Hal Higdon's Half Marathon Training is a book you'll return to for guidance and inspiration for a lifetime of running Meb For Mortals Meb Keflezighi, Scott Douglas, 2015-04-07 With his historic win at the 2014 Boston Marathon Meb Keflezighi cemented his legacy as one of the great champions of long distance running. Runners everywhere wanted to know how someone two weeks away from his 39th birthday who had only the 15th best time going into the race could defeat the best field in Boston Marathon history and become the first American man to win the race in 31 years. Meb For Mortals describes in unprecedented detail how three time Olympian Keflezighi prepares to take on the best runners in the world. More important, the book shows everyday runners how to implement the training, nutritional, and mental principles that have guided him throughout his long career, which in addition to a 2014 Boston Marathon win includes an Olympic silver medal and the 2009 New York City Marathon title. Running Times, 2008-10 Running Times magazine explores training from the perspective of top athletes, coaches, and scientists; rates and profiles elite runners; and provides stories and commentary reflecting the dedicated runner's worldview. Boston Marathon Handbook Marc W. Pollina, 2024-02-06 Every third Monday each April, since 1897, the fastest endurance athletes in the world converge on Boston, Massachusetts, to run planet Earth's most prestigious road race, the Boston Marathon. What began with fifteen runners toeing the start on a dirt road is now a global phenomenon attracting millions of online viewers, more than 500,000 spectators, and 30,000 of the fastest athletes from 120 countries around the world. Books chronicle its storied history; memoirs highlight its penchant for self-transformation. The Boston Marathon Handbook takes a different tack, delivering everything we need to know how to prepare, what to wear, how to qualify, where to celebrate, who to emulate, how to race, and everything else critical and not so critical to ensure race day success. In a reverent yet tongue-in-cheek style, The Boston Marathon Handbook educates and entertains in equal measure. Marc W. Pollina presents us with the definitive field guide to the Boston Marathon for participants, aspirants on the cusp of participating, and athletes who dream of participating. The Boston Marathon Handbook features tips on getting in training, navigating Boston, and the runners expo; racing through each town; celebrating after the finish; shaking off the post-race blues; and figuring out what challenge to pursue next, in one entertaining package. Running Times, 2006-12 Running Times magazine explores training from the perspective of top athletes, coaches, and scientists; rates and profiles elite runners; and provides stories and commentary reflecting the dedicated runner's worldview. Mastering the Marathon Don Fink, 2010-09 In Mastering the Marathon, champion forty-plus endurance athlete and trainer Don Fink sets forth programs for anyone over forty, presenting exciting new training methods and step-by-step action plans that result in faster times, fewer injuries, and more enjoyment. Faster Road Racing Pfitzinger, Pete, Latter, Phillip, 2014-11-06 In Faster Road Racing, 5K to Half Marathon, renowned running authority Pete Pfitzinger and Running Times senior writer Philip Latter present training plans for the most popular race distances, as well as advice on recovery, cross training, nutrition, tapering, and masters running. Marathon in Hong Kong Ben Fong, Jonathan Heung On Wai, 2010-02-09 The essays in this collection
