The Passion According To G.H. By Clarice Lispector:

The Passion According to G.H. Clarice Lispector, 2012-06-28 Lispector's most shocking novel The Passion According to G.H. Clarice Lispector's mystical novel of 1964 concerns a well-to-do Rio sculptress G.H. who enters her maid's room, sees a cockroach crawling out of the wardrobe and panicking, slams the door, crushing the cockroach and then watches it die. At the end of the novel, at the height of a spiritual crisis, comes the most famous and most genuinely shocking scene in Brazilian literature. Lispector wrote that of all her works, this novel was the one that best corresponded to her demands as a writer.

The Insectile and the Deconstruction of the Non/Human Fabienne Collignon, 2022-12-30 The Insectile and the Deconstruction of the Non-Human defines, conceptualizes and evaluates the insectile pertaining to an entomological fascination in relation to subject formation. The book is driven by a central dynamic between form and formlessness, further staging an investigation of the phenomenon of fascination using Lacanian psychoanalysis, suggesting that the psychodrama of subject formation plays itself out entomologically. The book's engagement with the insectile, its enactments, cultural dreamwork, fantasy, transformations in forming the so-called human subject, undertakes a broader deconstruction of said subject and demonstrates the foundational but occluded role of the insectile in subject formation. It tracks the insectile across the archives of psychoanalysis, seventeenth-century still-life painting, novels from the nineteenth century to the present day, and post-1970s film. The Insectile and the Deconstruction of the Non-Human will be of interest for scholars, graduate students, and upper-level undergraduates in film studies, visual culture, popular culture, cultural and literary studies, comparative literature, and critical theory, offering the insectile as a new category for theoretical thought. Philosophy with Clarice

Lispector Fernanda Negrete, 2024-04-04 This book examines Clarice Lispector's body of work, foregrounding its theoretical insights and exploring its philosophical questions, which are placed in conversation with a range of theoretical frameworks and approaches. Contributions to this volume engage with the philosophical dimension of one of the most important writers of the twentieth century. The book features essays by renowned and emerging philosophers and literary critics from multiple parts of the world, which examine Lispector's different novels, chronicles, and short stories, acknowledging their inherent theoretical claims and placing them in contact with other relevant theoretical angles. They develop conversations between Lispector and well-known philosophers on questions of time, being, writing, and risk, and they also explore Lispector's critiques of the human, the concept of woman, fertility, temporality, and the common binaries of life and death, and thought and feeling. This volume furthermore includes recent perspectives in psychoanalysis, ecofeminism, affect theory, theology, and black and decolonial studies, showing the generative effects of dialogue between these frameworks and Lispector's writing. Philosophy with Clarice Lispector will interest humanities scholars and graduate students who seek philosophical approaches to literary studies and literary perspectives on gender and sexuality, studies in theology and criticism, and theory. It will engage readers in pursuit of transdisciplinary methods and creative explorations of Clarice Lispector's writing that disclose her contribution to the ideas of established philosophers The book was originally published as a special issue of Angelaki The Lasting Significance of Etty Hillesum's Writings Klaas A.D. Smelik, 2025-10-01 The Lasting Significance of Etty Hillesum's Writings contains the proceedings of the third international Etty Hillesum Conference held in Middelburg in September 2018 It brings together the work of 33 experts from all over the world to shed new light on life works inspiration and vision of the Dutch Jewish writer Etty Hillesum 1914-1943 one of the victims of the Nazi regime Hillesum's diaries and letters illustrate her heroic struggle to come to terms with her personal life in the context of the Holocaust This volume revives Hillesum research with a comprehensive rereading of her texts but also by introducing new sources about her life With the current rise of interest in peace studies Judaism the Holocaust inter religious dialogue gender studies and mysticism this book will be invaluable to students and scholars in a range of disciplines Latin American Postmodernisms, 2023-11-27 The first essays in this volume locate Latin America within the postmodernism debate by addressing both its position in the theory of the postmodern and the peripheral existence of the continent in light of the globalizing practices of the contemporary world The next essays focus on the Caribbean and elements of the formation of identity and culture in a group of societies belonging to the same geographic region but confronted with the idiosyncrasies of their colonial histories the problematics of race and language and their relation to the politics and cultures of metropolitan powers There are three essays concerned with re readings of the first encounters between Europe and America and discussions of more recent fictional representations of the past which attempt to recover the lost Amerindian Other of the Conquest and Colonization and to reveal the constructedness of History Finally preceded by two texts on ways of reading and writing in Latin America the final four essays are concerned with challenges to the discourses of power by Latin American women who re define the subject and counter the established hegemonies of religion culture and social structure both in their writing and political actions As a collection of essays this volume will appeal to readers who are interested in Post modernism as a global phenomenon and in understanding the different forms it takes and the issues it addresses in different cultural environments Dimensions of the Impersonal in Clarice Lispector Wojciech Sawala, 2025-09-18 This book explores the fictional work of Clarice Lispector 1920-1977 the eminent twentieth century Brazilian writer It employs the theoretical framework of affirmative biopolitics by Roberto Esposito engaging with Michel Foucault and Giorgio Agamben alongside voices like Mircea Eliade Anthony Giddens and Agata Bielik Robson The focus is on rethinking and valuing impersonality crucial for understanding the anthropological metaphysical ethical and political implications in Lispector's works The main thesis posits that Lispector's writings from journalistic chronicles to significant books like The Passion According to G. H. present a complex anthropological vision marked by an ontological and ethical deadlock between personality and impersonality This vision suggests that humans are trapped in a personal mode of existence separated from their ontological essence leading to a metaphysical guilt The book analyzes this deadlock both in individual and communal political contexts highlighting the cryptotheological dimension in Lispector's mystical and messianic themes rooted in Jewish tradition Unveiling the Sacred in 20th- and 21st-Century Latin American Literature Alexander Torres, Pablo Baisotti, 2025-10-23 Drawing on diverse scholarly and theoretical perspectives this collection delves into the interplay between modernity and sacred traditions in contemporary Latin America as represented in its literature. Featuring analyses of diverse 20th and 21st century literary works this book offers deep insights into how the sacred persists multifariously in Latin American literature. This work invites readers to rediscover the sacred as a vital component of human existence and literary discourse. It is an essential resource for understanding the complex relationship between modernity and the phenomenon of the sacred in Latin America.

The Cambridge Companion to the Latin American Novel Efraín Kristal, 2005-05-26 The diverse countries of Latin America have produced a lively and ever evolving tradition of novels many of which are read in translation all over the world. This Companion offers a broad overview of the novel's history and analyses in depth several representative works by for example Gabriel García Márquez Machado de Assis Isabel Allende and Mario Vargas Llosa. The essays collected here offer several entryways into the understanding and appreciation of the Latin American novel in Spanish speaking America and Brazil. The volume conveys a real sense of the heterogeneity of Latin American literature highlighting regions whose cultural and geopolitical particularities are often overlooked. Indispensable to students of Latin American or Hispanic studies and those interested in comparative literature and the development of the novel as genre the Companion features a comprehensive bibliography and chronology and concludes with an essay about the success of Latin American novels in translation.
