The Alhambra Robert Irwin, 2012-06 The Alhambra has long been a byword for melancholy beauty In his absorbing new book Robert Irwin Arabist and novelist examines its history and allure The Alhambra is the only Muslim palace to have survived since the Middle Ages Built by a threatened dynasty of Muslim Spain it was preserved as a monument to the triumph of Christianity Every day thousands of tourists enter this magnificent site to be awestruck by its towers and courts its fountained gardens its honeycombed ceilings and intricate tile work It is a complex full of mysteries even its purpose is unclear Its sophisticated ornamentation is not indiscriminate but full of hidden meaning Its most impressive buildings were designed not by architects but by philosophers and poets The Alhambra which resembles a fairy tale palace was constructed by slave labor in an era of economic decline plague and political violence Its sumptuously appointed halls have lain witness to murder and mayhem Yet its influence on art and on literature including Orientalist painting and the architecture of cinemas Washington Irving and Jorge Luis Borges has been lasting and significant As our guide to this architectural masterpiece Robert Irwin allows us to fully understand the impact of the Alhambra place The name means house of the poor and is well applied Sixty generations have appeared and vanished since the little cluster of unplastered stone habitations was so christened but I presume the dwellings and the people were similar in the time of Christ to those that are called Bethany now You can see through the cracks between the stones of the walls of the houses and the inhabitants are Arab peasants who the son of their sheikh declared are too lazy either to work or to steal They call the town El Aziriyeh now which is the Arabic for Lazarus whom Jesus raised from the dead According to traditions he was the local sheikh and owned the village and the land around it This is confirmed by the Scripture story Jesus made His home at the house of Lazarus probably because it was the best in the village Lazarus had a family sepulcher hewn out of the rock which is evidence of his wealth and the large number of people who attended his funeral is evidence of his influence and popularity The only cave in the village is pointed out as his tomb and is probably the place It appears to be partly natural and partly artificial the marks of the chisel being shown in the limestone walls It is reached by a flight of about twenty worn and broken steps which have been carved in the rock and lead first to an antechamber where Jesus no doubt stood when He said Lazarus come forth and the body of the dead
