Advancing Conflict Transformation The Berghof Handbook II The Berghof Conflict Research:

The Challenge of Enlightenment, Conflict Transformation and Peace in Pakistan Moonis Ahmar, 2023-11-17 This book looks at the process of cultural enlightenment in the context of Pakistan. It undertakes an interesting and in depth research focusing on how the world's second largest Muslim state can learn from Europe's heritage of enlightenment. It studies why Pakistan lacks a process of awakening and what the scope of cultural enlightenment in Pakistan is against the backdrop of militant Islam. The author argues that cultural enlightenment can help promote positive conflict transformation in Pakistan and discusses the ways in which challenges to establishing a culture of reasoning, tolerance, accommodation, social justice and peace can be dealt with. A unique contribution, this book will be of interest to students and researchers of philosophy, political science, history, international relations, South Asian studies and religious studies. It will also appeal to think tanks, policymakers and general readers interested in these topics. Civil Resistance and Conflict Transformation

Véronique Dudouet, 2014-09-15 Investigates the decision making process, rationale and determining factors which underlie strategic shifts from armed to nonviolent strategies of resistance. Draws on a wide range of case studies from Western Sahara, Egypt, Palestine, Nepal, West Papua, South Africa, Mexico, Chiapas and Colombia. Will be of much interest to students of non violence, peace and conflict studies, political sociology, security studies and IR in general. The Routledge Handbook for

Advancing Integration in Mixed Methods Research John H. Hitchcock, Anthony J. Onwuegbuzie, 2022-05-10 This groundbreaking edited book, The Routledge Handbook for Advancing Integration in Mixed Methods Research, presents an array of different integration ideas with contributions from scholars across the globe. This handbook represents the first major volume that comprehensively discusses this topic of integration. Perhaps the most fundamental and longstanding question in mixed methods research is: How does one best integrate disparate forms of information to produce the best form of inquiry? Each of the 34 seminal chapters in this handbook accelerates the discussion of integration across a broad range of disciplines including education, arts based analyses and work in the Global South as well as special topics such as psychometrics and media research. Many of the chapters present new topics that have never been written about before and all chapters offer cutting edge approaches to integration. They also offer different perspectives of integration leading the introductory chapter to offer a new and comprehensive definition for integration as follows: referring to the optimal mixing, combining, blending, amalgamating, incorporating, joining, linking, merging, consolidating or unifying of research approaches, methodologies, philosophies, methods, techniques, concepts, language, modes, disciplines, fields and/or teams within a single study. The concluding chapter offers a meta framework that accounts for this definition and is designed to help scholars think more about integration in a way that represents a continuous, dynamic, iterative, interactive, synergistic and holistic meaning making process. This handbook will be an essential reference work for all scholars and practitioners using or seeking to use mixed methods in their research. Reconciliation, Conflict Transformation, and Peace Studies Iyad Muhsen

AlDajani, Martin Leiner, 2024-10-01 This book achieved in cooperation with the Academic Alliance for Reconciliation Studies in the Middle East and North Africa AARMENA focuses on peacebuilding conflict transformation and shifts toward approaching the reconciliation process as an inter trans and multidisciplinary field The research presented in the series focuses on the Middle East and North Africa highlighting contributions by practitioners and scholars alike The book is divided into five sections Section 1 Theoretical and Philosophical Framework Section 2 Digital Humanities on Reconciliation Conflict Transformation and Peace Studies Section 3 Research Science on Reconciliation Conflict Transformation and Peace Studies Section 4 Practices of Studies on Reconciliation Conflict Transformation and Peace Studies Section 5 Cases Studies on Reconciliation Conflict Transformation and Peace Studies The book s first part focuses on theories and the philosophical framework for the research on reconciliation conflict transformation and peace studies The second part of the book is dedicated to digital humanities development in the reconciliation and peace education field its impact on the reconciliation process in societies and the introduction of Artificial Intelligence in analysis techniques to differentiate and identify research in different domains The book s third part is dedicated to the research on reconciliation and conflict transformation in different disciplines The fourth part concentrates on the practices in the field and the fifth part illustrates case studies on reconciliation conflict transformation and peace studies The target audience is professors scholars practitioners students and scientists that are experts in the field of Middle East and North Africa

Israeli and Palestinian Collective Narratives in Conflict Adi Mana, Anan Srour, 2020-09-16 Examining the social laboratory of the Israeli and Palestinian societies to better understand social conflicts and the construction of diverse and conflicting collective narratives this book gives readers a window into Professor Shifra Sagy s unique approach to intergroup conflicts and peace education With a focus on both theory and practice it describes the model of perceptions of collective narratives that she developed with her colleagues The contributions here offer insight into the intergroup conflicts between Israelis and Palestinians Palestinian Muslims and Christians Jewish National Religious and people of ultra Orthodox faith and Palestinians living in Israel and those living in the West Bank Perceptions of collective narratives help crystallize social identity a sense of community and national coherence and a culture of conflict Often this creates obstacles to peace and conflict resolution This book instead looks at how we can use these constructions to promote reconciliation

The Elgar Companion to Post-Conflict Transition Hans-Joachim Giessmann, Roger Mac Ginty, Beatrix Austin, Christine Seifert, 2018-08-31 What are the main drivers of political transition and regime change And to what extent do these apparently seismic political changes result in real change These questions are the focus of this comparative study written by a mix of scholars and practitioners This state of the art volume identifies patterns in political transitions but is largely unconvinced that these transitions bring about real change to the underlying structures of society Patriarchy land tenure and economic systems often remain immune to change despite the headlines

presents the enduring debates and emerging challenges in crime and justice studies from an international and multi disciplinary perspective Locally Based Civil Conflict Transformation Between Partnership and Power Imbalance Samantha Ruppel, 2025-02-12 This book examines the processes and dynamics of cooperation between different actors in civil peace service projects in Kenya Sierra Leone and Liberia The joint handling of conflicts and peacebuilding challenges by local and international actors has a long tradition in German peace work and is becoming increasingly important in a globalized world Therefore the book explores the question relevant for both academia and peace practitioners to what extent an equal partnership can exist in the context of civil conflict transformation By focusing on the opportunities and challenges of cooperation the work succeeds in focusing on everyday activities analyzing the actual processes and frictions of peace work and making a valuable contribution to critical peace research and the discussion of hybridity and friction A

Micro-Level Perspective on the Dynamics of Conflict, Violence, and Development Patricia Justino, Tilman Brück, Philip Verwimp, 2013-11 Analyses violent conflict and its impact on local institutional and development processes It shows how the behaviour of individuals helps us understand the complex dynamic links between conflict violence and development The Palgrave Handbook of Religion, Peacebuilding, and Development in Africa Susan M. Kilonzo, Ezra Chitando, Joram Tarusarira, 2023-10-17 This Handbook explores the ways in which religion among the African people has been applied in situations of conflict and violence to contribute to sustainable peace and development It analyzes how peacebuilding inspired and enabled by religion serves as the foundation for sustainable development in Africa while also acknowledging that religion can also be a tool of destruction and can be used to fuel violence and underdevelopment Contributors to this volume offer theoretical discussions from existing literature as well as experiences of practitioners to deepen the readers understanding on the role of religion and religious institutions in peacebuilding and development in Africa The Handbook provides reflections on possible future developments as well thereby aligning with the goals of SDG 16 Measuring the Impact of Peacebuilding Interventions on Rule of Law and Security Institutions Vincenza Scherrer, 2012-05-14 Since the 1990s internationally supported peacebuilding interventions have become increasingly prominent Activities focusing on rule of law and security institutions are a key component of this agenda Despite increasing calls for more rigorous analysis of the impact of peacebuilding interventions conceptual advances have been limited There is little clarity on what is working what is not and why This SSR Paper seeks to address this gap by mapping relevant approaches and methodologies to measuring impact It examines how international actors have approached these questions in relation to support to rule of law and security institutions in complex peacebuilding environments Most significantly the paper demonstrates that measuring impact is not only feasible but necessary in order to maximise the effectiveness of major international investments in this field The Oxford Handbook of Peacebuilding, Statebuilding, and Peace Formation Oliver P. Richmond, Gözim Visoka, 2021 Peacebuilding and statebuilding is one of the main approaches for preventing managing and mitigating global insecurities dealing with the humanitarian consequences of civil wars and expanding democracy and neoliberal economic regimes Peace formation is a relatively new concept addressing how local actors attempt to shape or work in parallel to international and national projects The Oxford Handbook of Peacebuilding Statebuilding and Peace Formation serves as an essential guide to this vast intellectual landscape It offers a systematic overview of conceptual foundations political implications and tensions at the global regional and local levels as well as key policies practices examples and discourses underlining all segments of peacebuilding and statebuilding The Palgrave Encyclopedia of Peace and Conflict Studies Oliver P. Richmond, Gëzim Visoka, 2022-06-21 This encyclopaedia provides a comprehensive overview of major theories and approaches to the study of peace and conflict across different humanities and social sciences disciplines Peace and conflict studies PCS is one of the major sub disciplines of international studies including political science and international relations and has emerged from a need to understand war related systems and concepts and how to respond to it afterward As a living reference work easily discoverable and searchable the Palgrave Encyclopedia of Peace and Conflict Studies offers solid material for understanding the foundational historical and contemporary themes concepts theories events organisations and frameworks concerning peace conflict security rights institutions and development The Palgrave Encyclopaedia of Peace and Conflict Studies brings together leading and emerging scholars from different disciplines to provide the most comprehensive and up to date resource on peace and conflict studies ever produced Advancing Conflict Transformation Beatrix Austin, 2011 Following the first volume of its Handbook for Conflict Transformation in 2004 Berghof Conflict Research Berlin now presents this second volume The book collects new insights into nonviolent ways of managing inter group conflict and what is needed for consolidating positive peace Topics include global trends in organized violence the role of gender relations and asymmetries in conflict third party intervention and insider approaches human rights transitional justice reconciliation in post war societies The book will be essential for all those who are interested and active in the fields of conflict prevention and management development cooperation human rights and post war peacebuilding Peace Formation and Political Order in Conflict Affected Societies Oliver P. Richmond, 2016-02-23 As Oliver Richmond explains there is a level to peacemaking that operates in the realm of dialogue declarations symbols and rituals But after all this pomp and circumstance is where the reality of security development politics economics identity and culture figure in conflict cooperation and reconciliation are at their most vivid at the local scale Thus local peace operations are crucial to maintaining order on the ground even in the most violent contexts However as Richmond argues such local capacity to build peace from the inside is generally left unrecognized and it has been largely ignored in the policy and scholarly literature on peacebuilding In Peace and Political Order Richmond looks at peace processes as they scale up from local to transnational efforts to consider how to build a lasting and productive peace He takes a comparative and expansive look at peace efforts in conflict situations in countries around the world to consider what local voices might suggest about the inadequacy of peace processes engineered at the international level As well he explores how local workers act to modify or resist peace processes headed by international NGOs and to what degree local actors have enjoyed success in the peace process and how they have affected the international peace process

Business, Peacebuilding, and Regulation Sean Molloy, 2024-08-26 This book examines the relationship between business based peacebuilding and the opportunities that emerge from the pluralisation of regulation The core message is notwithstanding the broad range of regulatory initiatives and actors that exist in conflict affected settings the state should assume responsibilities for defining the types of contribution that business can and ought to make to peace It also demonstrates how the state through different forms and methods of regulation is well placed to engage businesses to do so It is particularly concerned with the potential for regulation to help address what is identified as a state of optimistic uncertainty in the field of business and peacebuilding On one level there is a sense of optimism around the types of contributions that businesses can and often do make as agents for peace On another there are varying degrees of uncertainty surrounding the actual peacebuilding impacts of business activities how businesses are to understand the ways in which to make these contributions and why businesses would do so Regulation this book will argue can play an important role in bridging the chasm between optimism and uncertainty This book will be of interest to those engaged not only with business and peacebuilding but also business and human rights business and development and business and the environment Moreover this book is also of contemporary interest in other ways the aftermath of the Ukrainian conflict as an example will require a concerted effort to rebuild that society after war Private sector actors could be a powerful vehicle for reconstruction and development and this book examines how regulation can be used to facilitate businesses involvement in peacebuilding efforts

A youth empowerment model designed to tackle school violence in South Africa Fathima Dewan, 2024-12-17 School based violence is of major concern in the South African schooling system particularly in secondary schools School based violence has a negative impact on the physical social cognitive and emotional well being of learners and teachers To compound matters family and community environment also play a role in escalating school violence There is a need to develop interventions that are evidence based and developmental in nature to address the issue of reducing school based violence Youth empowerment can be used as a helpful strategy to address the issue of school based violence This scholarly book focuses on using the framework of youth empowerment to address the issue of school based violence Through sound research the author proposes that schools should involve learners in decision making around school policies and design strategies to address school violence to create safer schools and a better school climate The author further posits using key aspects of youth empowerment in school violence campaigns and programmes to increase youth motivation to collectively influence changes within their school through a process of shared decision making collective vision and partnership with young people

Documentation from Truth and Reconciliation Commissions Proscovia Svård, Bonny Ibhawoh, 2024-08-12 Documentation from Truth and Reconciliation Commissions highlights the need for post conflict societies to have access to and to use Truth Reconciliation Commissions TRCs documentation to achieve reconciliation and to work towards a democratic society Including international contributions from a range of disciplines the volume discusses the challenges that surround TRCs documentation Considering the impact of the politicization of documentation chapters also highlight the lack of political will to democratize information the lack of dissemination and the preservation infrastructures that hinder access and its effective use and re use Arguing that TRCs documentation should be used to inform policy improve governance and to promote justice healing and reconciliation the volume considers the ethical challenges involved in disseminating such information Contributing authors argue that information professionals should play a major role in the planning for the TRCs information management infrastructures if they are to facilitate access effectively manage the generated documentation deal with preservation of the compound records and promote the dissemination of the TRC findings Documentation from Truth and Reconciliation Commissions demonstrates that TRCs documentation provides validation of human rights violations and that it helps to promote an understanding of the causes of conflict As such it will be essential reading for academics and students working in Archival Studies Information Science History Transitional Justice and Peace and Conflict Studies     Justice in Conflict Mark Kersten, 2016 What happens when the international community simultaneously pursues peace and justice in response to ongoing conflicts What are the effects of interventions by the International Criminal Court ICC on the wars in which the institution intervenes Is holding perpetrators of mass atrocities accountable a help or hindrance to conflict resolution This book offers an in depth examination of the effects of interventions by the ICC on peace justice and conflict processes The peace versus justice debate wherein it is argued that the ICC has either positive or negative effects on peace has spawned in response to the Court s propensity to intervene in conflicts as they still rage This book is a response to and a critical engagement with this debate Building on theoretical and analytical insights from the fields of conflict and peace studies conflict resolution and negotiation theory the book develops a novel analytical framework to study the Court s effects on peace justice and conflict processes This framework is applied to two cases Libya and northern Uganda Drawing on extensive fieldwork the core of the book examines the empirical effects of the ICC on each case The book also examines why the ICC has the effects that it does delineating the relationship between the interests of states that refer situations to the Court and the ICC s institutional interests arguing that the negotiation of these interests determines which side of a conflict the ICC targets and thus its effects on peace justice and conflict processes While the effects of the ICC s interventions are ultimately and inevitably mixed the book makes a unique contribution to the empirical record on ICC interventions and presents a novel and sophisticated means of studying analyzing and understanding the effects of the Court s interventions in Libya northern Uganda and beyond
