Bjørn Rimscha, Stephanie Grubenmann, 2017-04-10 In today's digital age online and mobile advertising are of growing importance with advertising no longer bound to the traditional media industry Although the advertising industry still has broader access to the different measures and channels users and consumers today have more possibilities to publish get informed or communicate to co create and to reach a bigger audience There is a good chance thus that users and consumers are better informed about the objectives and persuasive tricks of the advertising industry than ever before At the same time advertisers can inform about products and services without the limitations of time and place faced by traditional mass media But will there really be a time when advertisers and consumers have equal power or does tracking users online and offline lead to a situation where advertisers have more information about the consumers than ever before The volume discusses these questions and related issues Youth and Consumption Kara K. W. CHAN, 2010-07-01 This book explores the interplay of the youth segment and the market environment It employs a variety of research methodologies to analyze how young people in Hong Kong interact with various consumer socializing agents including parents peers media celebrities government publicities media contents and advertisements Published by City University of Hong Kong Press Advertising Iain MacRury, 2008-12-19 Advertising once seen as the official art of capitalist society is an increasingly commonplace component of a characteristically promotional culture Iain MacRury's Advertising offers the means to explore and evaluate this transition with an introduction to advertising for the contemporary reader Advertising provides a clear and easy guide to a The Advertising Handbook Helen Powell, Jonathan Hardy, Sarah Hawkin, Iain Macrury, 2013-09-13 This book unravels the how why of advertising and places the industry in its social historical political context Focusing on key debates it explores the competitive practices discourses which govern the industry those who work in it Creating Images and the Psychology of Marketing Communication Lynn R. Kahle, Chung-Hyun Kim, 2006-08-15 This book based on a conference in Seoul Korea in 2004 examines the image research in 3 parts under the theory of brand attachment The 3 parts are Theories of Image Country Image and Individual and Celebrity Source Image Communicating with the Multicultural Consumer Barbara Mueller, 2008 Communicating with the Multicultural Consumer highlights demographic changes impacting the consumer marketplace in the United States Growing multiculturalism creates both new opportunities for marketers as well as new challenges With a balance of theoretical and practical perspectives this text explores how to develop successful campaigns targeting Hispanic Americans African Americans and Asian Americans Complete with current examples and case studies it addresses the key issues that must be kept in mind when creating effective communications programs for ethnic consumers from marketing mix elements to cultural norms and values Communicating with the Multicultural Consumer is an ideal text for advanced undergraduate and graduate students in specialized courses dealing with ethnic advertising or marketing It is also an effective supplementary text for introductory advertising marketing or mass communication courses and would be useful to advertising practitioners whether on the client side or within the advertising agency

Postcolonial Marketing Communication Arindam Das, Himadri Roy Chaudhuri, Ozlem Sandikci Turkdogan, 2024-04-20

This volume approaches marcomm marketing communication from the phenomenology of markets in the context of the Global South and its postcolonial experiences. It provides a fresh perspective to the current paradigm and offers a fresh discourse on the current theories of marketing communication. The book demonstrates how marketing communication an essentially Global North discourse reinforcing hegemony can be critiqued and deconstructed when subjected to postcolonial critical analysis. Recognizing as commonplace the Global South has either willingly embraced or been ideologically coerced into adopting a Western marketing communication system. This system is evident in its theories and practices mirroring Western themes symbols stories and knowledge frameworks consequently fostering subjectivities that lack critical self reflection and are dependent on Western influences. But what remains more interesting is how such an ideological system mediated through a quintessential Global South modernity generates a new habitation of modernity at the margin. Essentially a reaction from the Global South perspective the book thoroughly examines the realities around marketing communication discourses. The book even engenders alternatives to hegemonic marketing communication discourses and a set of other epistemologies of alternate modernities of equity and justice. From African to Turkish from Indian to Canadian first nations Australian Aborigines to Polynesian American postcolonial subjectivities through marcomm across the globe get a voice in the volume. The collection in this volume is a decolonizing attempt that thwarts cultural globalization examines colonial discourses cuts across essentialized identities mobilizes resistance interrogates power structures and mechanisms of knowledge production dissemination and legitimization and celebrates the new formed cultural identity of the Third Fourth World. The book is essential read for researchers students and practitioners of Marketing who wish to gain a deeper understanding of an oft ignored aspect of marcomm.
