Archival appraisal & sound archives

- Audiovisual material can be housed together or may be maintained separately, but most archive material lines demarcation between Audiovisual material are often not distinct. Film, magnetic recording, music, sound and image.
- There are a problem of the integration of sound archives with other types of archive which make collection & acquisition has been carried out without adequate attention. Example, should one select material in all genre that is relevant to the collection.
- Preservation the original must not be necessary destroyed unless it is in a dangerous condition.

Example: Nitrate Film of the AV materials is self destruction nature.

Late-stage deterioration of nitrate film

Example of nitrate film (1930s film)
