Beyond Walled City Colonial Exclusion:

Beyond the Walled City Guadalupe Garcia, 2016 Once one of the most important port cities in the New World Havana was a model for the planning and construction of other colonial cities This book tells the story of how Havana was conceived built and managed and explores the relationship between colonial empire and urbanization in the Americas Guadalupe Garcia shows how the policing of urban life and public space by imperial authorities from the sixteenth century onward was explicitly centered on politics of racial exclusion and social control She illustrates the importance of colonial ideologies in the production of urban space and the centrality of race and racial exclusion as an organizing ideology of urban life in Havana Beyond the Walled City connects colonial urban practices to contemporary debates on urbanization the policing of public spaces and the urban dislocation of black and ethnic populations across the region Provided by publisher Beyond the Walled City Guadalupe Garcia, 2015-12-22 Once one of the most important port cities in the New World Havana was a model for the planning and construction of other colonial cities This book tells the story of how Havana was conceived built and managed and explores the relationship between colonial empire and urbanization in the Americas Guadalupe Garcia shows how the policing of urban life and public space by imperial authorities from the sixteenth century onward was explicitly centered on politics of racial exclusion and social control She illustrates the importance of colonial ideologies in the production of urban space and the centrality of race and racial exclusion as an organizing ideology of urban life in Havana Beyond the Walled City connects colonial urban practices to contemporary debates on urbanization the policing of public spaces and the urban dislocation of black and ethnic populations across the region Provided by publisher Bourdieu in the City Loïc Wacquant, 2022-12-16 Building on three decades of comparative research on marginality ethnicity and penalty in the postindustrial metropolis Loïc Wacquant offers a novel interpretation of Pierre Bourdieu as urban theorist He invites us to explore the city through what he calls the trialectic of symbolic space the mental categories through which we perceive and organize the world social space the distribution of capital in its different forms and physical space the built environment On this reading Bourdieu's topological sociology gives us the tools both to energize and also to challenge the canon of urban studies and to redraw their theoretical landscape Compact and incisive Bourdieu in the City will be of interest to students and scholars in sociology anthropology geography urban studies urban planning architecture and social theory New Approaches to the Comparative Abolition in the Atlantic and Indian Oceans Jesús Sanjurjo, Manuel Barcia, 2023-05-08 Taking the theme of abolition as its point of departure this book builds on the significant growth in scholarship on unfree labour in the Atlantic and Indian Ocean worlds during the past two decades The essays included here revisit some of the persistent problems posed by the traditional comparative literature on slavery and indentured labour and identify new and exciting areas for future research This book is intended for a broad audience including scholars students as well as for a general readership who have specific interests in the history of the slave trade slavery and imperial history It was originally published as a special issue of the journal Atlantic Studies Global Currents Islanders and Empire Juan José Ponce Vázquez, 2020-10-29 A pioneering examination of the role smuggling played in the transformation of Spanish Caribbean society and culture in the seventeenth century The Routledge Companion to African Diaspora Art History Eddie Chambers, 2024-10-31 This is an authoritative companion that is global in scope recognizing the presence of African Diaspora artists across the world It is a bold and broad reframing of this neglected branch of art history challenging dominant presumptions about the field Diaspora pertains to the global scattering or dispersal of in this instance African peoples as well as their patterns of movement from the mid twentieth century onwards Chapters in this book emphasize the importance of cross fertilization interconnectedness and intersectionality in the framing of African Diaspora art history The book stresses the complexities of artists born within or living and working within the African continent alongside the complexities of Africa born artists who have migrated to other parts of the world The group of international contributors emphasizes and accentuates the interplay between for example Caribbean art and African Diaspora art or Latin American art and African Diaspora art or Black British art and African Diaspora art The book will be of interest to scholars and students working in art history the various branches of African studies African American studies African Diaspora studies Caribbean studies and Latin American studies The Work of Empire Justin F. Jackson, 2025-05-01 In 1898 on the eve of the Spanish American War the US Army seemed minuscule and ill equipped for global conflict Yet over the next fifteen years its soldiers defeated Spain and pacified nationalist insurgencies in both Cuba and the Philippines Despite their lack of experience in colonial administration American troops also ruled and transformed the daily lives of the 8 million people who inhabited these tropical islands How was this relatively small and inexperienced army able to wage wars in Cuba and the Philippines and occupy them American soldiers depended on tens of thousands of Cubans and Filipinos both for military operations and civil government Whether compelled to labor for free or voluntarily working for wages Cubans and Filipinos suspended between civilian and soldier status enabled the making of a new US overseas empire by interpreting guiding building selling sex and many other kinds of work for American troops In The Work of Empire Justin Jackson reveals how their labor forged the politics economics and culture of American colonialism in Cuba and the Philippines and left an enduring imprint on these islands and the US Army itself Jackson offers new ways to understand the rise of American military might and how it influenced a globalizing imperial world Tropical Leviathan Aaron Graham, 2025-01-24 The colonial Jamaican state was immensely wealthy but it was a society consumed by fear The White population feared the possibility of enslaved rebellion and foreign invasion and the Black population feared their cruel treatment as overworked labourers on Jamaica's brutal but economically productive sugar plantations With the wealthy White population investing heavily in security to protect themselves from the rebelling enslaved majority it was a society at war The wealth of the plantation system meant that White Jamaicans and their imperial representatives were able to secure the finances for this until the last decade of the eighteenth century By the early nineteenth century however the cost was proving increasingly burdensome and the great slave rebellion of 1831-32 proved fatal to the financial and political viability of the colonial state leading to emancipation in the mid 1830s Tropical Leviathan re-evaluates the political and economic history of the colonial Jamaican state in the tumultuous age of revolution and abolition With a large body of previous unknown data it provides empirical evidence of a functioning colonial state that contrary to previous interpretations was far from declining in the years immediately before the abolition of the slave trade in 1807 Aaron Graham provides in-depth analysis of the ways in which Jamaica's economy attempted but eventually failed to provide the resources that would maintain Jamaica as a functioning plantation state and explains how the cost of securing the colonial state against enslaved opposition eventually led to near state bankruptcy and to enslaved emancipation Tropical Leviathan is a comprehensive study of the complex intersections between slavery and security in a slave society and an important re-evaluation of Jamaica in the age of revolution and abolition The making, breaking and remaking of the colonial state emerges as key in the rise and fall of slavery in Jamaica

Race and Reproduction in Cuba

Bonnie A. Lucero, 2022-11-01 Women's reproduction including conception, pregnancy, childbirth, breastfeeding and other physical acts of motherhood as well as the rejection of those roles played a critical role in the evolution and management of Cuba's population While existing scholarship has approached Cuba's demographic history through the lens of migration, both forced and voluntary Race and Reproduction in Cuba challenges this male normative perspective by centering women in the first book-length history of reproduction in Cuba Bonnie A. Lucero traces women's reproductive lives as well as key medical, legal and institutional interventions influencing them over four centuries Her study begins in the early colonial period with the emergence of the island's first charitable institutions dedicated to relieving poor women and abandoned white infants The book's centerpiece is the long nineteenth century when elite interventions in women's reproduction hinged not only on race but also legal status It ends in 1965 when Cuba's nascent revolutionary government shifted away from enforcing anti-abortion laws that had historically targeted impoverished women of color Questioning how elite demographic desires specifically white population growth and nonwhite population management shaped women's reproduction Lucero argues that elite men including judges, physicians, philanthropists and public officials intervened in women's reproductive lives in racially specific ways Lucero examines how white supremacy shaped tangible differences in the treatment of women and their infants across racial lines and outlines how those reproductive outcomes were crucial in sustaining racial hierarchies through moments of tremendous political, economic and social change

Black Freedom and Education in Nineteenth-Century

Cuba Raquel Alicia Otheguy, 2025-01-14 In this book Raquel Otheguy argues that Afro-descended teachers and activists were central to the development of a national education system in Cuba and influenced the trajectory of public school systems in the broader Americas

The Low-Carbon Contradiction

Gustav Cederlof, 2023-09-19 In the pursuit of socialism Cuba became Latin America's most oil-dependent economy When the Soviet Union collapsed the country lost 86 percent of its crude oil supplies resulting in a severe energy crisis In the face of this shock Cuba started to develop a low carbon economy based on economic and social reform rather than high tech innovation The Low Carbon Contradiction examines this period of rapid low carbon energy transition which many have described as a Cuban miracle or even a real life case of successful degrowth Working with original research from inside households workplaces universities and government offices Gustav Cederl f retells the history of the Cuban Revolution as one of profound environmental and infrastructural change In doing so he opens up new questions about energy transitions their politics and the conditions of a socially just low carbon future The Cuban experience shows how a society can transform itself while rapidly cutting carbon emissions in the search for sustainability

Slavery, Mobility, and Networks in Nineteenth-Century Cuba Daylet Domínguez, Victor Goldgel Carballo, 2023-09-06 With a focus on nineteenth century Cuba this volume examines understudied forms of mobility and networks that emerged during Second Slavery After being forcibly taken across the Atlantic enslaved Africans were moved within Cuba and sometimes sold to owners in other Caribbean islands or the U S South The chapters included in this book written by historians and literary critics pay special attention to debates between abolitionists and proslavery ideologues the ways in which people and ideas moved from the countryside to the city from one Caribbean Island to the next and from the United States or the coasts of West Africa to the sugarcane fields They examine how enslaved persons ran away or were captured and coerced to relocate how they mobilized information and ideas to ameliorate their situation and how they were used to advance other people s interests Movement these chapters show was regularly deployed to reinforce enslavement and the suppression of rights while at times helping people in their struggle for freedom This book will be a great resource for academics researchers and advanced students of Latin American Literature Global Slavery and Postcolonial Studies The chapters were originally published in the journal Atlantic Studies Global Currents

Imperial Islands Joseph R. Hartman, 2021-11-30 When the USS Maine mysteriously exploded in Havana s harbor on February 15 1898 the United States joined local rebel forces to avenge the Maine and liberate Cuba from the Spanish empire Remember the Maine To Hell with Spain So went the popular slogan Little did the Cubans know that the United States was not going to give them freedom in less than a year the American flag replaced the Spanish flag over the various island colonies of Cuba Guam Puerto Rico and the Philippines Spurred by military successes and dreams of an island empire the US annexed Hawai i that same year even establishing island colonies throughout Micronesia and the Antilles With the new governmental orders of creating new art architecture monuments and infrastructure from the United States the island cultures of the Caribbean and Pacific were now caught in a strategic scope of a growing imperial power These spatial and visual objects created a visible confrontation between local indigenous African Asian Spanish and US imperial expressions These material and visual histories often go unacknowledged but serve as uncomplicated proof for the visible confrontation between the US and the new island territories The essays in this volume contribute to an important art historical visual cultural architectural and materialist critique of a growing body of scholarship on the US Empire and the War of 1898 Imperial Islands seeks to reimagine the history and cultural politics of art architecture and visual experience in the US insular context The authors of this volume propose a new direction of visual culture and spatial experience through nuanced terrains for writing envisioning and revising US American Caribbean and Pacific histories These original essays address the role of art and architecture in expressions of state power racialized and gendered representations of the United States and its island colonies and forms of resistance to US cultural presence Featuring interdisciplinary approaches Imperial Islands offers readers a new way of learning the ongoing significance of vision and experience in the US empire today particularly for Caribbean Latinx Pilipinx and Pacific Island communities

Global City Typologies Nigel C. Lewis, 2025-07-31 Global City Typologies explores the historical cultural and socio economic transactional forces in the development of existing cities through to newly planned and emerging cities Individual chapters address different sets and typologies of global cities to analyse their comparative evolution and standing today The separate parts and individual chapters have been grouped around 125 different established planned and emerging cities and analysed according to different typologies and thematic categories that comprise historic cities early trading cities planned cities emerging global cities mega cities and megalopolitan agglomerations These span five continents including the industrial cities of Chicago and Manchester new capitals such as Brasilia and New Delhi innovative cities such as Singapore and Tel Aviv and mega cities such as Mexico City The book is fully illustrated throughout with modern and historical maps which enables visualisation of the forces that have shaped ongoing development of these major global cities This is an essential book for students and professionals in urban design and planning administrators economists designers and developers

Black Women, Citizenship, and the Making of Modern Cuba Takkara K. Brunson, 2023-03-07 In the first book to focus on the activism of Black women during Cuba's prerevolutionary period Takkara Brunson discusses how these women battled exclusion on multiple fronts but played an important role in forging a modern democracy

A Cuban City, Segregated Bonnie A. Lucero, 2019-04-09 A microhistory of racial segregation in Cienfuegos a central Cuban port city Founded as a white colony in 1819 Cienfuegos Cuba quickly became home to people of African descent both free and enslaved and later a small community of Chinese and other immigrants Despite the racial ethnic and cultural diversity that defined the city's population the urban landscape was characterized by distinctive racial boundaries separating the white city center from the heterogeneous peripheries A Cuban City Segregated Race and Urbanization in the Nineteenth Century explores how the de facto racial segregation was constructed and perpetuated in a society devoid of explicitly racial laws Drawing on the insights of intersectional feminism Bonnie A. Lucero shows that the key to understanding racial segregation in Cuba is recognizing the often unspoken ways specifically classed notions and practices of gender shaped the historical production of race and racial inequality In the context of nineteenth century Cienfuegos gender race and class converged in the concept of urban order a complex and historically contingent nexus of ideas about the appropriate and desired social hierarchy among urban residents often embodied spatially in particular relationships to the urban landscape As Cienfuegos evolved subtly over time the internal logic of urban order was driven by the construction and defense of a legible developed aesthetically pleasing and most importantly white city center Local authorities produced policies that reduced access to the city center along class and gendered lines for example by imposing expensive building codes on centric lands criminalizing poor peoples leisure activities regulating prostitution and quashing organized labor Although none of these policies mentioned race outright this new scholarship demonstrates that the policies were instrumental in producing and perpetuating the geographic marginality and discursive erasure of people of color from the historic center of Cienfuegos during its first century of existence

Laboring for the State Rachel Hynson,2020-01-23 The Cuban revolutionary government engaged in social engineering to redefine the nuclear family and organize citizens to serve the state
