Literary Collage Between Cut and Glue fills a gap in the current scholarship on literary collage by addressing how different the interpretations of the concept are depending on the author who uses the concept and the material and writers surveyed The book studies writers who employed literary collage during the twentieth and twenty first centuries some whose works have been intensely analyzed from this perspective William S Burroughs and Walter Benjamin but also some whose collage writing style has recently been investigated by writers being usually placed under the umbrella term of artist books Stelio Maria Martini Theories of Forgetting Lance Olsen, 2014-02-28 Theories of Forgetting is concerned with how words matter the materiality of the page and how a literary work might react against mass reproduction and textual disembodiment in the digital age right from its use of two back covers one upside down and one right side up that allow the reader to choose which of the novel s two narratives to privilege Theories of Forgetting is a narrative in three parts The first is the story of Alana a filmmaker struggling to complete a short documentary about Robert Smithson s famous earthwork The Spiral Jetty located where the Great Salt Lake meets the desert Alana falls victim to a pandemic called The Frost whose symptoms include an increasing sensation of coldness and growing amnesia The second involves Alana s husband Hugh owner of a rare and used bookstore in Salt Lake City and his slow disappearance across Jordan while on a trip both to remember and to forget Alana s death The third involves marginalia added to Hugh s section by his daughter Aila an art critic living in Berlin Aila discovers a manuscript by her father after his disappearance and tries to make sense of it by means of a one sided dialogue with her brother Lance Each page of the novel is divided in half Alana s narrative runs across the top of the page from back to front while Hugh's and his daughter's tale runs upside down across the bottom of the page from front to back How a reader initially happens to pick up Theories of Forgetting determines which narrative is read first and thereby establishing the reader's meaning making of the novel

Without the Novel

Scott Black,2019-08-23 No genre manifests the pleasure of reading and its power to consume and enchant more than romance In suspending the category of the novel to rethink the way prose fiction works Without the Novel demonstrates what literary history looks like from the perspective of such readerly excesses and adventures Rejecting the assumption that novelistic realism is the most significant tendency in the history of prose fiction Black asks three intertwined questions What is fiction without the novel What is literary history without the novel What is reading without the novel In answer this study draws on the neglected genre of romance to reintegrate eighteenth century British fiction with its classical and Continental counterparts Black addresses works of prose fiction that self consciously experiment with the formal structures and readerly affordances of romance Heliodorus s Ethiopian Story Cervantes s Don Quixote Fielding s Tom Jones Sterne s Tristram Shandy and Burney s The Wanderer Each text presents itself as a secondary satiric adaptation of anachronistic and alien narratives but in revising foreign stories each text also relays them The recursive reading that these works portray and demand makes each a self reflexive parable of romance itself Ultimately Without the Novel writes a wider weirder history of fiction organized by the recurrences of romance and informed by the pleasures of reading that define the genre rebel against certain forms of domination and suppression by capital and power is by no means to completely reject them rather it is to use them

A Landscape of Architecture, History and Fiction Jonathan Hill, 2015-12-22 Architecture can be analogous to a history a fiction and a landscape We expect a history or a novel to be written in words but they can also be cast in concrete or seeded in soil The catalyst to this tradition was the simultaneous and interdependent emergence in the eighteenth century of new art forms the picturesque landscape the analytical history and the English novel Each of them instigated a creative and questioning response to empiricism's detailed investigation of subjective experience and the natural world and together they stimulated a design practice and lyrical environmentalism that profoundly influenced subsequent centuries Associating the changing natural world with journeys in self understanding and the design process with a visual and spatial autobiography this book describes journeys between London and the North Sea in successive centuries analysing an enduring and evolving tradition from the picturesque and romanticism to modernism Creative architects have often looked to the past to understand the present and imagine the future Twenty first century architects need to appreciate the shock of the old as well as the shock of the new
