Writing a Commentary on Leviticus Christian A. Eberhart, Thomas Hieke, 2019-04-15 Writing a commentary on a biblical book is not limited to the scholar's study and desk. Hence several experts in the field of Hebrew Bible currently writing a larger commentary on the book of Leviticus followed the invitation of Christian Eberhart and Thomas Hieke to meet between 2014 and 2016 at the Annual SBL Conference. They shared their experiences, discussed hermeneutical and methodological considerations, and presented their ideas about particular themes and issues in the third book of the Torah. The results of these consultative panels had significant impact on the production of the commentaries. The first part of this volume features essays reflecting on the process of writing a Leviticus commentary, including boosts and obstacles, while suggesting innovative insights on particular problems of the book. The second part identifies certain themes of Leviticus, especially sacrifices and rituals, the cult, the notion of unintentional and deliberate sins, and purity/impurity, the bad and how to eliminate them, and the relationship to the sphere of God the holy. This section demonstrates how commenting a biblical book highly depends on the perspective a scholar takes and how different commentaries on the same biblical text come to different conclusions because of a diversity of methodological and hermeneutical approaches. These are issues innate in the subject matter; in the end, the variety of approaches bears witness to the complexity, intricacy, and richness of the biblical text. This volume therefore offers a fascinating inside view into the studies and onto the desks of several prolific biblical experts who share their reflections and concepts about their commentaries on Leviticus with an interested audience.
