Beyond Human From Animality To Transhumanism:

Beyond Human Charlie Blake, Claire Molloy, Steven Shakespeare, 2012-03-15 Explores the implications of our animal origins and posthuman futures for our understanding of our humanity and our relations with other species

Beyond Human Charlie Blake, Claire Molloy, Steven Shakespeare, 2012-03-08 Beyond Human investigates what it means to call ourselves human beings in relation to both our distant past and our possible futures as a species and the questions this might raise for our relationship with the myriad species with which we share the planet Drawing on insights from zoology theology cultural studies and aesthetics an international line up of contributors explore such topics as our origins as reflected in early cave art in the upper Palaeolithic through to our prospects at the forefront of contemporary biotechnology In the process the book positions the human in readiness for what many have characterized as our transhuman or posthuman future For if our status as rational animals or animals that think has traditionally distinguished us as apparently superior to other species this distinction has become increasingly problematic It has come to be seen as based on skills and technologies that do not distinguish us so much as position us as transitional animals It is the direction and consequences of this transition that is the central concern of Beyond Human

The Transhumanist Movement Francesco Paolo Adorno, 2021-11-02 The book is published as part of the PRIN 2017 The Dark side of the Law This volume analyzes the theoretical underpinnings of the academic transhumanism movement beginning with the relationship between anthropology and technique The author focuses on the question of immortality which can be considered the core of transhumanism The true depth of immortality will be discussed through which and how many transformations could be produced in order to change our society which is basically shaped by and for human mortal beings in a society composed by immortal persons Some writers have written about what a future populated with immortals might look like which is far removed from both the bright future painted by transhumanists and from the disappearance of humanity feared by bioconservatives

The Oxford Handbook of Theology and Modern European Thought Nicholas Adams, George Pattison, Graham Ward, 2013-02-28 Modern European thought describes a wide range of philosophies cultural programmes and political arguments developed in Europe in the period following the French Revolution This handbook charts and explores recurring themes and approaches to this broad and complex topic particularly with regard to Theology

Levinas's Politics Annabel Herzog, 2020-03-13 A compelling account of politics and social philosophy in Levinas's Talmudic commentaries Emmanuel Levinas 1906 1995 was a French philosopher known for his radical ethics and for his contribution to Jewish thought in his commentaries on Talmudic sources In Levinas's Politics Annabel Herzog confronts a major difficulty in Levinas's philosophy the relationship between ethics and politics Levinas's ethics describes the encounter with the other that is with any other human being For Levinas the face to face encounter is a relationship in which the ego is commanded by a transcendent and unquestionable order to take responsibility for the other person Politics on the other hand presupposes at least three people the ego the other and any third party Among three people nothing can be transcendent on the contrary everything must be negotiated Against the conventional view of Levinas's conception of the political as the interruption and collapse of the ethical Herzog argues that in the Talmudic readings Levinas constructed politics positively She shows that Levinas's Talmudic readings embody a pragmatism that complements, revises and challenges the extreme ethical analyses he offers in his phenomenological works Totality and Infinity Otherwise than Being and Of God Who Comes to Mind Her analysis illuminates Levinas's explanations of the relationship between ethics and politics ethics is the foundation of justice justice contains a necessary violence that must be moderated by mercy and justice general laws and national aspirations must be linked in an attempt to improve universality itself

The Brontës and the Idea of the Human Alexandra Lewis, 2019-05-16 Investigates the idea of the human within Brontë sisters work offering new insight on their writing and cultural contexts

New Materialism and Theology Sam Mickey, 2022-05-16 New Materialism and Theology reflects on questions of human embodiment nonhuman agency technological innovation and what really matters now and in possible futures Bringing theological inquiry together with the philosophical movement of new materialism Sam Mickey points toward a variety of ways for thinking about matter and everything that materializes in human and more than human worlds Mickey provides introductory definitions and historical context for understanding the relationship between various theological and materialist ideas and practices He examines the self-declared novelty and materiality of new materialism noting the limitations of those labels while articulating the very new and quite material challenges that new materialism does indeed pose challenges of urgent existential importance that demand theological responses New Materialism and Theology faces the theological implications and material possibilities facing humanity while ecological and technological realities seem to be pointing toward posthuman or transhuman futures or perhaps something else entirely

War on the Human Konstantinos Blatanis, Theodora Tsimpouki, 2017-05-11 The essays in this collection explore the question of the human both as a contested concept and as it relates to and functions within the wider global conjuncture The authors explore the theoretical underpinnings of the term human inviting the reader to reflect upon the contemporary human condition to identify opportunities and threats in the changes ahead and to determine what aspects of our species we should abandon or strive to maintain The volume approaches these ideas from a myriad of perspectives but the authors are united in their abstention from rejecting humanism outright or indeed fully endorsing posthumanism's teleological narrative of accelerated progress and perfectability Instead the authors argue that the term human itself is better understood as a concept perpetually undergoing revision and is necessarily subject to scrutiny The contributors here are thus concerned with investigating the following questions What does it mean to be human or to have a self What is the current place or status of the human in the contemporary world As technology is increasingly used to modify our bodies and minds to what extent should we alter and how can we improve our very understanding of human nature The authors contend that literature is the art form best placed to answer these questions In its dynamism and discursiveness literature has the capacity to both reflect dominant discourses and ideologies as well as to generate and even anticipate social change to critique and refine conventional ideas and existing cultural modes and to envision new possibilities for the future The human and its literary representation in other words are inherently intertwined İNSANI YENİDEN DÜŞÜNMEK - Modern Düşüncede Temel Tartışmalar Lütfi Sunar, Latif Karagöz, Adem Levent, Ahmet Karakaya, Esra Kartal Soysal, Hakan Ertin, Kasım Küçükcalp, Metin Özdemir, Mevlüt Göl, Olkan Senemoğlu, Şaban Ali Düzgün, A Companion to American Indie Film Geoff King, 2016-12-19 A Companion to American Indie Film features a comprehensive collection of newly commissioned essays that represent a state of the art resource for understanding key aspects of the field of indie films produced in the United States Takes a comprehensive and fresh new look at the topic of American indie film Features newly commissioned essays from top film experts and emerging scholars that represent the state of the art reference to the indie film field Topics covered include indie film culture key historical moments and movements in indie film history relationships between indie film and other indie media and issues including class gender regional identity and stardom in the indie field Includes studies of many types of indie films and film genres along with various filmmakers and performers that have come to define the field The New Human in Literature Mads Rosendahl Thomsen, 2013-09-26 Twentieth century literature changed understandings of what it meant to be human Mads Rosendahl Thomsen in this historical overview presents a record of literature's changing ideas of mankind questioning the degree to which literature records and creates visions of the new human Grounded in the theory of Niklas Luhmann and drawing on canonical works Thomsen uses literary changes in the mind body and society to define the new human He begins with the modernist minds of Virginia Woolf Williams Carlos Williams and Louis Ferdinand Celine's discusses the society changing concepts envisioned by Chinua Achebe Mo Yan and Orhan Pamuk He concludes with science fiction discussing Don DeLillo and Michel Houellebecq's ideas of revolutionizing man through biotechnology This is a study about imagination aesthetics and ethics that demonstrates literature's capacity to not only imagine the future but portray the conflicting desires between individual and various collectives better than any other media A study that heightens reflections on human evolution and posthumanism Religion and Transhumanism Calvin Mercer, Tracy J. Trothen, 2014-11-17 Should technology be used to improve human faculties such as cognition and longevity This thought provoking dialogue between transhumanism and religion examines enhancement technologies that could radically alter the human species Transhumanism or human enhancement is an intellectual and cultural movement that advocates the use of emerging technologies to change human traits Although they may sound like science fiction the possibilities suggested by transhumanism are very real and the questions they raise have no easy answers If these enhancements especially major ones like the indefinite extension of healthy human life become widely available they would arguably have a more radical impact on humankind than any other development in history This book comprises essays that explore transhumanism and the issues that surround it addressing numerous fascinating questions posed by scholars of religion from various traditions How will immortality or extreme longevity change our religious beliefs and practices How might pharmaceuticals enhance spiritual experiences Will post human technologies be available to all persons or will a superior post human race arise to dominate the human species The discussions are as intriguing as the future they suggest

Animals as Legal Beings Maneesha Deckha, 2020 In Animals as Legal Beings Maneesha Deckha critically examines how Canadian law and by extension other legal orders around the world participate in the social construction of the human animal divide and the abject rendering of animals as property Through a rigorous but cogent analysis Deckha calls for replacing the exploitative property classification for animals with a new transformative legal status or subjectivity called beingness In developing a new legal subjectivity for animals one oriented toward respecting animals for who they are rather than their proximity to idealized versions of humanness Animals as Legal Beings seeks to bring critical animal theorizations and animal law closer together Throughout Deckha draws upon the feminist animal care tradition as well as feminist theories of embodiment and relationality postcolonial theory and critical animal studies Her argument is critical of the liberal legal view of animals and directed at a legal subjectivity for animals attentive to their embodied vulnerability and desirous of an animal friendly cultural shift in the core foundations of anthropocentric legal systems Theoretically informed yet accessibly presented Animals as Legal Beings makes a significant contribution to an array of interdisciplinary debates and is an innovative and astute argument for a meaningful more than human turn in law and policy

Religious Transhumanism and Its Critics Arvin M. Gouw, Brian Patrick Green, Ted Peters, 2022-03-10 Why do representatives of different religious traditions find the transhumanist vision of the future not only theologically compatible but even inspiring Transhumanism is a global movement seeking radical human enhancement The trans in transhumanism marks the transition from the present stage in human evolution into the future namely post human existence Containing chapters written by adherents to a variety of religious traditions Religious Transhumanism and Its Critics provides first hand testimony to the value of the transhumanist vision perceived by the religious mind In addition the contributors critique both secular and religious transhumanism in light of realistic science and commitment to social justice

The Wisdom of the Liminal Celia Deane-Drummond, 2014-10-30 In this book Celia Deane Drummond charts a new direction for theological anthropology in light of what is now known about the evolutionary trajectories of humans and other animals She presents a case for human beings becoming fully themselves through their encounter with God after the pattern of Christ but also through their relationships with each other and with other animals Drawing on classical sources particularly the work of Thomas Aquinas Deane Drummond explores various facets of humans and other animals in terms of reason freedom language and community In probing and questioning how human distinctiveness has been defined using philosophical tools she engages with a range of scientific disciplines including evolutionary biology biological anthropology animal behavior ethology and cognitive psychology The result is a novel deeply nuanced interpretation of what it means to be distinctively human in the image of financial crisis pandemic and conflict But are we to understand these crises as new phenomena Is their seemingly simultaneous existence purely coincidental Or rather do they instead form part of a singular historically produced unfolding crisis which only today has reached a generalised consciousness And perhaps most urgently how far can we separate the crises of human experience from those exacted upon the land The chapters collected in Crisis and Body Politics in Twenty First Century Cultural Production Territorial Bodies deploy the framework of Territorial Bodies to address urgent social ecological and political challenges Examining themes such as inter national bodily governance racialised bodies eco feminist movements spatial justice and bodily displacement this collection provides a deeper analysis of the interconnected forms of violence perpetrated against marginalised human and non human bodies taking this combined violence as the defining feature of contemporary crisis
