Popular Culture in Africa Stephanie Newell, Onookome Okome, 2013-11-12 This volume marks the 25th anniversary of Karin Barber's ground-breaking article 'Popular Arts in Africa' which stimulated new debates about African popular culture and its defining categories. Focusing on performances, audiences, social contexts and texts, contributors ask how African popular cultures contribute to the formation of an episteme. With chapters on theater, Nollywood films, blogging and music and sports discourses as well as on popular art forms, urban and youth cultures and gender and sexuality, the book highlights the dynamism and complexity of contemporary popular cultures in sub-Saharan Africa. Focusing on the streets of Africa, especially city streets where different cultures and cultural personalities meet, the book asks how the category of the people is identified and interpreted by African culture producers, politicians, religious leaders and by the people themselves. The book offers a nuanced, strongly historicized perspective in which African popular cultures are regarded as vehicles through which we can document ordinary people's vitality and responsiveness to political and social transformations.

French-speaking Women Documentarians Janis L. Pallister, Ruth A. Hottell, 2005. French Speaking Women Documentarians is a guide for teachers of French and others interested in selecting and researching the work of female French-speaking documentarians. Represented in this book are filmmakers from Canada, various African nations, the Antilles, Lebanon, Switzerland, Belgium and several other countries, with emphasis on Agnès Varda of France, arguably the greatest female documentarian of all. The book includes information on each filmmaker, classified by country of origin and lists and describes her works, giving factual information such as date, duration, credits and synopses, and pointing out critical treatments, both in English and in French, of her most important films. Shorts, docudramas and works of animation are also discussed, as they too reflect history and culture. This guide will lead to the viewing of films that shed understanding on the culture being portrayed and to a greater appreciation of the contribution of French-speaking women filmmakers to this important, if not always objective, film genre.

Creative Hustling Robin Steedman, 2023-02-28. The first book-length study of Nairobi-based female filmmakers and how their dogged pursuit of opportunities, innovation and cultural support is defining an industry. Nairobi, the capital of Kenya, is home to something extraordinary and unlikely: in this city, the most critically acclaimed filmmakers, both directors and producers, are women. Yet across the globe, women make up less than 10 percent of film directors. In Creative Hustling, Robin Steedman takes a closer look at these remarkable women filmmakers, viewing them not only as auteurs but also as entrepreneurs who are taking the lead in creating a vibrant and atypical screen media industry. To understand their achievement, Steedman theorizes hustling as not only a practice born out of necessity but also an inventive labor in its own right, one that can create new spaces of community by carving new entrepreneurial pathways. Through original empirical field research gathered over eight months in Nairobi, Steedman describes how female filmmakers go about trying to create their films as well as the challenges they face in distributing those films in their local market. Along the way she traces the history of the industry over the last fifteen years the lack of state support for these filmmakers undertakings the low social standing of the profession and the transnational conflicts that arise when Euro American funding is at the heart of Kenyan cinema Creative Hustling is a major contribution to the task of de Westernizing media industry studies imparting important lessons about what it takes to create and distribute creative work in a global age increasingly marked by uncertain work Don't Whisper Too Much and Portrait of a Young Artiste from Bona Mbella Frieda Ekotto,2019-04-03 Don't Whisper Too Much and Bona Mbella present love stories between African women in a positive light In presenting the emotional and romantic lives of gay African women Ekotto addresses how female sexuality is often marked by violence and yet is also a place for emotional connection pleasure and agency Francophone African Women Documentary Filmmakers Suzanne Crosta,Sada Niang,Alexie Tcheuyap,2023-09-05 Francophone African Women Documentary Filmmakers is groundbreaking edited collection which explores the contributions of Francophone African women to the field of documentary filmmaking Rich in its scope and critical vision it constitutes a timely contribution to cutting edge scholarly debates on African cinemas Featuring 10 chapters from prominent film scholars it explores the distinctive documentary work and contributions of Francophone African women filmmakers since the 1960s It focuses documentaries by North African and Sub Saharan women filmmakers including the pioneering work of Safi Faye in Kaddu Beykat Rama Thiaw's The Revolution Will Not be Televised Katy Lena Ndiaye's Le Cercle des noyes and En attendant les hommes Dalila Ennadre's Fama Heroism Without Glory and Leila Kitani's Nos lieux interdits Shunned from costly fictional 35mm filmmaking Francophone African Women Documentary Filmmakers examines how these women engaged and experimented with documentary filmmaking in personal evocative ways that countered the officially sanctioned nationalist practice of show and teach promote Women's Film Festivals & #WomenInFilm Databases Marian Evans,2021-11-29 Essential handbook for women identified filmmakers in all their diversity who want to find and connect with their audiences And for everyone who loves those filmmakers and wants to watch their movies in real life or virtually Comprehensive global list of women's film festivals Africa Asia Canada and its publications Supplies each festival's Covid status Also lists databases that support and promote women and non binary filmmakers Contextualised in Introductions to each section and in Afterword If you love the diverse female gaze women's art and imaginations community and women's lived experience this is for you Investigating Gender Martha E.
