Kearl, 1989-10-26 Arguing that death is the central force shaping our social life and order Michael Kearl draws on anthropology religion politics philosophy the natural sciences economics and psychology to provide a broad sociological perspective on the interrelationships of life and death showing how death contributes to social change and how the meanings of death are generated to serve social functions Working from a social as well as a psychological perspective Kearl analyzes traditional topics including aging suicide grief and medical ethics while also examining current issues such as the impact of
