The Wandering Falcon By Jamil Ahmad:

The Wandering Falcon Jamil Ahmad, 2011-06-30 The Wandering Falcon is Jamil Ahmad's harsh and beautiful portrait of a tribal landscape SHORTLISTED FOR THE MAN ASIAN PRIZE 2011 LONGLISTED FOR THE DSC SOUTH ASIAN PRIZE 2013 The boy known as Tor Baz the black falcon wanders the tribal landscape of Pakistan Iran and Afghanistan He meets men who fight under different flags and women who risk everything if they break their society's code of honour Where has he come from and where will fate take him Striking One of the finest collections of short stories to come out of south Asia in decades Rarely has a writer shown greater empathy for its people or brought such wisdom and knowledge to writing about a terrain largely inaccessible The power and beauty of these stories are unparalleled in most fiction to come out of south Asia Guardian Astonishing Independent Remarkable Written in a style that has about it the reverberant clarity of fables but their intention is realist uncovering a largely neglected world and their cumulative effect is deeply moving Sunday Times Its setting alone in the cruel and punishing highlands deserts and rocky altitudes where the borders of Pakistan Afghanistan and Iran meet is worth the price of admission Here is a book to my knowledge the first in fiction that gives an insider's account of the hard bitten lives of the scores of tribes collectively known as the Pawindas or foot people The result is mesmerising The Times Brilliantly evokes the harshness of nomadic life Chilling Metro Jamil Ahmad was born in Jalandhar in 1933 As a member of the Civil Service of Pakistan he served mainly in the Frontier Province and in Balochistan He was Political Agent in Quetta Chaghi Khyber and Malakand and later commissioner in Dera Ismail Khan and Swat He was posted as minister in Pakistan's embassy in Kabul at a critical time before and during the Soviet invasion of Afghanistan in 1979 and his last assignment in the government was Chief Secretary Balochistan He lives in Islamabad with his wife Helga Ahmad The Wandering Falcon Jamil Ahmad, 2011 The boy known as Tor Baz the black falcon wanders between tribes He meets men who fight under different flags and women who risk everything if they break their society's code of honour Where has he come from and where will destiny take him Set in the decades before the rise of the Taliban Jamil Ahmad's stunning debut takes us to the essence of human life in the forbidden areas where the borders of Pakistan Iran and Afghanistan meet Today the tribal areas are often spoken about as a remote region a hotbed of conspiracies drone attacks and conflict In The Wandering Falcon this highly traditional honour bound culture is revealed from the inside for the first time With rare tenderness and perception Jamil Ahmad describes a world of custom and cruelty of love and gentleness of hardship and survival a fragile unforgiving world that is changing as modern forces make themselves known With the fate defying story of Tor Baz he has written an unforgettable novel of insight compassion and timeless wisdom It is true I am neither a Mahsud nor a Wazir But I can tell you as little about who I am as I can about who I shall be Think of Tor Baz as your hunting falcon That should be enough

Rehumanizing Muslim Subjectivities Aroosa Kanwal,2024-01-31 Rehumanizing Muslim Subjectivities Postcolonial Geographies Postcolonial Ethics is a timely and urgent monograph allowing us to imagine what it feels like to be the victim of genocide abuse dehumanization torture and violence something which many Muslims in Palestine Kashmir Pakistan Myanmar Syria Iraq and China have to endure Most importantly the book emphasizes the continued relevance of creative literature's potential to intervene in and transform our understanding of a conceptual and political field as well as advanced technologies of power and domination The book makes a substantial theoretical contribution by drawing on wide ranging angles and dimensions of contemporary drone warfare and its related catastrophes postcolonial ethics in relation to the thanatopolitics of slow violence dehumanization and the politics of death Against the backdrop of such institutionalized and diverse acts of violence committed against Muslim communities I call the postcolonial Muslim world geographies of dehumanization The book investigates how ongoing legacies of contemporary forms of injustice and denial of subjecthood are represented staged and challenged in a range of postcolonial anglophone Muslim texts thereby questioning the idea of postcolonial ethics One of the selling points of this book is the chapters on fictional representations by Muslim Myanmar and Uyghur writers as to the best of my knowledge no critical work or single authored book is available on Myanmar and Uyghur literature to date

The Pakistan Paradox Christophe Jaffrelot,2016-06-16 The idea of Pakistan stands riddled with tensions Initiated by a small group of select Urdu speaking Muslims who envisioned a unified Islamic state today Pakistan suffers the divisive forces of various separatist movements and religious fundamentalism A small entrenched elite continue to dominate the country's corridors of power and democratic forces and legal institutions remain weak But despite these seemingly insurmountable problems the Islamic Republic of Pakistan continues to endure The Pakistan Paradox is the definitive history of democracy in Pakistan and its survival despite ethnic strife Islamism and deepseated elitism This edition focuses on three kinds of tensions that are as old as Pakistan itself The tension between the unitary definition of the nation inherited from Jinnah and centrifugal ethnic forces between civilians and army officers who are not always in favour of or against democracy and between the Islamists and those who define Islam only as a cultural identity marker

Environmental Thought in Contemporary Pakistani Fiction Sonia Irum, 2025-03-11 This book looks at Pakistani fiction from an environmental perspective focusing on the novels of the internationally renowned author Uzma Aslam Khan It explores the rich environmental landscapes of Khan's works and their distinctive contribution to developing Pakistani ecocriticism The book examines the discourse on the environment in contemporary Pakistani fiction in English and the contribution of Khan's fiction such as The Story of Noble Rot Trespassing Thinner than Skin and others towards developing ecological thinking in Pakistani literature and literary criticism In her novels Khan gives voice to the nonhuman or the Other highlights the harmonious connections between humans and nature and reflects on the far reaching ecological social and health effects of climate change The author showcases literary activism and analyses how the state engages with the ecopolitical discourses in Pakistani society by studying the intersections of Western imperialism militarism state policies capitalism consumerism and global climate change The book will be of interest to students and researchers of English literature environmental studies ecocriticism literary and critical studies postcolonial studies and indigenous studies

Pakistan after Trump Saloni Kapur, 2021-03-08 Since 9 11 the international narrative on Pakistan has painted a picture of a country that is a safe haven for terrorists and a state sponsor of terrorism that plays a double game as it pretends to fight militant Islamist extremists while nurturing them in its backyard This discourse came to prominence in January 2018 when US President Donald Trump famously tweeted that his country had foolishly provided military aid to Pakistan since 2001 in return for which Pakistan had given safe haven to the terrorists they hunt in Afghanistan This book questions this dominant narrative by showing how the great powers the United States the United Kingdom China India Saudi Arabia and Iran have directly caused the emergence of a militant ecosystem in Pakistan Drawing on interviews with journalists diplomats academics military officers and government officials it argues that it is Pakistanis who have borne the brunt of terrorist violence especially since 9 11 The book uses the English School of International Relations concept of great power responsibility to explore how powerful states could help fight militancy in Pakistan holistically It highlights the Pakistani military's effort to rehabilitate young militants and posits that international society must support not only hard counterterrorism through military aid but also soft counterterrorism such as rehabilitation to address the root causes of radicalisation With the Trump administration's suspension of military aid to Pakistan this timely book offers guidance for policymakers in both the West and Asia on how best to approach Pakistan's security quagmire

The Long War David Loyn, 2025-09-23 Just as U S soldiers and diplomats pulled out of Afghanistan supposedly concluding their role and responsibility in the two decade conflict the country fell to the Taliban In The Long War award winning BBC foreign correspondent David Loyn uncovers the political and military strategies and failures that prolonged America s longest war Three American presidents tried to defeat the Taliban sending 150 000 international troops at the war s peak with a trillion dollar price tag But early policy mistakes that allowed Osama bin Laden to escape made the task far more difficult Deceived by easy victories they backed ruthless corrupt local allies and misspent aid The story of The Long War is told by the generals who led it through the hardest years of combat as surges of international troops tried to turn the tide Generals which include David Petraeus Stanley McChrystal Joe Dunford and John Allen were tested in battle as never before With the reputation of a warrior monk McChrystal was considered one of the most gifted military leaders of his generation He was one of two generals to be fired in this most public of commands Holding together the coalition of countries who joined America s fight in Afghanistan was just one part of the multi dimensional puzzle faced by the generals as they fought an elusive and determined enemy while responsible for thousands of young American and allied lives The Long War goes behind the scenes of their command and of the Afghan government The fourth president to take on the war Joe Biden ordered troops to withdraw in 2021 twenty years after 9 11 just as the Taliban achieved victory leaving behind an unstable nation and an unforeseeable future

Imagining Muslims in South Asia and the Diaspora Claire Chambers, Caroline Herbert, 2014-08-13 Literary cinematic and media representations of the disputed category of the South Asian Muslim have undergone substantial change in the last few decades and particularly since the events of September 11 2001 Here we find the first book length critical analysis of these representations of Muslims from South Asia and its diaspora in literature the media culture and cinema Contributors contextualize these depictions against the burgeoning post 9 11 artistic interest in Islam and also against cultural responses to earlier crises on the subcontinent such as Partition 1947 the 1971 Indo Pakistan war and secession of Bangladesh the 1992 Ayodhya riots the 2002 Gujarat genocide and the Kashmir conflict Offering a comparative approach the book explores connections between artists generic experimentalism and their interpretations of life as Muslims in South Asia and its diaspora exploring literary and popular fiction memoir poetry news media and film The collection highlights the diversity of representations of Muslims and the range of approaches to questions of Muslim religious and cultural identity as well as secular discourse Essays by leading scholars in the field highlight the significant role that literature film and other cultural products such as music can play in opening up space for complex reflections on Muslim identities and cultures and how such imaginative cultural forms can enable us to rethink secularism and religion Surveying a broad range of up to date writing and cultural production this concise and pioneering critical analysis of representations of South Asian Muslims will be of interest to students and academics of a variety of subjects including Asian Studies Literary Studies Media Studies Women s Studies Contemporary Politics Migration History Film studies and Cultural Studies
