Behaviour: The Lost Modules Jen Foster,2023-09-02 Oh hey Thank you for being here Let me introduce myself My name is Jen Foster and I am an educator A few years ago I started an Instagram account dedicated to teaching I started by just sharing everything and anything and loving having a community of keen beans like me But it didn t take me long to spot something quite odd Scrolling through thousands of teachers experiences around the world there were two things that stood out like a sore thumb Behaviour was this huge obstacle in teaching The guidance around behaviour was either inconsistent vague or unhelpful So I decided to learn everything I could about behaviour I explored outside the education shelves and bought way too many books about neuroscience positive psychology business and parenting The more I learnt the more I reflected on my own practice and my own experiences in schools I asked educators in my community their opinions on behaviour and this is what I found out 93% felt that they had inadequate behaviour training as a trainee teacher 88% feel they have inadequate behaviour training as a qualified teacher So isn t it about time we shined a spotlight on behaviour Behaviour The lost Modules is the book you wish you had read before stepping into a classroom The book you wish had been required reading on your university reading list A book that is practical easy to read and tells you what you need to know about behaviour in primary schools A book by a teacher for teachers drawing on common sense personal experiences and current research
