Between Babel And Pentecost Transnational Pentecostalism In Africa And Latin America:

Between Babel and Pentecost André Corten, Ruth Marshall-Fratani, 2001 This text considers the important transnational character of Pentecostal movements in Africa and Latin America and their tendency to foster identities that transcend national and cultural contexts Between babel and Pentecost : transnational Pentecostalism in Africa and Latin America Ruth ; Corten Marshall-Fratani (Andre, eds), 2001 Pentecostalism, Globalisation, and Islam in Northern Cameroon Tomas Sundnes Drønen, 2013-01-15 Pentecostalism is among the fastest growing social movements in the 21st century This volume discusses global aspects of Pentecostal churches in northern Cameroon by describing how the local congregations interact with civil society traditional religion and Islam Extensive fieldwork and descriptions of the complex historical context within which the churches emerge makes the author draw attention to Pentecostal leaders as social entrepreneurs inspired both by local traditions and by a global flow of images and ideas This indicates that Pentecostalism can be interpreted both as a social and as a religious movement which manages to encounter mainline churches and Islam with flexibility and spiritual authority African Pentecostalism from African Perspectives Ezra Chitando, Lovemore Togarasei, Loreen Maseno, 2024-11-05 Although African scholars have made a significant contribution to the study of African Pentecostalism very few studies have reflected on their output Most of the contemporary publications on the widespread phenomenon of African Pentecostalism create the impression that only scholars from the Global North have contributed to the field This volume addresses the lacuna in the available scholarship by undertaking detailed analyses of how African scholars from diverse academic disciplines and African Diasporan context have helped to shape the field The included chapters provide fresh data on new themes and perspectives in the field Pentecostalism in Africa, 2014-10-16 Within recent decades Pentecostal charismatic Christianity has moved from an initially peripheral position to become a force to be reckoned with within Africa's religious landscape Bringing together prominent Africanist scholars from a wide range of disciplines this book offers a comprehensive and multifaceted treatment of the ways in which Pentecostal Charismatic movements have shaped the orientations of African Christianity and extended their influence into other spheres of post colonial societies such as politics developmental work and popular entertainment Among other things the chapters of the book show how Pentecostal charismatic Christianity responds to social and cultural concerns of Africans and how its growth and increasingly assertive presence in public life have facilitated new kinds of social positioning and claims to political power Studying Global Pentecostalism Allan Anderson, Michael Bergunder, Andre F. Droogers, Cornelis van der Laan, 2010-09-24 With its remarkable ability to adapt to many different cultures Pentecostalism has become the world's fastest growing religious movement More than five hundred million adherents worldwide have reshaped Christianity itself Yet some fundamental questions in the study of global Pentecostalism and even in what we call Pentecostalism remain largely unaddressed Bringing together leading scholars in the social sciences history and theology this unique volume explores these questions for this rapidly growing multidisciplinary field of study A valuable resource for anyone studying new forms of Christianity it offers insights and guidance on both theoretical and methodological issues The first section of the book examines such topics as definitions essentialism postcolonialism gender conversion and globalization The second section features contributions from those working in psychology anthropology sociology and history The third section traces the boundaries of theology from the perspectives of pneumatology ecumenical studies inter religious relations and empirical theology

Multiple Medical Realities Helle Johannessen, Imre Lazar, 2006 Nowadays a plethora of treatment technologies is available to the consumer each employing a variety of concepts of the body self sickness and healing This volume explores the options strategies and consequences that are both relevant and necessary for patients and practitioners who are manoeuvring this medical plurality Although wideranging in scope and covering areas as diverse as India Ecuador Ghana and Norway central to all contributions is the observation that technologies of healing are founded on socially learned and to some extent fluid experiences of body and self

African Pentecostalism Ogbu Kalu, 2008-03-31 Across Africa Christianity is thriving in all shapes and sizes But one particular strain of Christianity prospers more than most Pentecostalism Pentecostals believe that everyone can personally receive the gifts of the Holy Spirit such as prophecy or the ability to speak in tongues In Africa this kind of faith in which the supernatural is a daily presence is sweeping the continent Today about 107 million Africans are Pentecostals and the numbers continue to rise In this book Ogbu Kalu provides the first ever overview of Pentecostalism in Africa He shows the amazing diversity of the faith which flourishes in many different forms in diverse local contexts While most people believe that Pentecostalism was brought to Africa and imposed on its people by missionaries Kalu argues emphatically that this is not the case Throughout the book he demonstrates that African Pentecostalism is distinctly African in character not imported from the West With an even handed approach Kalu presents the religion s many functions in African life Rather than shying away from controversial issues like the role of money and prosperity in the movement Kalu describes malpractice when he sees it The only book to offer a comprehensive look at African Pentecostalism this study touches upon the movement s identity the role of missionaries media and popular culture women ethics Islam and immigration The resulting work will prove invaluable to anyone interested in Christianity outside the West

Spirit and Power Donald E. Miller, Kimon H. Sargeant, Richard Flory, 2013-08-15 An exploration of the global growth and social and political impact of Pentecostalism

Australian Pentecostal and Charismatic Movements , 2020-04-28 In Australian Pentecostal and Charismatic Movements Arguments from the Margins Rocha Hutchinson and Openshaw argue that Australia has made and still makes important contributions to how Pentecostal and charismatic Christianities have developed worldwide This edited volume fills a critical gap in two important scholarly literatures The first is the Australian literature on religion in which the absence of the charismatic and Pentecostal element tends to reinforce now widely debunked notions of Australia as lacking the religious tendencies of old Europe The second is the emerging transnational literature on Pentecostal and Charismatic movements

This book enriches our understanding not only of how these movements spread worldwide but also how they are indigenised and grow new shoots in very diverse contexts The African Christian Diaspora Afe Adogame, 2013-04-25 The last three decades have witnessed a rapid proliferation of African Christian communities particularly in Europe and North American diaspora thus resulting in the remapping of old religious landscapes This migratory trend and development bring to the fore the crucial role functions and import of religious symbolic systems in new geo cultural contexts The trans national linkages between African led churches in the countries of origin Africa and the host societies are assuming increasing importance for African immigrants The links and networks that are established and maintained between these contexts are of immense religious cultural economic political and social importance This suggests how African Christianities can be understood within processes of religious transnationalism and African modernity Based on extensive religious ethnography undertaken by the author among African Christian communities in Europe the USA and Africa in the last 17 years this book maps and describes the incipience and consolidation of new brands of African Christianities in diaspora The book demonstrates how African Christianities are negotiating and assimilating notions of the global while maintaining their local identities Intra-African Pentecostalism and the Dynamics of Power Amos B. Chewachong, 2024-10-29 In an era when African Pentecostalism stretches its vibrant mosaic across continents Intra African Pentecostalism and the Dynamics of Power examines the pulsating heart of this phenomenon within Africa itself The book explores the complex interplay of faith and power through the lens of Nigeria's Winners Chapel and its expansion into Cameroon What compels a movement to evangelize fervently within its own continent making it both the preacher and the audience The book exposes the reverse missionary flow to the northern hemisphere as a backdrop for a more profound story unravelling within Africa Here the mother church exerts a magnetic pull ensuring fidelity as charismatic leaders like Bishop Oyedepo maintain their spiritual gravitas It is a story not just of spirituality but of strategic moves and socio political undercurrents that shape identities and beliefs Employing rich narratives and rigorous research this book looks in depth at Winners Chapel's transnational missions highlighting the complexities of allegiance identity and the propagation of the prosperity gospel It challenges readers to see beyond conventional religious discourse into the depths where faith intersects with culture and power The book invites us to understand the multi dimensional influence of African Pentecostalism and to grasp the nuances of a faith that is transforming the continent from within Conversion After Socialism Mathijs Pelkmans, 2009-11-01 The large and sudden influx of missionaries into the former Soviet Union after seventy years of militant secularism has been controversial and the widespread occurrence of conversion has led to anxiety about social and national disintegration Although these concerns have been vigorously discussed in national arenas social scientists have remained remarkably silent about the subject This volume's focus on conversion offers a novel approach to the dislocations of the postsocialist experience In eight well researched ethnographic accounts the authors analyze a range of missionary encounters as well as aspects of conversion and anti conversion in different parts of the region thus challenging the problematic idea that religious life after socialism involved a simple revival of repressed religious traditions Instead they unravel the unexpected twists and turns of religious dynamics and the processes that have challenged popular ideas about religion and culture The contributions show how conversion is rooted in the disruptive qualities of the new capitalist experience and document its unsettling effects on the individual and social level Protestantism and Protestantization Tarald Rasmussen,Vegard Ree Ytterbøe,2023-01-23 The authors presented in this volume deal with important cases of Protestantization of religion or of debates on religion One chapter deals with Protestant formatting of contemporary Islam another discusses how Pentecostal Protestantism has an important role in formatting religion outside Europe today Two of the authors analyse contemporary debates on circumcision and investigate how Protestant preconceptions influence these debates Finally several authors deal with the complex question of how Protestant religion is related to modern Secularity either as a point of departure for non religion or as a point of departure for a Protestant understanding of secularity The Changing World Religion Map Stanley D. Brunn,2015-02-03 This extensive work explores the changing world of religions faiths and practices It discusses a broad range of issues and phenomena that are related to religion including nature ethics secularization gender and identity Broadening the context it studies the interrelation between religion and other fields including education business economics and law The book presents a vast array of examples to illustrate the changes that have taken place and have led to a new world map of religions Beginning with an introduction of the concept of the changing world religion map the book first focuses on nature ethics and the environment It examines humankind s eternal search for the sacred and discusses the emergence of green religion as a theme that cuts across many faiths Next the book turns to the theme of the pilgrimage illustrated by many examples from all parts of the world In its discussion of the interrelation between religion and education it looks at the role of missionary movements It explains the relationship between religion business economics and law by means of a discussion of legal and moral frameworks and the financial and business issues of religious organizations The next part of the book explores the many new faces that are part of the religious landscape and culture of the Global North Europe Russia Australia and New Zealand the U S and Canada and the Global South Latin America Africa and Asia It does so by looking at specific population movements diasporas and the impact of globalization The volume next turns to secularization as both a phenomenon occurring in the Global religious North and as an emerging and distinguishing feature in the metropolitan cosmopolitan and gateway cities and regions in the Global South The final part of the book explores the changing world of religion in regards to gender and identity issues the political religious nexus and the new worlds associated with the virtual technologies and visual media The New Blackwell Companion to the Sociology of Religion Bryan S. Turner,2010-03-02 Reflecting the very latest developments in the field the NewCompanion provides a comprehensive introduction to the sociology of religion with a clear emphasis on comparative and historical approaches

Covers major debates in secularization theory rational choice theory feminism and the body Takes a multidisciplinary approach covering history sociology anthropology and religious studies International in its scope covering American exceptionalism Native American spirituality and China Europe and Southeast Asia Offers discussions on the latest developments including megachurches spirituality post secular society and globalization

Religion Crossing Boundaries, 2010-08-18 Across the past twenty years major change has taken place in the structure of global society with respect to the nature of migration The predominant pattern since at least the eighteenth century had been for peoples to move to and settle in Western countries permanently with relatively little substantive interchange with their former homelands hence adopting the modes of articulation characteristic of their new societies a process expressed with respect to the USA for example as Americanization This pattern has now changed and there is considerable interaction between homeland and migrant peoples One of the places this has become especially important is in religious exchanges While some negative effects of this process may grab headlines there have also been extensive positive interactions not least among African peoples especially with respect to pentecostal and allied religious movements The chapters in this book illustrate the variety of these exchanges Contributors include Wale Adebanwi Edlyne Anugwom J Kwabena Asamoah Gyadu Marleen de Witte Laura Grillo Susan M Kilonzo Samuel Krinsky Geraldine Mossi re Philomena Njeri Mwaura Joel Noret Ebenezer Obadare Damaris S Parsitau Mei Mei Sanford Linda van de Kamp and Rijk van Dijk

Nigeria's Christian Revolution Richard Burgess, 2008 Nigeria has become the arena of one of the most remarkable religious movements of recent times reflecting the shift in the global center of Christianity from the North to the South This book tells the story of one sector of this movement from its root in the Nigerian civil war to the turn of the new millennium It describes a revival that occurred among the Igbo people of Eastern Nigeria and the new Pentecostal churches it generated and documents the changes that have occurred as the movement has responded to global flows and local demands As such it explores the nature of revivalist and Pentecostal experience but does so against the backdrop of local socio political and economic developments such as decolonization and civil war as well broader processes such as modernization and globalization

Growing Up Global Institute of Medicine, National Research Council, Division of Behavioral and Social Sciences and Education, Board on Children, Youth, and Families, Committee on Population, Panel on Transitions to Adulthood in Developing Countries, 2005-06-25 The challenges for young people making the transition to adulthood are greater today than ever before Globalization with its power to reach across national boundaries and into the smallest communities carries with it the transformative power of new markets and new technology At the same time globalization brings with it new ideas and lifestyles that can conflict with traditional norms and values And while the economic benefits are potentially enormous the actual course of globalization has not been without its critics who charge that to date the gains have been very unevenly distributed generating a new set of problems associated with rising inequality and social polarization Regardless of how the globalization debate is resolved it is clear that as broad global forces transform the world in which the next generation will live and work the choices that today's young people make or others make on their behalf will facilitate or constrain their success as adults Traditional expectations regarding future employment prospects and life experiences are no longer valid Growing Up Global examines how the transition to adulthood is changing in developing countries and what the implications of these changes might be for those responsible for designing youth policies and programs in particular those affecting adolescent reproductive health The report sets forth a framework that identifies criteria for successful transitions in the context of contemporary global changes for five key adult roles adult worker citizen and community participant spouse parent and household manager

The Anthropology of Global Pentecostalism and Evangelicalism Simon Coleman, Rosalind I. J. Hackett, Joel Robbins, 2015-10-09 This book examines the character of Pentecostalism and evangelicalism not only as they have spread across the globe but also as they have become global movements Adopting a broadly anthropological approach the chapters synthesize the existing literature on Pentecostalism and evangelicalism and offer new analyses and critiques Publisher's description
