Japanese Imperialism in Contemporary English Fiction Ching-chih Wang, 2019-11-02 This book considers literary images of Japan created by David Mitchell Kazuo Ishiguro and Tan Twan Eng to examine the influence of Japanese imperialism and its legacy at a time when culture was appropriated as route to governmentality and violence justified as root to peace Using David Mitchell's The Thousand Autumns of Jacob de Zoet Tan

Twang Eng's The Garden of the Evening Mists and Kazuo Ishiguro's work to examine Japanese militarists' tactics of usurpation and how Japanese imperialism reached out to the grass root public and turned into a fundamental belief in colonial invasion and imperial expansion the book provides an in depth study of trauma memory and war From studying the rise of Japanese imperialism to Japan's legitimization of colonial invasion in addition to the devastating consequences of imperialism on both the colonizers and the colonized the book provides a literary discursive context to re-examine the forces of civilization which will appeal to all those interested in diasporic literature and postcolonial discourse and the continued relevance of literature in understanding memory legacy and war

Ethos and Narrative Interpretation Liesbeth Korthals Altes, 2014-07-01 Ethos and Narrative Interpretation examines the fruitfulness of the concept of ethos for the theory and analysis of literary narrative The notion of ethos refers to the broadly persuasive effects of the image one may have of a speaker's psychology world view and emotional or ethical stance How and why do readers attribute an ethos of for example sincerity reliability authority or irony to literary characters narrators and even to authors Are there particular conditions under which it is more appropriate for interpreters to attribute an ethos to authors rather than to narrators In the answer Liesbeth Korthals Altes proposes to such questions ethos attributions are deeply implicated in the process of interpreting and evaluating narrative texts Demonstrating the extent to which ethos attributions and hence interpretive acts play a tacit role in many methods of narratological analysis Korthals Altes also questions the agenda and epistemological status of various narratologies both classical and post classical Her approach rooted in a broad understanding of the role and circulation of narrative art in culture rehabilitates interpretation both as a tool and as an object of investigation in narrative studies

The Contemporaneity of Modernism Michael D'Arcy, Mathias Nilges, 2015-10-23 At a juncture in which art and culture are saturated with the forces of commodification this book argues that problems forms and positions that defined modernism are crucially relevant to the condition of contemporary art and culture The volume is attuned to the central concerns of recent scholarship on modernism and contemporary culture the problems of aesthetic autonomy and the specific role of art in preserving a critical standpoint for cultural production the relationship between politics and the category of the aesthetic the problems of temporality and contemporaneity literary transnationalism and the questions of medium and medium specificity Ranging across art forms mediums disciplines and geographical locations essays address the foundational questions that fuse modernism and the contemporary moment What is art What is the relation between art and the economy How do art and technology interpenetrate and transform each other What is modernism's logic of time and contemporaneity and how might it speak to the problem of thinking genuine novelty or the possibility of an alternative to the current stage of neo liberal capitalism What is modernism and what is its history The book is thus committed to revising our understanding of what modernism was in its earlier instantiations and in accounting for the current moment addressing the problems raised by modernism's afterlives and reverberations in the 20th and 21st centuries The volume includes essays that consider literature sociology philosophy visual art music architecture digital culture television and other artistic media It synthesizes the most recent thinking on modernism and contemporary culture and presents a compelling case for what happens to literature art and culture in the wake of the exhaustion of postmodernism This book will be of interest to those studying literature visual art media studies architecture literary theory modernism and twentieth century and contemporary culture more generally

David Mitchell's Post-Secular World Rose Harris-Birtill, 2020-07-23 Since the publication of Ghostwritten 1999 David Mitchell has rapidly established himself as one of the most inventive and important British novelists of the 21st century In this landmark study Rose Harris Birtill reveals the extent to which Mitchell has created an interconnected fictional world across the full run of his writing Covering Mitchell's complete fictions from bestselling novels such as Cloud Atlas 2004 The Bone Clocks 2014 and number9dream 2001 to his short stories and his libretti for the operas Sunken Garden and Wake this book examines how Buddhist influences inform the ethical worldview that permeates his writing Using a comparative theoretical model drawn from the Tibetan mandala to map Mitchell's fictional world Harris Birtill positions Mitchell as central to a new generation of post secular writers who re examine the vital role of belief in galvanizing action amidst contemporary ecological political and humanitarian crises David Mitchell's Post Secular World features two substantial new interviews with the author a chronology of his fictions and a selected bibliography of important critical writings on his work

A Temporary Future: The Fiction of David Mitchell Patrick O'Donnell, 2015-01-29 Having emerged as one the leading contemporary British writers David Mitchell is rapidly taking his place amongst British novelists with the gravitas of an Ishiguro or a McEwan Written for a wide constituency of readers of contemporary literature A Temporary Future The Fiction of David Mitchell explores Mitchell's main concerns including those of identity history language imperialism childhood the environment and ethnicity across the six novels published so far as well as his protean ability to write in multiple and diverse genres It places Mitchell in the tradition of Murakami Sebald and Rushdie writers whose works explore narrative in an age of globalization and cosmopolitanism Patrick O'Donnell traces the through lines of Mitchell's work from ghostwritten to The Bone Clocks and with a chapter on each of the six novels charts the evolution of Mitchell's fictional project
