Betrayal Harold Pinter Script:

Betrayal Harold Pinter, 2013-10-17 Betrayal is a new departure and a bold one Pinter has found a way of making memory active and dramatic giving an audience the experience of the mind's accelerating momentum as it pieces together the past with a combination of curiosity and regret He shows man betrayed not only by man but by time a recurring theme which has found its proper scenic correlative Pinter captures the psyche's sly manoeuvres for self respect with a sardonic forgiveness a master craftsman honouring his talent by setting it new difficult tasks New Society There is hardly a line into which desire pain alarm sorrow rage or some kind of blend of feelings has not been compressed like volatile gas in a cylinder less stable than it looks Pinter's narrative method takes what's next out of the spectator's and replaces it with the rather deeper how and why Why did love pass How did these people cope with the lies the evasions the sudden dangers panic and the contradictory feelings behind their own deftly engineered masks The play's subject is not sex not even adultery but the politics of betrayal and the damage it inflicts on all involved The Times First staged at the National Theatre in 1978 Betrayal was revived at the Almeida Theatre London in 1991 Twenty years after its first showing it returned to the National in 1998

Sharp Cut Steven H. Gale, 2021-02-16 While best known as one of the most important playwrights of the twentieth century Harold Pinter 1930-2008 had an equally successful career writing screenplays His collaborations with director Joseph Losey garnered great attention and esteem and two of his screenplays earned Academy Award nominations The French Lieutenant's Woman 1981 and Betrayal 1983 He is also credited for writing an unproduced script to remake Stanley Kubrick's 1962 adaptation of Lolita Much scholarship has been dedicated to the subject of Pinter as playwright but the rich landscape of his work in film has been left largely undisturbed In Sharp Cut Harold Pinter's Screenplays and the Artistic Process Steven H Gale the world's foremost Pinter scholar analyzes Pinter's creative process from initial conception to finished film Gale makes careful point by point comparisons of each stage in the screenplay's creation the source material the adaptations themselves and the films made from the scripts in order to reveal the meaning behind each film script and to explain the cinematic techniques used to express that meaning Unlike most Pinter scholars who focus almost solely on the written word Gale devotes discussion to the cinematic interpretation of the scripts through camera angles and movement cutting and other techniques Pinter does not merely convert his stage scripts to screenplays he adapts the works to succeed in the other medium avoiding elements of the live play that do not work onscreen and using the camera's focusing operations in ways that are not possible on the stage As Pinter's career progressed and his writing evolved screenplays became for him an increasingly vital means of creative expression Sharp Cut is the first study to fully explore this important component of the Pinter canon

Harold Pinter: Plays 4 Harold Pinter, 2013-10-17 This revised third volume of Harold Pinter's work includes The Homecoming Old Times No Man's Land four shorter plays six revue sketches and a short story It also contains the speech given by Pinter in 1970 on being awarded the German Shakespeare Prize The Homecoming Of all Harold Pinter's major plays The Homecoming has the most powerful narrative line You are fascinated lured on sucked into the vortex Sunday Telegraph The most intense expression of compressed violence to be found anywhere in Pinter's plays The Times Old Times A rare quality of high tension is evident revealing in Old Times a beautifully controlled and expressive formality that has seldom been achieved since the plays of Racine Financial Times Harold Pinter's poetic Proustian Old Times has the inscrutability of a mysterious picture and the tension of a good thriller Independent No Man's Land The work of our best living playwright in its command of the language and its power to erect a coherent structure in a twilight zone of confusion and dismay The Times

Pinter's Comic Play Elin Diamond, 1985 Examines the basis of Harold Pinter's tense comedy and how it functions in his plays as well as covering the major drama from The Room to Other Places Diamond argues that the metaphysical fear and emptiness so characteristic of the Pinter situation are inseparable from his use and abuse of literary and popular comic traditions

Harold Pinter Graham Saunders, 2023-06-05 Harold Pinter provides an up to date analysis and reappraisal concerning the work of one of the most studied and performed dramatists in the world Drawing extensively from The Harold Pinter Archive at the British Library as well as reviews and other critical materials this book offers new insights into previously established views about his work The book also analyses and reappraises specific key historical and contemporary productions including a selection of Pinter's most significant screenplays In particular this volume seeks to assess Pinter's critical reputation and legacy since his death in 2008 These include his position as a political writer and political activist from disassociation and neutrality on the subject until relatively late in his career when his drama sought to explicitly address questions of political dissent and torture by totalitarian regimes The book revisits some familiar territories such as Pinter's place as a British absurdist and the role memory plays in his work but it also sets out to explore new territories such as Pinter's changing attitudes towards gender in the light of MeToo and queer politics and how in particular a play such as The Caretaker 1960 through several key productions has brought the issues of race into sharper focus Part of the Routledge Modern and Contemporary Dramatist series Harold Pinter provides an essential and accessible guide to the dramatists work Plays [of] Harold Pinter: Old time. with dramatists to refine and expand their existing plays and screenplays Dunne effortlessly blends condensed dramatic theory with specific action steps over sixty workshop tested exercises that can be adapted to virtually any individual writing process and dramatic script Dunne's in depth method is both instinctual and intellectual allowing writers to discover new actions for their characters and new directions for their stories The exercises can be used by those just starting the writing process and by those who have scripts already in development With each exercise rooted in real life issues from Dunne's workshops readers of this companion will find the combined experiences of more than fifteen hundred workshops in a single guide This second edition is fully aligned with a brand new companion book Character Scene and Story which offers forty two additional activities to help writers more fully develop their scripts The two books include cross references between related exercises though each volume can also stand alone No ordinary guide to plotting this handbook centers on the principle that character is key The character is not something added to the scene or to the story writes Dunne Rather the character is the scene The character is the story With this new edition Dunne's remarkable creative method will continue to be the go to source for anyone hoping to take their story to the stage Dunne mixes an artist's imagination and intuition with a teacher's knowledge of the craft of dramatic writing May Brit Akerholt award winning dramaturg The Street Of Crocodiles Bruno Schulz, 2014-03-13 Complicite not only open our eyes to Bruno Schulz but turn his densely impressionistic stories into a piece of vividly imaginative theatre Michael Billington Guardian The Street of Crocodiles is inspired by the life and stories of Polish writer Bruno Schulz 1892 1942 Originally co produced by Theatre de Complicité and the Royal National Theatre it opened at the Cottesloe in 1992 and toured all over the world until 1994 The original production was remounted in 1998 and played in New York Toronto Minneapolis and Tokyo before opening at the Queen's Theatre London in January 1999 This astounding production creates a vision of provincial Poland in the early part of the century as a restless ocean of unending flux the miracle of Complicite's interpretation of Schulz's stories is its ability to give specific theatrical life to this perceptual anarchy when you leave the theatre you expect the ground beneath your feet to give way New York Times Who Wrote That Movie? Chris Wehner, 2003 Before the director or actors can work their magic onscreen a writer often working alone faces the blank page and must be the first to create the magic Yet the writer is usually ignored by critics eager to give credit to the director or sometimes an actor Not only that the original vision of the screenwriter rarely makes it to the screen intact Imagine if your favorite movie could have even been better had that image conscious actress not demanded changes to the script The screenplays and movies discussed include A Beautiful Mind Adaptation Almost Famous Ararat Black Hawk Down Blade 2 Cast Away Catch Me if You Can City by the Sea The Cell Dancer in the Dark Far From Heaven Frailty The Gift Gladiator John Q Insomnia In the Bedroom Memento MIB2 Minority Report Monster's Ball Ocean's Eleven Panic Room Pay it Forward Pearl Harbor Proof of Life Road to Perdition Signs Spy Game We Were Soldiers Windtalkers Traffic Unbreakable
