Between River Sea Encounters Palestine:

The House Divided Barnaby Rogerson, 2024-07-02 An incisive look at the past present and future of the religious divide that lies at the heart of the Middle East At the heart of the Middle East with its regional conflicts and proxy wars is a 1400 year old schism between Sunni and Shia To understand this divide and its modern resonances we need to revisit its origins which go back to the death of the Prophet Muhammad in 632 the accidental coup that set aside the claims of his son Ali and the slaughter of Ali's own son Husayn at Karbala These events known to every Muslim have created a slender faultline in the Middle East The House Divided follows these narratives from the first Sunni and Shia caliphates through the medieval empires of the Arabs Persians and Ottomans to the contemporary Middle East It shows how a complex range of identities and rivalries religious ethnic and national have shaped the region jolted by the seismic shift of the Iranian Revolution of 1979 Rogerson's original approach takes the modern chessboard of nation states and looks at each through its particular history of empires and occupiers minorities and resources sheikhs and imams The result is wide ranging empathy understanding and insight a book that is vital for anyone wishing to understand many of the current tensions in the Middle East today

Arab-Jewish Activism in Israel-Palestine Marcelo Svirsky, 2016-04-15 Applying the insights of Deleuze and Guattari's works to Israel Palestine Arab Jewish Activism in Israel Palestine sets out to re-conceptualise the relationship between resistance and power in ethnically segregated spaces in general and the Israeli Palestine context in particular Combining many years of ethnographic study and political and social activism with a solid theoretical conceptual framework Marcelo Svirsky convincingly argues that successful efforts to decolonise the region depend on taking the struggle beyond self-determination and making it collaborative Decolonisation depends on political and cultural changes that elaborate on the historical partition of social life in the region that have been an issue since the early twentieth century This elaboration means producing a civil struggle aimed at the destabilisation of the Zionist supremacy and resulting in a democratic political community from the Mediterranean Sea to the Jordan River Simply not just another book on Israel and Palestine Arab Jewish Activism in Israel Palestine provides refreshingly new empirical evidence and theoretical analysis on the connection between resistance intercultural alliances civil society and the potential for actualising shared sociabilities in a conflict ridden society An indispensable read to all scholars wishing to gain original insights into the transversal connections which transcend ethnicity

Civil Society, Post-Colonialism and Transnational Solidarity Marie-Violaine Louvet, 2016-06-28 Civil Society Post Colonialism and Transnational Solidarity originates from Louvet s observation of the strong commitment of a layer of Irish civil society from the man on the street to political parties associations and trade unions to the defence of one antagonist or the other in the Israeli Palestinian conflict beginning with the Six Day War in 1967 and increasingly so after the Lebanon Wars at the start of the 1980s and the Second Intifada 2000 2005 This book observes how this phenomenon is particularly striking in Northern Ireland where Israeli and Palestinian flags have been flown by Unionists and Nationalists as signs of solidarity and identification Louvet sheds light on the dynamics and strategies at play in the Middle East conflict in Northern Ireland but also in the Republic of Ireland a country considered to be widely sympathetic to the Palestinian cause With an overarching perspective highlighting the influence of Irish colonial history over the motives and discourse of the different levels of mobilization in civil society this book shows the global movement towards the fragmentation and specialization of transnational solidarity actions in Ireland

Graham, Edgar Allan Poe, 1852 The Red Minaret: Memoirs of Ibrahim Ghushah \(Ex-Spokesman of Hamas\) Ibrahim Ghushah, 2013-11-26 This book is not merely the autobiography of Mr Ibrahim Ghushah it is also a living testimony of the Palestinian and Jordanian Muslim Brothers experience over a fifty years span Ghushesh's memoirs are characterized by their clarity and candor. They bring to light many of Hamas' stands and viewpoints regarding a number of issues which could be considered points of controversy among researchers in particular during the period leading to al Aqsa Intifadah. Please contact us or our agents to get the full printed edition. Presented by Dr Mohsen Moh'd Saleh General Manager of al Zaytouna Centre for Studies and Consultations. For the first time one of Hamas' prominent leaders in Diaspora publishes his autobiography. Indeed it is a testament to the era and to the experience of the Muslim Brothers Movement MB and Hamas described by an insider. When Ibrahim Ghushesh himself talks about the experience of the Muslim Brothers in Jordan and Palestine and about Hamas's experience doubtless he will attract all specialists and researchers whether in the Palestinian issue or the Islamic Movement. These memoirs are rich with information published for the first time by a man who has lived in the Jordanian and Palestinian MB environment for over 50 years and acted as Hamas's official spokesperson in 1991-1999. They also reflect the life and vision of one of the most prominent political decision makers especially in the first 12 years of the movement's inception. In fact the life and experience of the author make the book an indispensable source of information for researchers and scholars of the Palestinian issue especially the Islamic Palestinian trend. The choice of the title is meant to take the reader to the atmosphere of Jerusalem where the author grew up to see the red minaret of a mosque near his house. The language Ghushesh uses in this 13 chapter book is simple and explicit where the social familial and humanitarian side intermingles with the ideological political and resistance side away from artificiality and from the ego which is heavily found in memoirs. Ultimately the reader is presented with a person who firmly believes in his ideology loyal to and ready to sacrifice for it. Birth, Upbringing and al Nakbah Catastrophe. Ibrahim Ghushesh was born in 1936 a month following the first stage of the Palestinian Revolt. In the first chapter Ghushesh talks about his family and childhood memories while describing Jerusalem and al Aqsa Mosque before 1948. In the second chapter he describes his memories of al Nakbah of 1948, al Qastal Battle, the killing of Abdul Qadir al Hussein and his family's need to move to Jericho before going back to Jerusalem once again. Ghushesh also talks about the growing political interest among the youths and the attempts to identify the best way for liberating Palestine. He mentions his attraction in Grade Six to the lessons presented by Sheikh Taqiyyuddin al Nabahani in the Muslim Brothers Division and then his enrollment in the MB in Grade Seven following the footsteps of his elder brother Musa and his maternal cousin Mahmud al Arian. He then talks about the beginnings of Hizb ut Tahrir Liberation Party in Jerusalem and how al Nabahani could attract most MB scholars and intellectuals while only a limited number were left out like Zakariyya Qneibi and Ibrahim Abu Arafah. He also describes how the Muslim Brothers regained the lead benefiting from the growing strength of the MB in Egypt and east Jordan and from the return of students who were studying in Egypt. He also mentions how the likes of Shehadeh al Ansari, Salem Ali Salem and Muhammad Nimr Wehbeh participated in the reorganization and enhancement of MB work in Jerusalem. Ghushesh sheds light as well on the activities of the Muslim Brothers in Jerusalem until 1954 In the third chapter Ghushah talks about the rest of the 50s especially his study of engineering in Egypt and about underground work of the Palestinian and Jordanian Muslim Brothers due to the difficult security conditions during Nasser's rule He mentions the coordination between the Brothers coming from Jordan and those hailing from the Gaza Strip GS Ghushah casts light on the Palestinian League where he assures that the student list supported by the MB would always win the elections The Union was first headed by Yasir Arafat who was close to the Muslim Brothers then Salah Khalaf Abu Iyad who was a member of the MB Yet the MB student activity declined in the late 50s because of the security pressure they had to face As for the Brothers and their relation with the emergence of Fatah movement Ghushah draws the reader's attention to the fact that Fatah's early pioneers were MB members such as Khalil al Wazir Abu Jihad He points out to other names including Abdul Fattah al Hammoud Riyad al Za'nun and Muhammad Yusuf al Najjar who became Fatah leaders Ghushah illustrates the separation and differentiation between those who established Fatah and the Muslim Brothers while presenting an assessment of Nasser's experience Kuwait and Jordan Ghushah then talks about his work experience in the Kuwait Municipality in 1962 1966 and the establishment of the Palestine Liberation Organization PLO and the position of Fatah and the Brothers towards it He talks about the first the General Supervisor of the Palestinian Muslim Brothers Hani Bsiso who used to work as a teacher in Iraq and who was summoned by the Brothers to lead the Palestinian organization in 1963 where he settled in Egypt Bsiso was then detained along with Sayyid Qutb in the blow dealt to the Muslim Brothers in 1965 and he died in prison Ghushah returned to Jordan and worked in the construction of Khalid Ibn al Walid Dam He describes the reaction of the Muslim Brothers there to June 1967 war the Palestinian resistance work and the Brothers participation in al Shuyukh camps and the Brothers vision of the Jordan Army battles against the resistance organizations in 1970 1971 Ghushah talks about his participation in building the Kuwait Towers in early 1971 then in the construction of King Talal Dam in the late 1972 He also talks about the work of the MB movement with the Jordan Engineers Association where Ghushah headed the MB trend in the Association in 1973 He points out to the Brothers active participation since the ninth Association council in 1974 1975 until they were able to attract Laith Shubeilat and supported him to become the head of the syndicate in 1982 1983 The Islamic Work for Palestine in Diaspora Ghushah unveils some sides of the Islamic work for Palestine in Diaspora the most important of which was the formation of Palestine section affiliated with the Muslim Brothers leadership in Jordan after the Palestinian section in the GS merged with the Jordan Brothers in 1978 He talks about the internal conference which was held by this section in 1983 in the presence of a number of the Muslim Brothers leaders from the West Bank WB and GS such as Abdul Fattah Dukhan and from Kuwait such as Khalid Mish'al and others The meeting was important in the sense that it redefined the track and priorities of the Brothers work towards Palestine and confirmed that there is a new orientation that balances the drive towards an Islamic state in Arab and Islamic countries with popular resistance in Palestine and a third stage had begun for the Brotherhood to address the Palestinian issue Ghushah also points out to the formation of the Palestine Apparatus and that it was a decision by the MB International Organization the apparatus that followed from behind the curtain Hamas s launching and its aftermath Ghusheh talks about his enrollment with Hamas in 1989 at the request of the then General Guide of the Muslim Brothers Muhammad Abdul Rahman Khalifah Ghusheh who was in Kuwait was entrusted with the mission of forming Hamas s first political committee Hamas s Relation with Fatah and Jordan In chapter eight Ghusheh sheds light on Hamas s relation with Fatah and the PLO and displays the dialogue meetings with Fatah where the first one was in Yemen on 10 12 8 1990 and the second in August 1991 He also talks about the Iraqi occupation of Kuwait and his participation as a Hamas representative with the delegations in attempts to bridge the gap and convince the Iraqi leadership of withdrawal He also talks about the development of the Brothers political role in Jordan after their huge victory in the parliamentary elections in 1989 He sheds light on the arrival of a number of Hamas leaders from Kuwait to Jordan and their relations with the Jordanian government He points out to his appointment in late 1991 as an official spokesperson for Hamas the dialogue with the Popular and the Democratic Fronts for the Liberation of Palestine PFLP and DFLP and the meeting of the 10 factions which led to the formation of a front to oppose the Oslo Accords In chapter nine Ghusheh talks about the development of the relation between Hamas and Jordan during 1992 1993 the development of the relation with Fatah and the stance towards Oslo Accords He reveals the beginnings of Hamas s external relations in the early 1993 especially concerning returning those displaced to Marj al Zuhur where meetings were held in Amman with officials from the embassies of the United States US United Kingdom UK Italy and Norway However at the end of March 1993 the US State Department issued a decision banning any contact with Hamas In chapter 10 Ghusheh focuses on the period 1994 1996 and he mentions a number of Hamas activities and positions such as opposing the Oslo Accords the self immolation operations the killing of Yahya Ayyash He also talks about Hamas s relation with Fatah the renewed tension in the relation with Jordan and the conditions that forced Musa Abu Marzuq and Imad al Alami to leave the country in 1995 in addition to electing Mish al as the head of the Political Bureau to succeed Abu Marzuq in late 1995 In chapter 11 Ghusheh displays the development of relations with Jordan and he casts light on the assassination attempt that targeted Khalid Mish al and its implications besides the liberation of Sheikh Ahmad Yassin and his foreign tour In the following chapter he exposes the tension in the relations with the Jordan government and Intelligence in 1999 He also talks about the detention of Hamas leaders in Jordan their life in prison their political stances and the expulsion to Qatar of four leaders namely Khalid Mish al Ibrahim Ghusheh Sami Khatir and Izzat al Rishq and the complications that followed In chapter 13 Ghusheh talks about the 2000 2001 period and the development of the relations with Jordan Damascus and the Palestinian Authority in addition to al Aqsa Intifadah uprising He details the story of his return to Jordan in mid June 2000 and his detention in the airport for around two weeks until the issue was settled according to a new agreement that had him travel to Bangkok then return to Jordan Ghusheh never lost his vitality and he continued to follow up on different issues in the following years while participating in miscellaneous events whenever he could Yet his situation in Jordan restricted his movement The Red Minaret is a book rich with information and stances that any researcher of modern and contemporary history might need in relation to the Palestinian issue Also of importance is the index of names places and institutions at the end of the book which makes research work easier

The Land of Christ Yohanna Katanacho,2013-10-01 Palestinians and Israeli Jews live in one land yet as two distinct communities each of which claims ownership of the same territory How are we to understand the divine promise pertaining to the land Did God promise the land exclusively to the Jewish people Do the Palestinians have a right to live in the land or does God want them to leave After affirming important Palestinian Evangelical concerns The Land of Christ challenges the argument that God gave the land to Israel Yohanna Katanacho asks 1 What are the borders of the land 2 Who is Israel 3 How did God give Israel the land Through careful biblical exegesis the book responds to these questions exposing the superficiality of many slogans and claims Then the book presents an alternative biblical theology of the land However the theology of the land in this book is intimately associated with the context in Israel Palestine The Palestinian Kairos Document is the most accepted representative of the current Palestinian context and theology The book unpacks this document and extrapolates on its theology of the land Finally the author does not leave the reader without hope Katanacho portrays Hagar as a symbol of hope and considers the Korahite Psalms from the perspective of refugees

From Shared Life to Co-Resistance in Historic Palestine Marcelo Svirsky,Ronnen Ben-Arie,2017-11-07 How do we contribute to the decolonisation of Palestine In what ways can we divest from settler arrangements in the present day Exploring the Zionist takeover of Palestine as a settler colonial case this book argues that in studying the elimination of native life in Palestine the loss of Arab Jewish shared life cannot be ignored Muslims Christians and Jews shared a life in Ottoman Palestine and in a different way during British rule The attempt to eliminate native life involved the destruction of Arab society its cultural hegemony and demographic superiority but also the racial rejection of Arab Jewish sociabilities of shared life Thus the settlerist process of dispossession of the Arabs was complemented with the destruction of the social and cultural infrastructure that made Arab Jewish life a historical reality Both operations formed Israeli polity Can this understanding contribute to present day Palestinian resistance and a politics of decolonisation In this book the authors address this question by exploring how the study of elimination of shared life can inform Arab Jewish co resistance as a way of defying Israel s Zionist regime Above and beyond opposing an unacceptable state of affairs this book engages with past and present to discuss possible futures
