Rushmore Kristi Irene McKim,2023-10-05 Earning critical acclaim and commercial success upon its 1998 release Rushmore the sophomore film of American auteur Wes Anderson quickly gained the status of a cult classic A melancholic coming of age story wrapped in comedy drama Rushmore focuses on the efforts of Max Fischer Jason Schwartzman a brazen and precocious fifteen year old to find his way Restless energetic struggling and overcompensating for his insecurities Max pursues a dizzying range of possible futures leading him into the orbit of local steel magnate Herman Blume Bill Murray elementary school teacher Rosemary Cross Olivia Williams and a host of cooperative schoolmates who help him to stage lavish film derivative plays Kristi McKim s compelling study of the film argues that despite the film s titular call for haste and excess rush more it challenges a drive toward perfectionism and celebrates the quiet connections that defy such passion and speed After establishing Rushmore s history and reception McKim closely reads Rushmore s energetic musical montages relative to slower moments that introduce tenderness and ambiguity in a form subtler than Max's desire built drive or genre based plays. Her analysis offers an urgent corrective to what might be perceived as an endearing portrait of privilege that perpetuates a status quo power. Drawing out Rushmore's subtleties that soften temper, ease, expand and equalize the film's zeal, she reads the film with a generosity learned from the film itself. Dreams, Doubt, and Dread Zachary Thomas Settle, Taylor Worley, 2016-08-24. Films are modern spiritual phenomena. They function as such in at least three profound ways: world projection, thought experiments, and catharsis, i.e. as dreams, doubt, and dread. Understanding film in this way allows for a theological account of the experience that speaks to the religious possibilities of film that far extend the portrayal of religious themes or content. Dreams, Doubt, and Dread: The Spiritual in Film aims to address films as spiritual experiences. This collection of short essays and dialogues examines films phenomenologically through the experience of the viewer as an agent having been acted upon in the functioning of the film itself. Authors were invited to take one of the main themes and creatively consider how film in their experiences has provided opportunities for new modes of thinking. Contributors will then engaged one another in a dialogue about the similarities and differences in their descriptions of film as spiritual phenomena. The intended aim of this text is to shift contemporary theological film engagement away from a simple mode of analysis in which theological concepts are simply read into the film itself and begin to let films speak for themselves as profoundly spiritual experiences. Screen Space Reconfigured Susanne Saether, Synne Tollerud Bull, 2025-10-01. Screen Space Reconfigured is the first edited volume that critically and theoretically examines the many novel renderings of space brought to us by 21st century screens. Exploring key cases such as post-perspectival space, 3D vertical framing, haptics, and layering, this volume takes stock of emerging forms of screen space and spatialities as they move from the margins to the centre of contemporary media practice. Recent years have seen a marked scholarly interest in spatial dimensions and conceptions of moving image culture, with some theorists claiming that a spatial turn has taken place in media studies and screen practices alike. Yet this is the first book-length study dedicated to on-screen spatiality as such. Spanning mainstream cinema, experimental film, video art, mobile screens, and stadium entertainment, the volume includes contributions from such acclaimed authors as Giuliana Bruno and Tom Gunning, as well as a younger generation of scholars. Wes Anderson's Symbolic Storyworld Warren Buckland, 2018-10-18. Wes Anderson's Symbolic Storyworld presents a theoretical investigation of what makes the films of Wes Anderson distinctive. Chapter by chapter, it relentlessly pulls apart each of Anderson's narratives to pursue the proposition that they all share the same deep underlying symbolic values: a common symbolic storyworld. Taking the polemical strategy of outlining and employing Claude Lévi-Strauss's distinguished and notorious work on myth and kinship to analyze eight of Anderson's films, Warren Buckland unearths the peculiar symbolic structure of each film, plus the circuits of exchange, tangible and intangible gift giving, and unusual kinship systems that govern the lives of Anderson's characters. He also provides an analysis of Wes Anderson's visual and aural style, identifying several distinctive
