Torn Between Two Worlds Shawn T Murphy, 2017-09-12 This is the third and final battle Even with all the knowledge and wisdom we have gained daily we make choices between the material world and the ethereal world choices between our ego or our true selves Underpinning these personal choices are two ethereal destinations that are actively courting us One of these destinations offers material rewards for its loyalty while the other offers spiritual rewards This final book will shed light onto the masters of these two destinations and the characteristics of their servants The ancient Greeks referred to the two sets of servants as Nymphs and Muses Each Nymph specialized in a different vice ready to offer material reward for loyalty Each Muse specializes in one of the virtues and offers wisdom for loyalty I will start by looking at the life of Abram and examine how these two masters attempted to influence his life By taking what science has uncovered about the life of Abram and what religions teach about his life and the lives of his children we can begin to discover the spiritual battle that has raged on earth since the beginning of time The Archangel Michael was there at the beginning of this battle and now it is our turn to finish the battle this is the purpose of life in the material world The enlightened Greeks celebrated the emergence of Aphrodite from the Bitter Sea escaping its ruler Poseidon and starting her journey back to Olympus The cover also shows how they depicted Hercules disguised in a lion skin the symbol for the ruler of this world and of the Bitter Sea Hades

Between Two Worlds John Carriero,2009 Between Two Worlds is an authoritative commentary on and powerful reinterpretation of the founding work of modern philosophy Descartes s Meditations Philosophers have tended to read Descartes s seminal work in an occasional way examining its treatment of individual topics while ignoring other parts of the text In contrast John Carriero provides a sustained systematic reading of the whole text giving a detailed account of the positions against which Descartes was reacting and revealing anew the unity meaning and originality of the Meditations Carriero finds in the Meditations a nearly continuous argument against Thomistic Aristotelian ways of thinking about cognition and shows more clearly than ever before how Descartes bridged the old world of scholasticism and the new one of mechanistic naturalism Rather than casting Descartes s project primarily in terms of skepticism knowledge and certainty Carriero focuses on fundamental disagreements between Descartes and the scholastics over the nature of understanding the relation between the senses and the intellect the nature of the human being and how and to what extent God is cognized by human beings Against this background Carriero shows Descartes developed his own conceptions of mind body and the relation between them creating a coherent philosophically rich project in the Meditations and setting the agenda for a century of rationalist metaphysics

Between Two Worlds: The autos sacramentales of Sor Juana Inés de la Cruz Amy Fuller,2015-06-12 The seventeenth century Mexican poet playwright and nun Sor Juana Inés de la Cruz is best known for her secular works most notably her damning indictment of male double standards Hombres necios Stupid Men However her autos sacramentales allegorical one act plays on the Eucharist have received little attention and have only been discussed individually and out of sequence By examining them as a collection in their original order their meaning and importance are revealed The autos combine Christian and classical pagan imagery from the Old World with the conquest and conversion of the New World As the plays progress the mystery of Christ s greatest gift to mankind is deciphered and is mirrored in Spain s gift of the True Faith to the indigenous Mexicans Sor Juana s own image is also situated within this baroque landscape presented as a triumph of Spanish imperialism an exotic muse between two worlds

A Study of the Major Novellas of E.T.A. Hoffmann Birgit Röder, 2003 Analysis of the novellas of the German Romantic writer and composer focusing on the issues of art and the artist The German Romantic writer and composer E T A Hoffmann 1776 1822 perhaps best known to the English speaking world through his Nutcracker and through Jacques Offenbach s opera Tales of Hoffmann struggled to convince his predominantly bourgeois public of the merits of art and literature Not surprisingly many of his most important novellas are bound up with the dilemmas of art and the challenges faced by the Romantic artist and it is these K nstlernovellen that are the focus of this study Birgit R der argues that Hoffmann s artists are not simply individuals who create works of art but rather figures through whom the author explores the predicament of those who reject the conventional world of bourgeois reality and seek to assert the claims of the imagination in a world dominated by prosaic rationalism Contrary to previous scholars however R der demonstrates that Hoffmann s novellas clearly warn against a view of art as an autonomous aesthetic realm cut off from the world of reality This is particularly apparent in R der s analysis of gender relations in Hoffmann s oeuvre especially the relationship between male artist and female muse which underlines the extent to which art literature and the imagination are inseparably bound up with the prevailing social reality The novellas that are given extensive consideration are Das Fr ulein von Scuderi Der Sandmann Die Jesuiterkirche in G Die Fermate Der Artushof Don Juan Das Sanctus and Rat Krespel Birgit R der teaches German language and literature at the University of Reading UK

The Tao of Islam Sachiko Murata, 1992-03-23 The Tao of Islam is a rich and diverse anthology of Islamic teachings on the nature of the relationships between God and the world the world and the human being and the human being and God Focusing on gender symbolism Sachiko Murata shows that Muslim authors frequently analyze the divine reality and its connections with the cosmic and human domains with a view toward a complementarity or polarity of principles that is analogous to the Chinese idea of yin yang Murata believes that the unity of Islamic thought is found not so much in the ideas discussed as in the types of relationships that are set up among realities She pays particular attention to the views of various figures commonly known as Sufis and philosophers since they approach these topics with a flexibility and subtlety not found in other schools of thought She translates several hundred pages most for the first time from more than thirty important Muslims including the Ikhwan al Safa Avicenna and Ibn al Arabi
