Beyond The Walls Monastic Wisdom For Everyday Life:

Beyond the Walls Paul Wilkes, 2010 Paul Wilkes believes that monastic spiritual wisdom can and should be accessible to all. Over the course of one year he made monthly trips to the brothers at Mepkin Abbey a Trappist Monastery. During each visit he focused on a particular aspect of monastic life and each month's visit comprises a chapter of this book. Each chapter opens with a description of Wilkes' physical visit to the monastery which he uses to lead into difficult explorations of issues such as faith, prayer, community and discernment. Each chapter closes as Wilkes searches for the proper ways to integrate what he has learned during his time at the Abbey into his life as a father, husband, teacher, writer and lay minister. He uses monastic wisdom to speak to the journey of faith itself, letting readers discover their own path beyond the walls. In Due Season Paul Wilkes, 2009-03-16 Paul Wilkes has been a writer, journalist, a TV producer, a monastic, a hedonist, a friend of the famous, a family man and ultimately a true prodigal son. With In Due Season Wilkes, one of America's most respected writers on religious belief and spirituality, details his search for God from his working class upbringing in Cleveland to giving up everything he owned and living with the poor to his hedonistic life among the rich and famous. Wilkes's inspiring life story is one of abysmal failure and ultimate triumph of a faith in God battered and tried in the crucible of his experience.
