Currid,2018 When Jesus was asked which is the greatest commandment he cited a passage from Deuteronomy 6 as the fundamental and first tenet of Scripture The purpose of Deuteronomy is to teach the people of God how to behave in every area of life And the two main principles of that teaching are to fear God and to obey his commandments Using his own translation from the original Hebrew Dr John Currid ably demonstrates that the book of Deuteronomy is an official document ratifying the formal covenant relationship between God as the sovereign King and his covenant people Israel At the close of the forty years of wandering in the wilderness and on the eve of the entry into the promised land Moses summons the Israelites to a solemn reaffirmation and ratification of the covenant first made at Sinai and promises great blessings to the people if only they will remain faithful to the covenant and obey God s Word Christians too need to remember that God has made a covenant with the church And therefore we need to ask the question What does Yahweh your God ask from you The answer is found in Deuteronomy we need to fear God we need to walk in his way we need to love him we need to serve him and we need to keep his commandments And like Israel of old if we live in obedience to the Word of God then we shall be wise and understanding and indeed

God will greatly bless his people if they obey his Word Publisher
