Excavations at Tall Jawa, Jordan Michèle Daviau, 2019-09-16 In Excavations at Tall Jawa Jordan Volume 3 The Iron Age Pottery Michèle Daviau presents a detailed typology of the Iron Age pottery excavated from 1989 to 1995 She looks beyond the formal changes to an in depth analysis of the forming techniques employed to make each type of vessel from bowls to colanders cooking pots to pithoi The changes in fabric composition from Iron I to Iron II were more significant than those from Iron IIB to IIC although changes in surface treatment especially slip color were noticeable Petrographic analysis of Iron I pottery by Stanley Klassen contributes to our growing corpus of fabric types while Peter Epler documents typical Ammonite painted patterns and Elaine Kirby and Marianne Kraft present a typology of potters marks Sedimentary Processes, Environments and Basins Gary Nichols, Edward Williams, Chris Paola, 2009-03-05 For several decades Peter Friend has been one of the leading figures in sedimentary geology and throughout that time he has helped scores of other people by supervising doctoral students collaborating with colleagues especially in developing countries and selflessly sharing ideas with fellow geologists This collection of papers is a survey of the research frontier in basin dynamics a field Peter Friend helped initiate and a token of thanks from people who have benefited from an association with Peter during their careers The papers in this book fall into four themes Tectonics and sedimentation Landscape evolution and provenance Depositional systems and Fluvial sedimentation which reflect Peter's research interests and are all important areas of current research in sedimentary geology There are both case studies and review articles on these themes which reflect recent work but the collection can also be considered to be a sampler of sedimentary geology for anyone with broad interests in the Earth sciences Himalayan Bronzes Chandra L. Reedy, 1997-10 Himalayan Bronzes focuses on a complete study of 340 medieval period copper alloy sculptures from the Himalayan regions of Afghanistan northern Pakistan Kashmir Himachal Pradesh Nepal and Tibet For more than 1 500 years artists in isolated valleys in and adjacent to the mountains of the Himalayas have created magnificent copper based statues representing deities and spiritual leaders of the Hindu Buddhist and Bon Po religions Author Chandra L Reedy's multidisciplinary approach to the study of these statues integrates methods and techniques from art history art conservation geology chemistry statistics archaeology and ethnography to answer art historical and anthropological questions Her guiding premise is that gathering and combining several types of information will result in more and better answers than any one type alone

Yavneh Raz Kletter, Irit Ziffer, Wolfgang Zwickel, 2010 In the words of late Professor Moshe Kochavi the Philistine repository pit at Yavneh is the kind of discovery made only once every fifty years It is the richest repository pit ever found from Bronze and Iron Ages Israel Palestine containing thousands of cultic finds originating from a temple including an unprecedented number more than a hundred of cult stands so called architectural models carrying rich figurative art dozens of fire pans chalices and other objects The present volume includes the full publication of the excavation the stratigraphy the cult stands and the figures detached from cult stands several clay and stone altars and some pottery vessels related to burning of plant material most likely incense This exceptional book raises a host of highly important and intriguing questions Is this a favissa or even a genizah Why are many cult stands badly broken while some are intact were cult stands broken on purpose What is the explanation for the unique stratigraphy and for the layer of gray ash in the pit was fire kindled inside as part of a ritual How do we know that these finds are Philistine Are they part of the furniture of the temple or objects dedicated by worshippers as votives Do the figures on the cult stands represent mortal beings or divinities If divinities can we relate them with Biblical or extra biblical data on the gods of the Philistines What was the function s of cult stands Were they models of buildings supports for images offering tables altars or perhaps incense burners Why are female figures dominant while male figures are virtually absent In discussing such topics Yavneh I treats issues that are central to many fields of study religion and cult in Iron Age Israel Palestine the history and archaeology of the Philistines and their western relations Near Eastern iconography the meaning of cult stands architectural models and the understanding of votive objects and of repository pits in general Literally salvaged from the teeth of a bulldozer these rare finds are now published Generations of scholars will discuss and reinterpret them there is no final word for such finds and hence this final excavation volume is not an end but a beginning

Italian Medieval Sculpture in the Metropolitan Museum of Art and the Cloisters Metropolitan Museum of Art (New York, N.Y.),Lisbeth Castelnovo-Tedesco,Jack Soltanian,2010 The collection of Italian medieval sculpture in The Metropolitan Museum of Art and The Cloisters began with the acquisition in 1908 of a Romanesque column statue today the Museum s holdings comprise more than seventy works dating from the ninth to the late fifteenth century The birthplaces of these works range from Sicily to Venice some typify local styles others illustrate the intense artistic exchanges taking place within Italy and between Italy and the wider world

Technological advances of the last decades have made it possible to determine more precisely the materials and techniques from which works of art are made the history of their alteration and the mechanisms of their deterioration Using such techniques scholars have been able to ascertain for example that sculptures previously thought to be modern works carved in the medieval manner were in fact completely authentic This innovative volume represents a watershed in the study of sculpture a collaborative dialogue between an art historian and a conservator between art history and art science that deepens our understanding of the object we see while illuminating its elusive enigmatic history From publisher s description
