Architecture Between Spectacle And Use Clark Studies In The Visual Arts:

Architecture Between Spectacle and Use Anthony Vidler, 2008 This volume examines the state of contemporary architecture worldwide and the ways in which it is caught between the art of display and the accommodation of use

Leaving The Twentieth Century McKenzie Wark, 2024-08-20 The acclaimed history of the groundbreaking Situationist movement The Situationist International which leaped to the fore during the Paris tumult of 1968 has extended its revolutionary influence right up to the present day In Leaving the Twentieth Century the movement is captured for the first time in its full range and diversity McKenzie Wark traces the group s development from the bohemian Paris of the 50s to the explosive days of May 68 She introduces the group as an ensemble revealing the work and activities of thinkers previously obscured by the reputation of founding member Guy Debord Roaming through Europe and exploring the vital lives its members including Constant Asger Jorn Mich le Bernstein Alexander Trocchi and Jacqueline de Jong Wark uncovers a group riven with conflicting passions She follows the narrative beyond 1968 to the Situationists International s disintegration and beyond the ideas of T J Clark the Fourierist utopia of Raoul Vaneigem Ren Vignet s earthy situationist cinema Gianfranco Sanguinetti s pranking of the Italian ruling class Alice Becker Ho s account of the anonymous language of the Romany and Debord s late films and his surprising work as a game designer

The Beach Beneath the Street McKenzie Wark, 2015-04-03 Over fifty years after the Situationist International appeared its legacy continues to inspire activists artists and theorists around the world Such a legend has accrued to this movement that the story of the SI now demands to be told in a contemporary voice capable of putting it into the context of twenty first century struggles McKenzie Wark delves into the Situationists unacknowledged diversity revealing a world as rich in practice as it is in theory Tracing the group s development from the bohemian Paris of the 50s to the explosive days of May 68 Wark s take on the Situationists is biographically and historically rich presenting the group as an ensemble creation rather than the brainchild and dominion of its most famous member Guy Debord Roaming through Europe and the lives of those who made up the movement including Constant Asger Jorn Michle Bernstein Alex Trocchi and Jacqueline De Jong Wark uncovers an international movement riven with conflicting passions Accessible to those who have only just discovered the Situationists and filled with new insights The Beach Beneath the Street rereads the group s history in the light of our contemporary experience of communications architecture and everyday life The Situationists tried to escape the world of twentieth century spectacle and failed in the attempt Wark argues that they may still help us to escape the twenty first century while we still can

Street-by-Street Retrofit Mike McEvoy, 2024-12-16 For many years it has been recognised that improving the energy performance of the existing housing stock is vital if energy demand is to be reduced to combat climate change The art of retrofit is posited as a way forward beyond today s weak pseudo Modernist architecture all that is left the final echo of Modernism s original utopian impulse Central to the book is the presentation of domestic street by street retrofit as an issue with technical financial and societal dimensions A holistic view of the complex interacting factors that have held back any advance is interspersed with a historical account of retrofit s faltering progress over the last 20 years The crucial challenges that have been encountered are described including the technological and human factors that urgently need to be addressed It is suggested that the utopian instincts that propelled early Modernism can be redeployed in finding an approach to retrofit that will pave the way towards a politically engaged architecture of social purpose Street by Street Retrofit s goal is to involve the creative imagination of designers and form an alliance with policymakers and many others in the business of urban improvement it is intended for all these audiences Architecture and the Image at the Turn of the 21st Century Sanja

Rodeš,2024-06-28 This book examines architecture image and media relationships as productive for architecture and architectural discourses By arguing that the relationships between architecture and media cannot be dismissed via linear criticism of architecture and media or image these relations are instead seen as a part of a sphere a mediasphere of complex relationships In lieu of anything like a consensus on the contemporary condition of architecture referring to the late twentieth and the twenty first centuries the starting point of this book is that the relationships between architecture media and images continue to multiply owing to continuous technological advancements Contemporary architecture considered in this book is related to the selected circumstances of high visibility where architectural images are propelled into visibility and conflated with non architectural images This takes architecture outside of architectural only discourse and into the public realm By granting higher visibility to both the architectural images and architecture in the public realm architecture can also be influenced by the various perceptions of the general public and can enter public consciousness via non architectural media With increased visibility architecture s far reaching presence calls for more structured analysis of its nature and potential As the analysed architecture in this book is associated with the discourses outside of architecture some of which relate to terrorism natural disaster and branding and consumption the limits of contemporary architectural discipline are questioned and extended This book is written for academics and students in architectural history theory and criticism particularly those interested in visual and media studies Is Architecture Art? John Macarthur,2024-11-28 Is architecture an art like literature or music Or is it more akin to science or engineering Can buildings be artworks just like paintings and sculptures or does their fundamentally functional nature mean they cannot be considered pure works of art Questions of architecture art and aesthetics do not allow for simple answers But by asking such questions we can usefully reveal the ways in which the concepts and meanings of architecture have changed over the centuries and how they continue to change in the contemporary era Is Architecture Art explores the key conceptual questions about the aesthetic appreciation of architecture and its persistently contested status as an artform It engages the work of thinkers ranging from Hume and Kant to Adorno Tafuri and Ranci re and draws on accessible and thought provoking accounts of historical and contemporary architectural and art theory Taking novel approaches to issues that will be familiar to the practising architect it shows how aesthetics and art theory can open up and illuminate architectural theory issue by issue Is Architecture Art will provoke discussion and debate among architects and architectural theorists and force a new understanding of the purpose of architectural practice in the contemporary era as the concepts of art the arts and of the creative economy have shifted and blurred as never before The Routledge Companion to Contemporary Architectural History Duanfang Lu, 2023-07-31 The Routledge Companion to Contemporary Architectural History offers a comprehensive and up to date knowledge report on recent developments in architectural production and research Divided into three parts Practices Interrogations and Innovations this book charts diversity criticality and creativity in architectural interventions to meet challenges and enact changes in different parts of the world through featured exemplars and fresh theoretical orientations The collection features 29 chapters written by leading architectural scholars and highlights the reciprocity between the historical and the contemporary research and practice and disciplinary and professional knowledge Providing an essential map for navigating the complex currents of contemporary architecture the Companion will interest students academics and practitioners who wish to bolster their understanding of built environments Perspective, Projections and Design Mario Carpo, Frédérique Lemerle, 2013-04-15 The essays selected for this book presented in chronological order discuss various aspects of image making technologies geometrical knowledge and tools for architectural design focusing in particular on two historical periods marked by comparable patterns of technological and cultural change The first is the Renaissance characterized by the rediscovery of linear perspectives and the simultaneous rise of new formats for architectural drawing and design on paper the second the contemporary rise of digital technologies and the simultaneous rise of virtual reality and computer based design and manufacturing Many of the contributing authors explore the parallel between the invention of the perspectival paradigm in early modern Europe and the recent development of digitized virtual reality This issue in turn bears on the specific purposes of architectural design where various representational tools and devices are used to visualize bi dimensional aspects of objects that must be measured and eventually built in three dimensional space The Grove Encyclopedia of Medieval Art and Architecture Colum Hourihane, 2012 This volume offers unparalleled coverage of all aspects of art and architecture from medieval Western Europe from the 6th century to the early 16th century Drawing upon the expansive scholarship in the celebrated Grove Dictionary of Art and adding hundreds of new entries it offers students researchers and the general public a reliable up to date and convenient resource covering this field of major importance in the development of Western history and international art and architecture Non-Standard Architectural Productions Sandra Karina Löschke, 2019-07-30 This book captures concepts and projects that reshape the discipline of architecture by prioritizing people over buildings In doing so it uncovers sophisticated approaches that go beyond standard architectural protocols to explore experience based aesthetics encounters action based research critical practices and social engagement If these are widely understood as singular or incompatible approaches the book reveals that they form a growing network of interrelations and generate levels of flexibility and dynamism that are reshaping the discipline The thirteen chapters analyze thought provoking projects branded museums restaged exhibitions home work spaces multi cultural spaces ageing apartment blocks abandoned homes and urban slums amongst them Together they enliven the stalled debate about a single architectural response to the complex challenges of the contemporary world by highlighting pluralistic perspectives on architecture that offer fresh solutions on how architecture can improve people s lives Featuring essays from an international range of authors this book makes a vital contribution to our understanding of the wider conditions under which and in relation to which contemporary architecture is produced

CAA News ,2004 The Development of An Art History in the UAE Sophie Kazan Makhlouf,2024-10-15

This book draws together an oral and visual art history of a country that is extremely rich in culture and history but that is often overlooked or underestimated By observing the country s history and visual culture and the artistic practices of select artists from the UAE it considers the development of contemporary art from the UAE This will increase accessibility to art by Emiratis and underline its wider relevance There is a dearth of literature on contemporary art by Emiratis and this may be one of the reasons contemporary art from the UAE is under represented globally In order to help the reader better understand art from the UAE this book traces the country s historical make up its culture and contemporary art tradition through oral histories based on interviews with a wide variety of artists and people working in the art industries It also explores this development using global art discourses that are relevant to art produced in the UAE today This book also considers how cultural and artistic identities are formed and explores the political and socio economic interests in the country that have stimulated art practices and appreciation For so long an exclusively Western narrative has dominated Art and popular media portrays the Gulf s accomplishments in development and modernity with suspicion Thanks to the UAE s espousal of the Internet and online communities over the last decade this book is particularly timely Following the pandemic a wider understanding of global art discourses values and perceptions are increasingly welcomed Art from the UAE bridges the local and the global giving a voice and a visual presence to a country s contemporary art tradition that has been widely overlooked The UAE has a distinct visual arts tradition that relates to a broader and inclusive understanding of art centered on development and change Photography's Orientalism Ali Behdad, Luke Gartlan, 2013-10-01 The Middle East played a critical role in the development of photography as a new technology and an art form Likewise photography was instrumental in cultivating and maintaining Europe's distinctively Orientalist vision of the Middle East As new advances enhanced the versatility of the medium nineteenth century photographers were able to mass produce images to incite and satisfy the demands of the region's burgeoning tourist industry and the appetites of armchair travelers in Europe In this way the evolution of modern photography fueled an interest in visual contact with the rest of the world Photography's Orientalism offers the first in depth cultural study of the works of European and non European photographers active in the Middle East and India focusing on the relationship between photographic literary and historical representations of this region and beyond The essays explore the relationship between art and politics by considering the connection between the European presence there and aesthetic representations produced by traveling and resident photographers thereby contributing to how the history of photography is understood Seventeenth-century Art & Architecture Ann Sutherland Harris, 2005 Encompassing the socio political cultural background of the period this title takes a look at the careers of the Old Masters and many lesser known artists The book covers artistic developments across six countries and examines in detail many of the artworks on display The Built Surface: v. 1: Architecture and the Visual Arts from Antiquity to the Enlightenment Christy Anderson, Karen Koehler, 2017-11-22 This title was first published in 2002 Since antiquity through to the present architecture and the pictorial arts paintings photography graphic arts have not been rigidly separated but interrelated the one informing the other and establishing patterns of creation and reception In the Classical tradition the education of the architect and artist has always stressed this relationship between the arts although modern scholarship has too often treated them as separate disciplines These volumes explore the history of this exchange between the arts as it emerged from classical theory into artistic and architectural practice Issues of visual representation perspective allegory site specificity ornamentation popular culture memorials urban and utopian planning and the role of treatises manifestos and other theoretical writings are addressed as well as the critical reaction to these products and practices This title represents a variety of methods approaches and dialectical interpretations cases where architecture informs the themes and physical space of pictures or pictorial concerns inform the design and construction of the built environment The exchanges between architecture and pictures explored by these authors are found to be in all cases ideologically potent and therefore significantly expressive of their respective social political and intellectual histories Cities Interrupted Shirley Jordan, Christoph Lindner, 2016-02-25 Cities Interrupted explores the potential of visual culture in the form of photography film performance architecture urban design and mixed media to strategically interrupt processes of globalization in contemporary urban spaces Looking at cities such as Amsterdam Beijing Doha London New York and Paris the book brings together original essays to reveal how the concept of interruption in global cities enables new understanding of the forms of space experience and community that are emerging in today's rapidly transforming urban environments. The idea of interruption addressed in this book refers to deliberate interventions in the spaces and communities of contemporary cities: interventions that seek to disrupt or destabilize the experience of everyday urban life through creative practice. Interruption is used as an analytic and conceptual tool to challenge and explore alternatives to the narratives of speed, hyper-mobility, rapid growth and incessant exchange and flow that have dominated critical thinking on global cities. Bringing art and creative practice into the centre of discussions about the future of cities alongside discussions of development, design, justice, health, sustainability, technology and citizenship, this book is essential reading for anyone working at the intersections of a range of urban, cultural and visual fields including urban studies, urban design and architecture, visual studies, cultural studies, media studies, art history and social and cultural geography.

Public Art and the Fragility of Democracy Fred Evans, 2018-11-20. Public space is political space. When a work of public art is put up or taken down, it is an inherently political statement and the work's aesthetics are inextricably entwined with its political valences. Democracy's openness allows public art to explore its values critically and to suggest new ones. However, it also facilitates artworks that can surreptitiously or fortuitously undermine democratic values. Today, as bigotry and authoritarianism are on the rise and democratic movements seek to combat them, as Confederate monuments fall and sculptures celebrating diversity rise, the struggle over the values enshrined in the public arena has taken on a new urgency. In this book, Fred Evans develops philosophical and political criteria for assessing how public art can respond to the fragility of democracy. He calls for considering such artworks as acts of citizenship, pointing to their capacity to resist autocratic tendencies and reveal new dimensions of democratic society. Through close considerations of Chicago's Millennium Park and New York's National September 11 Memorial, Evans shows how a wide range of artworks participate in democratic dialogues. A nuanced consideration of contemporary art aesthetics and political theory, this book is a timely and rigorous elucidation of how thoughtful public art can contribute to the flourishing of a democratic way of life.

T&T Clark Companion to Methodism Charles Yrigoyen Jr, 2014-09-25. This is an invaluable handbook on Methodism, containing an introduction, dictionary of key terms and concentrates on key themes: methodology and research problems for those interested in studying the origins and development of the history and theology of world Methodism. The literature describing the history and development of Methodism has been growing as scholars and general readers have become aware of its importance as a world church with approximately 40 million members in 300 Methodist denominations in 140 nations. The tercentenary celebrations of the births of its founders, John and Charles Wesley, in 2003 and 2007 provided an additional focus on the evolution of the movement which became a church.

Architecture as Communication Ross A. Eaman, 2025-04-08. Media theory has long overlooked the built environment and its communicative capacity: how built structures and spaces convey meaning through material embodiment and symbolization. Architecture as Communication advances the idea that built environments function as media of communication. Using practice theory in conjunction with the concept of style this book is anchored in three historical determinants the quest for perfect proportion in buildings the belief in architectural determinism and the ongoing efforts within other media to influence how those who experience built environments understand them Ross Eaman explores how houses schools places of worship factories office buildings stores malls opera houses plazas and parks have meaning for people as subjective life worlds Architecture as Communication proposes media theory that articulates the social construction of meaning as a unique way of understanding the built environment one in which the users and observers of structures and spaces participate along with architects and designers Architecture according to Eaman encompasses the multiplicity of communication as human interaction preparing people for what they are about to encounter signalling how they should act and selectively enabling them to perform their expected role Using examples across many historical periods and cultures Architecture as Communication argues that we judge our built environments by the values they communicate
