Christian teaching From the Foreword by John Piper      Beyond the Bounds John Piper, 2007      Reformed Resurgence

Brad Vermurlen, 2020 One of the biggest movements in American Christianity especially among younger evangelicals is a groundswell of interest in the Reformed tradition In Reformed Resurgence Brad Vermurlen provides a comprehensive sociological account of this New Calvinist phenomenon and what it entails for the broader evangelical landscape in the United States      Divine Control, Human Contingencies and the Problem of Evil Aku Stephen

Antombikums, 2025-06-11 This book investigates whether open theism provides a clear and viable response to the problem of evil To better understand open theism classical theism Molinism and process theism are also considered Responses to the problem of evil have traditionally revolved around God's goodness justice and power By contrast this book argues that in order to resolve or better understand the tension between divine sovereignty and human freedom the attributes of God have to be understood as a set Starting from this basis the book examines divine immutability eternity aseity omniscience omnipotence love and creation in order to make sense of the problem of evil The nature of human freedom is also explored Divine Control Human Contingencies and the Problem of Evil is essential reading for all scholars and researchers of the philosophy of religion especially those focusing on the problem of evil      Revitalizing Theological Epistemology Steven B

Sherman, 2010-03-25 In Revitalizing Theological Epistemology Steven B Sherman addresses questions about what evangelical theology ought to be doing in light of the changing cultural situation He wonders if the Christian faith should continue to be presented and defended mainly according to Enlightenment principles when growing criticism of modern thought is affecting virtually every discipline and if evangelicalism and its intellectual leaders ought to wait it out or whether they should re-vision their theology This book is about contemporary evangelical approaches to the knowledge of God considering and suggesting ways Christian philosophers and theologians envision and make use of theological knowledge in the postmodern context      Precious Enemy Toby Jennings, 2017-04-17 King Solomon asserted love is as strong as death Song of Solomon 8:6

Solomon the wisest of all Israel's kings recognized that while every human would eventually succumb to death death is not ultimate in power The God whose essence is love designed and created both human life and death as instruments for the display of his own splendor and purposes Neither human life nor death then can deviate from God's ultimate purpose and good for the creature made in his own image Biblically death serves as the perfect foil to mark both the immeasurable value of human life and at the same time the relatively limited value of it Rather than either worshipping or desecrating this finite gift of human life we can value it rightly and also worship the God who in his literally infinite wisdom gives and takes away life in accord with his good and gracious purposes      The Dialogical Spirit Amos Yong, 2014-10-22 Contemporary proposals for Christian theology from postliberalism to Radical Orthodoxy and beyond have espoused their own methodological paradigms Those who have ventured into this domain of theological method however have usually had to stake their claims vis a vis trends in what may be called the contemporary post-al age whether of the postmodern post-Christendom post

Enlightenment post Western or postcolonial varieties This volume is unique among offerings in this arena in suggesting a way forward that engages on each of these fronts and does so from a particularistic Christian perspective without giving up on Christian theology's traditional claims to universality This is accomplished through the articulation of a distinctive dialogical methodology informed by both pentecostalism and evangelicalism one rooted in the Christian salvation history narrative of incarnation and Pentecost that is yet open to the world in its many and various cultural ethnic religious and disciplinary discourses Amos Yong here engages with twelve different interlocutors representing different ecumenical religious and disciplinary perspectives The Dialogical Spirit thus not only proffers a model for Christian theological method suitable for the twenty first century global context but also exemplifies this methodological approach through its interactions across the contemporary scholarly academic and theological landscape

A Heart for God's Glory Lee Botzet, 2007 A Heart for God's Glory The Revival of a God centered Faith in a Self centered World is a personal journey and a biblical theological historical study regarding the urgent need to recover our divinely created purpose to glorify God by passionately loving Him and finding our greatest satisfaction in Him

The World in His Hands Christopher Lee Bolt, 2019-04-17 From the moment we wake until the time we go to sleep we are bombarded by the benefits of science in the practical elements of everyday life Electricity lights hot showers breakfast cereals clothing cars cell phones roads security systems computers communications traffic lights climate control and entertainment are just a sampling of the many benefits of science In addition to technological advances medicine and agriculture progress with science as well Even educational political and marketing strategists invoke science to substantiate their claims Science dominates the collective Western mindset and we regard it with the utmost respect Yet society remains generally religious even though science and religion are frequently thought of as being at odds with one another How do we reconcile the two Christians are taught to believe that God is in control of everything including the natural elements But how does God relate to physical laws Is God in control of the world or laws of nature Could both views be correct This book examines the Christian doctrine of divine providence and its implications for the laws of nature and the problem of induction before contrasting secular and Islamic approaches to these same topics

That God May Be All in All Ryan L. Rippee, 2018-03-02 Christology and Pneumatology have long been major preoccupations for theologians and rightly so but the work of God the Father has been surprisingly neglected Through a biblical and exegetical study of the Father's person and work Paterology this book argues that among the persons of the Trinity the Father is the initiator of all divine activity Furthermore it is in the context of a loving eternal relationship with the Son and Spirit that the Father has planned and purposed all things creating through the Son and by the Spirit promising and accomplishing redemption through the sending of the Son and the Spirit and perfecting salvation by bringing about a new heavens and new earth through his Son and Spirit The only proper response is a Trinitarian shaped life of worship that worships our Triune God

of petitionary prayer      The End of the Timeless God R. T. Mullins, 2016 This book considers two approaches to the philosophy of time presentism and eternalism      Tornado God Peter J. Thuesen, 2020 One of the earliest sources of humanity's religious impulse was severe weather which ancient peoples attributed to the wrath of storm gods Enlightenment thinkers derided such beliefs as superstition but in America scientific and theological hubris came face to face with the tornado nature's most violent windstorm In this groundbreaking history Peter J Thuesen traces the primal connections between weather and religion in the United States He shows that tornadoes and other storms have repeatedly drawn Americans into the profoundest of religious mysteries and confronted them with the question of their own destiny how much is self determined and how much is beyond human understanding or control      The Supremacy of God in Preaching John Piper, 2004-02-01 According to Warren Wiersbe The Supremacy of God in Preaching calls us back to a biblical standard for preaching a standard exemplified by many of the pulpit giants of the past especially Jonathan Edwards and Charles Spurgeon This newly revised edition is an essential guide for preachers who want to stir the embers of revival Piper focuses his study on the example of Jonathan Edwards as an illustration of a leader who submitted to God      Above All Earthly Powers David F. Wells, 2005 In this prophetic call to the evangelical church Wells stresses that Christians need to confess Christ as the center in a society lacking a center as the sovereign in a world seemingly ruled by chance and as the one who can give meaning in a nihilistic culture      Love, Freedom, and Evil Thaddeus J. Williams, 2011-01-01 The defining premise of the Relational Free Will Defense is the claim that authentic love requires free will Many scholars including Gregory Boyd and Vincent Brummer champion this claim Best selling books such as Rob Bell's Love Wins echo that love cannot be forced manipulated or coerced It always leaves room for the other to decide The claim that love requires free will has even found expression in mainstream Hollywood films including Frailty Bruce Almighty and The Adjustment Bureau The analysis shows convincingly that the claim that authentic love requires free will does not meet the criteria of consistency compatibility with Scriptural sources and the demands of concrete encounter with problems of moral evil      Towards a Theology of Relationship Michael Berra, 2024-01-25 With the theme of relationship receiving renewed attention in a variety of areas theological expressions of the subject are also being brought back into the spotlight Although the concept of a personal relationship with God is a common Christian expression it is often poorly defined Here Michael Berra draws on the Swiss theologian Emil Brunner to redefine and rehabilitate the analogy of relationship Basing his study primarily on Brunner's seminal work Truth as Encounter Berra proposes that relationship ought to be the central motif for the whole of theology He investigates the theme in light of modern relationship science arguing that God human interaction categorically meets the definition of a relationship and that it is existentially intended to be intimate Scholars and church leaders will find in Berra's approach a refreshing voice in this dynamic field      With Calvin in the Theater of God John Piper, David Mathis, 2010-09-01 John Calvin saw this world as God's theater where his glory is always on display Just as day and night pour forth speech the universe and history are not silent either they tell the glory of God Reflecting on over 500 years of Calvin's legacy John Piper and this book's other contributors invite us to join Calvin in the theater of God Stemming from the Desiring God 2009 National Conference this volume includes chapters by Julius Kim Douglas Wilson Marvin Olasky Mark Talbot Sam Storms and John Piper It touches on topics such as Calvin's life the Christian meaning of public life sin and suffering the joy of the last resurrection and Jesus Christ as the development of God's story Editors John Piper and David Mathis along with the contributors make John Calvin's Christ exalting perspective on the glory of God accessible to today's readers Both Calvinists and other evangelicals interested in the life and work of Calvin will find these essays refreshing and instructive leading to a robust understanding of the world as the theater of God

The Cambridge Companion to Evangelical Theology Timothy Larsen, Daniel J. Treier, 2007-04-12 Evangelicalism a vibrant and growing expression of historic Christian orthodoxy is already one of the largest and most geographically diverse global religious movements This Companion first published in 2007 offers an articulation of evangelical theology that is both faithful to historic evangelical convictions and in dialogue with contemporary intellectual contexts and concerns In addition to original and creative essays on central Christian doctrines such as Christ the Trinity and Justification it breaks new ground by offering evangelical reflections on issues such as gender race culture and world religions This volume also moves beyond the confines of Anglo American perspectives to offer separate essays exploring evangelical theology in African Asian and Latin American contexts The contributors to this volume form an unrivalled list of many of today's most eminent evangelical theologians and important emerging voices
