

ADVICE FROM A FARMER

Your fences need to be horse-high, pig-tight and bull-strong.

When you wallow with pigs, expect to get dirty.

Keep skunks, bankers, and lawyers at a distance.

If you find yourself in a hole, the first thing to do is stop diggin'.

Forgive your enemies. It messes up their heads.

Always drink upstream from the herd.

Do not corner something that you know is meaner than you.

Lettin' the cat outta the bag is a whole lot easier than puttin' it back in.

Every path has a few puddles.

Life is simpler when you plow around the stump.

Live a good, honorable life. Then when you get older and think back, you'll enjoy it a second time.

Structural Change in the Farming Sectors in Central and Eastern Europe Csaba Csáki,Zvi Lerman,2000-01-01

Farm structures in Central and Eastern Europe CEE today cover a whole spectrum of forms which include small subsistence oriented household plots medium sized commercial family farms and large corporations The agricultural sector in CEE definitely has not embraced the family farm as the dominant farming structure thus confounding the original expectations of Western experts On the other hand agriculture did not collapse because of fragmentation and privatization as predicted by conservative doomsayers To address the concerns of the farming sector in CEE with relation to EU accession a workshop was held in Warsaw Poland in June 1999 This volume represents a selection of papers presented at this workshop It examines the reforms and policy changes necessary in the food and agriculture sectors of the ten countries that have started the accession process for eventual membership in the European Union Bulgaria Czech Republic Estonia Hungary Latvia Lithuania Poland Romania Slovakia and Slovenia The papers are organized around the following three topics Evolving farm structures and competitiveness in agriculture Land laws and legal institutions for development of land markets and farm restructuring and Development of farm services for improved competitiveness This volume will be of interest to agricultural policy makers and government officials in the candidate countries EU officials World Bank and FAO staff development scholars and all others interested in the process of agricultural reform in CEE News for Farmer Cooperatives ,1957
