during a self imposed exile in Geneva and Rome is a particularly dazzling amalgam of these seemingly disparate tendencies in Gogol's writing. The story begins by taking its readers through the mundane and alienating world of a bureaucratic office in St Petersburg where an awkward impoverished clerk must scrimp and save in order to afford a badly needed new winter coat. As the story progresses we enter a fairy tale world of supernatural revenge where the clerk's corpse is seen wandering city streets ripping coats off the backs of passersby. Gogol's story is both comic and horrific at once: a scathing social satire, moralistic fable and psychological study.
