boomer growing up in Los Angeles and Inglewood California I felt the maverick in me My favorite TV shows were the westerns of the 1950s and 1960s I always admired the cowboys and gunslingers for their strong character and courage Like them I also was unconventional and independent and did not think or behave in the same way as my peers or others Occasionally I was rebellious and did not take orders readily As I grew and became a man I always felt confident in myself as a leader and I rarely regarded others especially my peers as being my even change or equivalent However to become a real man I needed leadership where I was weakest So I often sought from adult men righteousness truthfulness boldness faithfulness loyalty and authenticity I needed a man with good strong character who told the truth and spoke to me in a language that I understood not to discourage me or criticize me unfairly but to elicit from me my best traits Honestly I needed another maverick Christian to lead me away from destruction and into life Perhaps you feel the maverick in you Whether life is currently good bad or ugly I invite you to experience my Christian journey of aligning with the ultimate high priest for all mavericks Pray to God right now and ask Jesus to be your Savior He is able to inspire the wildest of us

Staging Christ's Passion in Eighteenth-Century Nahua Mexico Louise M. Burkhart, 2023-06-15 Staging Christ's Passion in Eighteenth Century Nahua Mexico explores the Passion plays performed in Nahuatl Aztec by Indigenous Mexicans living under Spanish colonial occupation Though sourced from European writings and devotional practices that emphasized the suffering of Christ and his mother this Nahuatl theatrical tradition grounded the Passion story in the Indigenous corporate community Passion plays had courted controversy in Europe since their twelfth century origin but in New Spain they faced Catholic authorities who questioned the spiritual and intellectual capacity of Indigenous people and in the eighteenth century sought to suppress these performances Six surviving eighteenth century scripts variants of an original play possibly composed early in the seventeenth century reveal how Nahuas passed along this model text while modifying it with new dialogue characters and stage techniques Louise M Burkhart explores the way Nahuas merged the Passion story with their language cultural constructs social norms and religious practices while also responding to surveillance by Catholic churchmen Analytical chapters trace significant themes through the six plays and key these to a composite play in English included in the volume A cast with over fifty distinct roles acted out events extending from Palm Sunday to Christ's death on the cross One actor became a localized embodiment of Jesus through a process of investiture and mimesis that carried aspects of pre Columbian materialized divinity into the later colonial period The play told a far richer version of the Passion story than what later colonial Nahuas typically learned from their priests or catechists And by assimilating Jesus to an Indigenous or macehualli identity the players enacted a protest against colonial rule The situation in eighteenth century New Spain presents both a unique confrontation between Indigenous communities and Enlightenment era religious reformers and a new chapter in an age old power game between popular practice and religious orthodoxy By focusing on how Nahuas localized the universalizing narrative of Christ's Passion Staging Christ's Passion in Eighteenth Century Nahua Mexico offers an unusually in depth view of religious life under colonial rule Burkhart's accompanying website also makes available transcriptions and translations of the six Nahuatl language plays four Spanish language plays composed in response to the suppression of the Nahuatl practice and related documentation providing a valuable resource for anyone interested in consulting the original material Comments restricted to single page plays composed in response to the suppression of the Nahuatl practice and related documentation providing a valuable resource for anyone interested in consulting the original material

Spirit Life Vincent Boateng, 2017-09-25 Many Christians today are asking What does it mean to live and walk in the Spirit and how do I live by walking in the Spirit as instructed by the Bible How do I BY THE SPIRIT put to death the deeds of the body so that I will LIVE and not DIE This is an urgent question it demands an immediate answer because it is a matter of LIFE and DEATH And yet there is no major book until now that authoritatively and definitively offers a practical Scriptural answer Spirit Life is the first book to present the Christian's walk in the Spirit as an all encompassing lifestyle that comprises walking in love walking by faith and not by sight walking in the Word of God or in the truth walking in the light walking in newness of life and walking in Christ It also offers practical advice and guidance on how to accomplish each

Why Holiness Matters Tyler Braun, 2012-08-01 Have we tried so hard to avoid being holier than thou that we've forgotten how important it is to be holy Authenticity matters Transparency matters Being open about our shortcomings misgivings and failures matters Yet holiness also matters This book is a timely reminder not to lose the old priorities as we take on the new albeit noble ones Millennial author Tyler Braun helps us understand that holiness is not just some fine ideal destined for generations past it's the unyielding pursuit that defines every Christian life The beginning of our calling toward a holy life is the challenge of loving God more deeply Holiness is not found in strict rule keeping alone it is found in our desire of the Holy One Holiness is not new behaviors Holiness is new affections

Losing Your Religion Chuck Bomar, 2013-11-18 Many Christians feel as if something is missing in their relationship with God They long to find an in depth authentic relationship with God Instead many believers find themselves living out a results oriented behavior management system of spiritual growth Unfortunately rather than leading to an intimate relationship with God this behavior based system does just the opposite It produces an unsatisfying life full of inner turmoil and doubt as Christians wonder whether or not they will ever experience the deeply satisfying life Jesus promised Chuck Bomar calls this the elephant in the room that nobody seems to talk about but everyone struggles with As the pastor of a church embraced by millennials and young families and a long time leader of seminars that help pastors reach this lost generation Chuck is uniquely qualified to write this book
