Beyond Terror And Martyrdom The Future Of The Middle East:

Beyond Terror and Martyrdom Gilles Kepel, 2009-07-01 Kepel urges us to escape the ideological quagmire of terrorism and martyrdom and explore the terms of a new and constructive dialogue between Islam and the West This book sounds the alarm to the West and to Islam that both of these exhausted narratives are bankrupt neither productive of democratic change in the Middle East nor of unity in Islam

Out of Ashes Konrad H. Jarausch, 2016-08-29 A sweeping history of twentieth century Europe that examines its unprecedented destruction and abiding promise A sweeping history of twentieth century Europe Out of Ashes tells the story of an era of unparalleled violence and barbarity yet also of humanity prosperity and promise Konrad Jarausch describes how the European nations emerged from the nineteenth century with high hopes for continued material progress and proud of their imperial command over the globe only to become embroiled in the bloodshed of World War I which brought an end to their optimism and gave rise to competing democratic communist and fascist ideologies He shows how the 1920s witnessed renewed hope and a flourishing of modernist art and literature but how the decade ended in economic collapse and gave rise to a second more devastating world war and genocide on an unprecedented scale Jarausch further explores how Western Europe surprisingly recovered due to American help and political integration Finally he examines how the Cold War pushed the divided continent to the brink of nuclear annihilation and how the unforeseen triumph of liberal capitalism came to be threatened by Islamic fundamentalism global economic crisis and an uncertain future A gripping narrative Out of Ashes explores the paradox of the European encounter with modernity in the twentieth century shedding new light on why it led to cataclysm inhumanity and self destruction but also social justice democracy and peace

The Torah, the Gospel, and the Qur'an Anton Wessels, 2013-09-30 Discussing the Bible and the Qur'an in one breath will surprise some Jews Christians and Muslims But Anton Wessels argues that all three traditions must read the Scriptures together and not against each other As his book title suggests the three books in the end are actually one tale Wessels accepts Muhammad as a prophet and takes the Qur'an seriously as Holy Scripture along with the Old and New Testaments without giving up his own Christian convictions Respectfully reading the Torah the Gospel and the Qur'an together he argues is of crucial importance our world often sees these religious books as the cause of conflicts rather than the solution to them

Contradictions of Terrorism Sandra Walklate, Gabe Mythen, 2014-09-15 Over the last fifteen years there has been a significant growth in literature dealing with terrorism Nevertheless scholars within mainstream criminology have only recently begun to grapple with the problem of terrorism in a sustained fashion In this provocative book the authors provide both an exposition of the contradictions that have emerged around the regulation of terrorism and an incisive analysis of the questions that the management of terrorism poses for the discipline Focusing primarily on the processes and practices that have emerged in the United States and the United Kingdom the book provides a critical account of the political construction mediation and regulation of terrorist threat since the events of 9 11 The authors explore the ways in which new institutional modes of risk assessment based on the principle of pre-emption have impacted on individuals targeted by them. Noting the dilemmas produced by the pre-emptive turn, the authors also elucidate more recent moves to develop the idea of resilience in counter-terrorism and security policy. This book will be suitable for academics and students interested in political violence, terrorism, geopolitics and risk, as well as for practitioners and experts working in the security industries.

Islam Instrumentalized Jean-Philippe Platteau, 2017-06-06. This book challenges the widespread view that Islam is a reactionary religion that defends tradition against modernity and individual freedom. Jean-Philippe Platteau shows how Islam is vulnerable to political manipulation and how the threat of religious extremism is especially high because Islam is not organized as a centralized church.

Salafi-Jihadism Shiraz Maher, 2017-08-03. A groundbreaking study, a masterclass in how to do intellectual history, and one that nobody with an interest in radical Islam should miss. Tom Holland, New Statesman. Readers looking for a rigorous but lucid account of Islamic State's ideas will be well served by Maher's book, the first of its kind. Kyle W. Orton, Wall Street Journal. No topic has gripped the public imagination so dramatically as the spectre of global jihadism. While much has been said about the way jihadists behave, their ideology remains poorly understood. Shiraz Maher charts the intellectual underpinnings of salafi jihadism from its origins in the mountains of the Hindu Kush to the jihadist insurgencies of the 1990s and the 9/11 wars. His ground-breaking introduction to salafi jihadism recalibrates our understanding of the ideas underpinning one of the most destructive political philosophies of our time. Magisterial. Essential reading. Robin Yassin Kassab, The National. Shiraz Maher, a leading authority on contemporary Islamic extremism, traces the evolution of the key ideas behind one of the most significant religious and political movements of our time. Comprehensive, important and timely. Jason Burke, author of Al-Qaeda: A Work of Genuine Interest and Originality. Indispensable. David Patrikarakos, Literary Review.

Transnational Islam and the Integration of Turks in Great Britain Erdem Dikici, 2021-10-07. This book brings a transnational perspective to the study of immigrant integration in contemporary Western European societies, with a specific focus on transnational Turkish Islam and Turkish integration in Great Britain. It raises significant questions regarding national citizenship models and offers original insights into the ways in which they can be extended and renewed to cover the cross-border reality. At the theoretical level, Dikici argues that the idea of multiculturalism can be extended to cover immigrant transnationalism without jeopardising its core principles such as equality and recognition of difference, and promises such as a shared national identity and unity in diversity. At the empirical level, the book illustrates that not all transnational Muslim organisations are the same i.e. militant and nor do they all hinder Muslim integration rather they are diverse with some deliberately contributing to the integration of Muslims into non Muslim majority societies The work will be of interest to scholars and students of contemporary integration and citizenship studies multiculturalism studies Muslim integration in Western societies transnationalism and transnational Islam Civil Society and Diaspora Studies The Caliphate at War Ahmed Hashim, 2018 Innovation is key to military success as Ahmed S Hashim explains in his study of how Islamic State functions as a fighting social media and administrative entity New Approaches to the Analysis of Jihadism Rüdiger Lohlker, 2012 Jihadism has been an important issue of public discussions since 9 11 Internet media have been used by Jihadis as means of communication propaganda recruitment and even training purposes In this volume the processes of interaction on Jihadi internet sites are analysed Particular attention lays on the mechanisms of spreading propaganda via the internet by diverse technical means The process of transformation of Islamic knowledge into Jihadi knowledge the rhetorics of videos the development of South Asian Jihadi organisations and some conceptual issues are discussed An ^AEnemy We Created Alex Strick van Linschoten, Felix Kuehn, 2012-08-23 To this day the belief is widespread that the Taliban and al Qaeda are in many respects synonymous that their ideology and objectives are closely intertwined and that they have made common cause against the West for decades Yet this view have hardly ever been scrutinized or tested empirically This is all the more surprising given that the West's present entanglement in Afghanistan is commonly predicated on the need to defeat the Taliban in order to forestall further terrorist attacks worldwide There is thus an urgent need to re examine the known facts of the Taliban al Qaeda relationship and to tell the story of the Taliban's encounter with internationalist militant Islamism In An Enemy We Created Alex Strick van Linschoten and Felix Kuehn focus on the complexity of the relationship between the two groups and the individuals who established them The book which has already been cited prominently in The New Yorker is the first to examine in detail the relationship from the Taliban's perspective based on Arabic Dari and Pashtu sources drawing on the authors many years of experience in southern Afghanistan the Taliban's heartland They also interviewed Taliban decision makers field commanders and ordinary fighters while immersing themselves in Kandahar's society The story of those individuals who were to become the key decision makers and the relationships among all those involved from the mid 1990s onward reveal how frequently the Taliban and al Qaeda diverged rather than converged An Enemy We Created concludes that there is room to engage the Taliban on two fundamental issues renouncing al Qaeda and guaranteeing that Afghanistan will not be a sanctuary for international terrorists Yet the insurgency is changing and it could soon be too late to find a political solution The authors contend that certain aspects of the campaign in Afghanistan especially night raids and attempts to fragment and decapitate Taliban are transforming the resistance creating more opportunities for al Qaeda and helping it to attain its objectives Israeli Statecraft Yehezkel Dror, 2011-05-10 This book provides a comprehensive study of Israeli statecraft using an interdisciplinary framework to enable an in depth understanding of its characteristics challenges and responses Representing the Experience of War and Atrocity Ronnie Lippens, Emma Murray, 2019-04-26 This book explores how the experience of war and related atrocities tend to be visually expressed and how such articulations and representations are circulated and consumed Each chapter of this volume examines how an image can contribute to a richer understanding of the experience of war and atrocity and thus they contribute to the burgeoning field of the criminology of war Topics include the destruction of war in oppositional cultural forms comparing the Nazi period with the ISIS destruction of Palmyra and the visual aesthetics of violence deployed by Jihadi terrorism The contributors are a multi disciplinary team drawn mainly from criminology but also sociology international relations gender studies English and the visual arts This book will advance this field in new directions with refreshing original work Religion and Ethics in a Globalizing World L. Anceschi, J. Camilleri, R. Palapathwala, 2011-02-14 Around the world religion is an increasingly vital and pervasive force in both personal and public life Though this trend has been widely noted its long term implications are as yet only dimly perceived Will this be a force for healing or for violence To express the question to its most dramatic yet urgent form can the world's major religious traditions respond constructively to contemporary challenges in the public sphere that are now by definition global Religion and Ethics in a Globalizing World seeks to address this question and to contribute to a greater understanding of the role of religion in the paradoxical context of a world that is increasingly unified but which remains fundamentally plural Nativist and Islamist Radicalism Ayhan Kaya, Ayşenur Benevento, Metin Koca, 2023-04-10 This book analyses the factors and processes behind radicalisation of both native and self identified Muslim youths It argues that European youth responds differently to the challenges posed by contemporary flows of globalisation such as deindustrialisation socio economic political spatial and psychological forms of deprivation humiliation and structural exclusion The book revisits social economic political and psychological drivers of radicalisation and challenges contemporary uses of the term radicalism It argues that neoliberal forms of governance are often responsible for associating radicalism with extremism terrorism fundamentalism and violence It will appeal to students and scholars of migration minority studies nationalisms European studies sociology political science and psychology The Open Access version of this book available at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives 4.0 license Muslim Spaces of Hope Richard Phillips, 2013-07-04 Debates about contemporary Islam and Muslims in the West have taken some negative turns in the depressing atmosphere of the war on terror and its aftermath This book argues that we have been too preoccupied with problems not enough with solutions The increased mobilisation and scrutiny of Muslim identities has taken place in the context of a more general recasting of racial ideas and racism a shift from overtly racial to ostensibly ethnic and cultural including religious categories within discourses of social difference The targeting of Muslims has been associated with new forms of an older phenomenon imperialism New divisions between Muslims and others echo colonial binaries of black and white colonised and coloniser within practices of divide and rule This book speaks to others who have been marginalised and colonised and to wider debates about social difference oppression and liberation

Turkish Origin Migrants and Their Descendants Ayhan Kaya, 2018-07-04 This book analyses Muslim origin immigrant communities in Europe and the problematic nature of their labelling by both their home and host countries The author challenges the ways in which both sending and receiving countries encapsulate these migrants within the religiously defined closed box of Muslim and or Islam Transcending binary oppositions of East and West European and Muslim local and newcomer Kaya presents the multiple identities of Muslim origin immigrants by interrogating the third space paradigm Turkish Origin Migrants and Their Descendants analyses the complexity of the hyphenated identities of the Turkish origin community with their intricate religious ethnic cultural ideological and personal elements This insight into the life worlds of transnational individuals and local communities will be of interest to students and scholars of the social sciences migration studies and political science especially those concerned with Islamization of radicalism populism and Islamophobia in a European context

Rebuilding the Church: Pope Francis and After Joseph Stanley, 2013-05-14 The unexpected resignation of Pope Benedict XVI followed by the election of Pope Francis of quite a different mould has introduced into the Church not more theological discourse but significant theological action a constant preaching where words are used only when necessary This book presents four essays starting with an imaginary trajectory of the Church during the next hundred years where a new style of leadership in the church renews its strength and vigour by co-opting competent and committed laity Will this dream ever be realized The contention of the author is that it can because his dreams are consonant with the doctrinal heritage of the Catholic Church as he indicates in the notes His prayer and wish is that it becomes a reality The second essay suggests a pastoral approach that could pave the way to facilitate the emergence of such a situation The third essay is a theological elaboration of the place of the teaching authority of the church The fourth essay is a short article which indicates that change has taken place and will continue to take place in the Church
