Beyond Animal Rights A Feminist Caring Ethic For The Treatment Of Animals:

Beyond Animal Rights Josephine Donovan, Carol J. Adams, 1996 Contains eight contributions which extend feminist ethic of care theory to the issue of animal well being As a group the essays aim to suggest ways that theorists can move beyond the notion of animal rights to establish care as a basis for the ethical treatment of animals Annotation c by Book The Feminist Care Tradition in Animal Ethics Josephine Donovan, Carol J. Adams, 2007 In Beyond Animal Rights Josephine Donovan and Carol J Adams introduced feminist ethic of care theory into philosophical discussions of the treatment of animals In this new volume seven essays from Beyond Animal Rights are joined by nine new articles most of which were written in response to that book and a new introduction that situates feminist animal care theory within feminist theory and the larger debate over animal rights Contributors critique theorists reliance on natural rights doctrine and utilitarianism which they suggest have a masculine bias They argue for ethical attentiveness and sympathy in our relationships with animals and propose a link between the continuing subjugation of women and the human domination of nature Beginning with the earliest articulation of the idea in the mid 1980s and continuing to the theory s most recent revisions this volume presents the most complete portrait of the evolution of the feminist care tradition The Political Theory of Animal Rights Robert Garner, 2005-07-22 Looking at the impact on political thinking caused by the idea that animals are morally important beings this text suggests that liberalism despite having weaknesses is the most appropriate ideological position for the protection of animal interests

Wild Catia Faria,2022-12-22 Most people believe that we should help others in need This book argues that we should also help starving wounded and sick wild animals It will be of interest to scholars of philosophy as well as to a non specialist audience including policy makers and members of environmental and animal charities

Women and the Animal Rights Movement Emily Gaarder,2011-02-19 Animal rights is one of the fastest growing social movements today Women greatly outnumber men as activists yet surprisingly little has been written about the importance and impact of gender on the movement Women and the Animal Rights Movement combats stereotypes of women activists as mere sentimentalists by exploring the political and moral character of their advocacy on behalf of animals Emily Gaarder analyzes the politics of gender in the movement incorporating in depth interviews with women and participant observation of animal rights organizations conferences and protests to describe struggles over divisions of labor and leadership Controversies over PETA advertising campaigns that rely on women s sexuality to sell animal rights illustrate how female crusaders are asked to prioritize the cause of animals above all else Gaarder underscores the importance of a paradigm shift in the animal liberation movement one that seeks a more integrated vision of animal rights that connects universally to other issues gender race economics and the environment highlighting that many women activists recognize and are motivated by the connection between the oppression of animals and other social injustices

Animals, Empathy, and Anthropomorphism Carlo Salzani,2025-05-05 This open access book explores the role of imagination in animal ethics and its constitutive links to empathy sympathy and anthropomorphism The book argues for the constitutive role of imagination in ethical deliberation but acknowledges that there exist important limits to its use However limit is here understood not merely negatively as restriction and insufficiency but rather positively as condition of possibility so what the book explores and analyses are the conditions for a positive and fruitful use of the imagination in ethics The book uses as a frame the questions and issues raised in J M Coetzee s The Lives of Animals to explore some central and salient themes

Animal Rights Cass R. Sunstein,Martha C. Nussbaum,2004-04-01 Cass Sunstein and Martha Nussbaum bring together an all star cast of contributors to explore the legal and political issues that underlie the campaign for animal rights and the opposition to it Addressing ethical questions about ownership protection against unjustified suffering and the ability of animals to make their own choices free from human control the authors offer numerous different perspectives on animal rights and animal welfare They show that whatever one s ultimate conclusions the relationship between human beings and nonhuman animals is being fundamentally rethought This book offers a state of the art treatment of that rethinking

Feminist Animal Studies Erika Cudworth,Ruth E. McKie,Di Turgoose,2022-12-30 This book explores human animal relations and species based domination at the intersection of feminism with critique of our domination and exploitation of nonhuman animals in conversation with power dynamics around coloniality and race class sexuality and embodiment The collection demonstrates the continued vital importance of feminism conceptually and theoretically methodologically and politically to the development of animal studies

Feminism has made an incisive critique of the ways in which gender and other intersecting differences and inequalities are constitutive of our destructive exploitative and often violent relationships with nonhuman worlds. An international group of scholars and activists showcase new work revisiting and extending established debates while negotiating new paths. Amongst the issues addressed in this collection will be questions of animal being and animal rights, caring relations, the relationships between activism and theory, interspecies sexual violence, tension in the animal defence movement, body politics, gender politics and professionalisation, different spaces of gender and animal relations from social media to sexology, safe spaces and sanctuaries, spaces of home both in times of business as usual and in times of lockdown. This multidisciplinary volume will be essential reading to students and academics working in the fields of cultural studies, criminology, geography, history, law, philosophy, politics and sociology with interest in gender, environmentalism and animal studies. The editors work in the School of Applied Social Sciences at De Montfort University Leicester, UK, and share interests in gender and species, violence, environmental harms, social justice matters and intersected inequalities.

Introduction to Animal Rights Gary Francione, 2000-09-05. Two thirds of Americans polled by the Associated Press agree with the following statement: 'An animal's right to live free of suffering should be just as important as a person's right to live free of suffering.' More than 50 percent of Americans believe that it is wrong to kill animals to make fur coats or to hunt them for sport. But these same Americans eat hamburgers, take their children to circuses and rodeos, and use products developed with animal testing. How do we justify our inconsistency? In this easy-to-read introduction, animal rights advocate Gary Francione looks at our conventional moral thinking about animals. Using examples, analogies, and thought experiments, he reveals the dramatic inconsistency between what we say we believe about animals and how we actually treat them.

Introduction to Animal Rights: Your Child or the Dog? provides a guidebook to examining our social and personal ethical beliefs. It takes us through concepts of property and equal consideration to arrive at the basic contention of animal rights: that everyone, human and non-human, has the right not to be treated as a means to an end. Along the way, it illuminates concepts and theories that all of us use but few of us understand: the nature of rights and interests, for example, and the theories of Locke, Descartes, and Bentham. Filled with fascinating information and cogent arguments, this is a book that you may love or hate, but that will not fail to inform, enlighten, and educate.

The Good-natured Feminist Catriona Sandilands, 1999. Heroic mothers defending home and hearth against a nature deformed by multinationalist corporate practice: this may be a compelling story, but it is not necessarily the source of valid feminist or ecological critique. What's missing is the democratic element: an insistence on bringing to public debate all the relations of gender and nature that such a view takes for granted. This book aims to situate a commitment to theory and politics that is to democratic practice at the center of ecofeminism and thus to move toward an ecofeminism that is truly both feminist and ecological. The Good-Natured Feminist inaugurates a sustained conversation between ecofeminism and recent writings in feminist postmodernism and radical democracy. Starting with the assumption that ecofeminism is a body of democratic theory the book tells how the movement originated in debates about nature in North American radical feminisms how it then became entangled with identity politics and how it now seeks to include nature in democratic conversation and especially to politicize relations between gender and nature in both theoretical and activist milieus

Tactical Biopolitics Beatriz Da Costa, Kavita Philip, 2010-08-13 Scientists scholars and artists consider the political significance of recent advances in the biological sciences Popular culture in this biological century seems to feed on proliferating fears anxieties and hopes around the life sciences at a time when such basic concepts as scientific truth race and gender identity and the human itself are destabilized in the public eye Tactical Biopolitics suggests that the political challenges at the intersection of life science and art are best addressed through a combination of artistic intervention critical theorizing and reflective practices Transcending disciplinary boundaries contributions to this volume focus on the political significance of recent advances in the biological sciences and explore the possibility of public participation in scientific discourse drawing on research and practice in art biology critical theory anthropology and cultural studies After framing the subject in terms of both biology and art Tactical Biopolitics discusses such topics as race and genetics with contributions from leading biologists Richard Lewontin and Richard Levins feminist bioscience the politics of scientific expertise bioart and the public sphere with an essay by artist Claire Pentecost activism and public health with an essay by Treatment Action Group co founder Mark Harrington biosecurity after 9 11 with essays by artists collective Critical Art Ensemble and anthropologist Paul Rabinow and human animal interaction with a framing essay by cultural theorist Donna Haraway Contributors Gaymon Bennett Larry Carbone Karen Cardozo Gary Cass Beatriz da Costa Oron Catts Gabriella Coleman Critical Art Ensemble Gwen D Arcangelis Troy Duster Donna Haraway Mark Harrington Jens Hauser Kathy High Fatimah Jackson Gwyneth Jones Jonathan King Richard Levins Richard Lewontin Rachel Mayeri Sherie McDonald Claire Pentecost Kavita Philip Paul Rabinow Banu Subramanian subRosa Abha Sur Samir Sur Jacqueline Stevens Eugene Thacker Paul Vanouse Ionat Zurr

Animal Minds & Animal Ethics Klaus Petrus, Markus Wild, 2014-03-15 Animal minds and animal ethics different origins connecting similarities Philosophers working on questions of animal ethics usually draw on research into animal cognition and subscribe to strong positions regarding animal minds Whereas philosophers interested in the question of animal minds sometimes draw ethical conclusions from the positions they argue for In spite of such overlaps these two areas of research have grown up separately One reason for this separation stems from the institutional distinction between theoretical and practical philosophy The principal aim of this anthology is to build bridges between the fields and different philosophical approaches of animal ethics and of animal minds and cognition

Animals and Women Carol J. Adams, Josephine Donovan, 1995-11-14 Animals and Women is a collection of pioneering essays that explores the theoretical connections between feminism and animal defense Offering a feminist perspective on the status of animals this unique volume argues persuasively that both the social construction and oppressions of women are inextricably connected to the ways in which we comprehend and abuse other species Furthermore it demonstrates that such a focus does not distract from the struggle for women s rights but rather contributes to it This wide ranging multidisciplinary anthology presents original material from scholars in a variety of fields as well as a rare early article by Virginia Woolf Exploring the leading edge of the species gender boundary it addresses such issues as the relationship between abortion rights and animal rights the connection between woman battering and animal abuse and the speciesist basis for much sexist language Also considered are the ways in which animals have been regarded by science literature and the environmentalist movement A striking meditation on women and wolves is presented as is an examination of sexual harassment and the taxonomy of hunters and hunting Finally this compelling collection suggests that the subordination and degradation of women is a prototype for other forms of abuse and that to deny this connection is to participate in the continued mistreatment of animals and women

The Postmodern Prince John Sanbonmatsu,2004 A work of political theory with a focus on questions of strategy that examines the politics of the New Left in the 1960s showing how its expressivism led to political division and also prepared the ground for postmodernism It shows also how the political economy of academic life in an increasingly commodified society strengthened the basis of postmodernism Develops a brilliant account of a Marxism that sets itself the task of building a collective political subject capable of challenging capitalism in its moment of global crisis publisher web site

Animals as Persons Gary Lawrence Francione,2008 Gary L Francione explains our historical and contemporary attitudes about animals by distinguishing the issue of animal use from that of animal treatment He then presents a theory of animal rights that focuses on the need to accord all sentient nonhumans the right not to be treated as property Animal Studies Paul Waldau,2013-03-28 The field requires both learning and unlearning to develop forms of critical thinking that are scientifically informed and ethically sensitive

Screw Consent Joseph J. Fischel,2019-01-08 When we talk about sex whether great good bad or unlawful we often turn to consent as both our erotic and moral savior We ask questions like What counts as sexual consent How do we teach consent to impressionable youth potential predators and victims How can we make consent sexy What if these are all the wrong questions What if our preoccupation with consent is hindering a safer and better sexual culture By foregrounding sex on the social margins bestial necrophilic cannibalistic and other atypical practices Screw Consent shows how a sexual politics focused on consent can often obscure rather than clarify what is wrong about wrongful sex Joseph J Fischel argues that the consent paradigm while necessary for effective sexual assault law diminishes and perverts our ideas about desire pleasure and injury In addition to the criticisms against consent leveled by feminist theorists of earlier generations Fischel elevates three more consent is insufficient inapposite and riddled with scope contradictions for regulating and imagining sex Fischel proposes instead that sexual justice turns more productively on concepts of sexual autonomy and access Clever witty and adeptly researched Screw Consent promises to change how we understand consent sexuality and law in the United States today

Pets and People Christine Overall,2017 This work offers 18 ground breaking articles written by an international group of philosophers on companion animal ethics It explores the ethical foundations of our relationships with pets in particular dogs and cats and specific moral issues including breeding reproduction sterilization cloning adoption feeding training working sexual interactions longevity dying and euthanasia
