maps and mapping technologies like the GPS are objects of visual and material culture that rely on the interplay of text context image and space to guide our interpretations of the world around us LOCATING VISUAL MATERIAL RHETORICS THE MAP THE MILL AND THE GPS examines in depth and in several contemporary settings how visual and material discursive artifacts when understood as rhetorical shape our understanding of the unique cultural moments that these artifacts set out to represent

World Architecture, 1997 Historical Dictionary of Feminism Janet K. Boles, Diane Long Hoeveler, 2004 This Second Edition is an essential resource for librarians scholars and students This succinct handbook includes more than 1 000 entries covering the persons organizations campaigns and court cases goals and achievements and current and future directions of the feminist movement 75 percent of which are new and revised from the first edition This second edition also features a more internationally focused introduction that provides an overview of the history and development of feminism as a movement and as a philosophy Rounding out this new edition are an expanded chronology and an updated bibliography that brings attention to many feminist online resources and periodicals and emphasizes global and third wave feminism both new developments in the field since the publication of the first edition Paying tribute to the struggles of the women and men who have worked to change and to improve the living conditions for women in the world this book promises a comprehensive historical overview for readers of all interest levels

New Books on Women and Feminism, 1997 The Architect Francesca Hughes, 1996 The Architect Reconstructing Her Practice examines how the introduction of women to the main body of architecture might bring about a reconstruction of the orders that pervade architectural production and consumption At a moment when the architectural profession is beginning to shift from its traditionally male domination The Architect Reconstructing Her Practice examines how the introduction of women to the main body of architecture might bring about a reconstruction of the orders that pervade architectural production and consumption In a collection of autobiographical essays in which practice is both the site and the vehicle for change twelve American and European architects reflect on the nature of critical practice and its relation to architecture The contributors were chosen not only for the distinguished quality of their work but also for the range of architectural practices they collectively encompass from the intersection of theory and philosophy to the intersection of building process and industry Together they present a compelling and provocative critique of architectural culture All show a willingness to transgress the various mediums and territories of architecture to recover and reopen certain discussions lost in the architectural discourse they have inherited

Reassessing the Roles of Women as 'Makers' of Medieval Art and Architecture, 2012-05-07 These volumes propose a renewed way of framing the debate around the history of medieval art and architecture to highlight the multiple roles played by women Today's standard division of artist from patron is not seen in medieval inscriptions on paintings metalwork embroideries or buildings where the most common verb is made fecit At times this denotes the individual whose hands produced the work but it can equally refer to the person whose donation made the undertaking possible Here twenty four scholars examine secular and religious art from across medieval Europe to demonstrate that a range of studies is of interest not just for a particular time and place but because from this range overall conclusions can be drawn for the question of medieval art history as a whole Contributors are Mickey Abel Glair D Anderson Jane L Carroll Nicola Coldstream Mar a Elena D ez Jorge Jaroslav Folda Alexandra Gajewski Loveday Lewes Gee Melissa R Katz Katrin Kogman Appel Pierre Alain Mariaux Therese Martin Eileen McKiernan Gonz lez Rachel Moss Jenifer N Ghr daigh Felipe Pereda Annie Renoux Ana Maria S A Rodrigues Jane Tibbetts Schulenburg Stefanie Seeberg Miriam Shadis Ellen Shortell Loretta Vandi and Nancy L Wicker

Design and Feminism Joan Rothschild, Alethea Cheng, 1999 The distinction between the spaces considered public and private or work and home is becoming more blurred Our streets parks dwellings and tools are designed to a one size fits all standard and the responses of the design community to meet diverse needs have been mixed at best Design and Feminism offers feminist critiques of these inadequate design standards and suggest ideas projects and programs for change

Dirty Theory Hélène Frichot, 2019-10-25 Dirty theory follows the dirt of material and conceptual relations from the midst of complex milieus It messes with mixed disciplines showing up in ethnography in geography in philosophy and discovering a suitable habitat in architecture design and the creative arts Dirty theory disrupts a comfortable status quo including our everyday modes of inhabitation and our habits of thinking This small book argues that we must work with the dirt to develop an ethics of care and maintenance for our precarious environment worlds
