Two Boys Kissing David Levithan, 2014 The two boys kissing are Craig and Harry They re hoping to set the world record for the longest kiss They re not a couple but they used to be Peter and Neil are a couple Their kisses are different Avery and Ryan have only just met and are trying to figure out what happens next Cooper is alone He s not sure how he feels As the marathon progresses these boys their friends and families evaluate the changing nature of feelings behaviour and this crazy thing called love

The Reparative Impulse of Queer Young Adult Literature Angel Daniel Matos, 2024-10-01 The Reparative Impulse of Queer Young Adult Literature is a provocative meditation on emotion mood history and futurism in the critique of queer texts created for younger audiences Given critical demands to distance queer youth culture from narratives of violence sadness and hurt that have haunted the queer imagination this volume considers how post 2000s YA literature and media negotiate their hopeful purview with a broader and ongoing history of queer oppression and violence It not only considers the tactics that authors use in bridging a supposedly bad queer past with a better queer present but also offers strategies on how readers can approach YA reparatively given the field s attachments to normative capitalist and neoliberal frameworks Central to Matos argument are the use of historical hurt to spark healing and transformation the implementation of disruptive imagery and narrative structures to challenge normative understandings of time and feeling and the impact of intersectional thinking in reparative readings of queer youth texts The Reparative Impulse of Queer Young Adult Literature shows how YA cultural productions are akin to the broader queer imagination in their ability to move and affect audiences and how these texts encapsulate a significant and enduring change in terms of how queerness is or can be read structured represented and felt The Open Access version of this book available at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4 0 license

Queer and Trans Perspectives on Teaching

LGBT-themed Texts in Schools Mollie V. Blackburn, Caroline T. Clark, Wayne J. Martino, 2018-12-07 This book focuses on queering texts with lesbian gay bisexual and or transgender LGBT themes in collaboration with students young to young adult and their teachers both pre and in service It strives to generate knowledge and deeper understandings of the pedagogical implications for working with LGBT themed texts in classrooms across grade levels The contributions in this book offer explicit implications for pedagogical practice considering literature for children and young adults and work in elementary school high school and university classrooms and schools They give insights on exploring how queer and trans theories might inform the teaching and learning of English language arts with great respect to people who live their lives beyond hegemonic heteronormativity and cisnormativity They provide wisdom on how to provoke foster and navigate complicated conversations about sexuality queer desire gender creativity gender independence and trans inclusivity In addition they show how all of these are informed by an epistemological and ontological understanding of gender embodiment as a process of becoming They offer insights into how queer and trans theories as informed and driven by trans non binary and gender diverse scholars themselves can move all of us beyond LGBTQ inclusivity and inform reading discussing teaching and learning in all of the classrooms and school contexts where we live and work This volume was originally published as a special issue of Discourse Studies in the Cultural Politics of Education Autoboyography Christina Lauren, 2017-09-12 This book is epic Cosmopolitan A hopeful and moving love story Publishers Weekly Fangirl meets Simon vs the Homo Sapiens Agenda in this sensitive and complex BCCB coming of age novel from New York Times bestselling author Christina Lauren about two boys who fall in love in a writing class one from a progressive family and the other from a conservative religious community Three years ago Tanner Scott's family relocated from California to Utah a move that nudged the bisexual teen temporarily back into the closet Now with one semester of high school to go and no obstacles between him and out of state college freedom Tanner plans to coast through his remaining classes and clear out of Utah But when his best friend Autumn dares him to take Provo High's prestigious Seminar where honor roll students diligently toil to draft a book in a semester Tanner can't resist going against his better judgment and having a go if only to prove to Autumn how silly the whole thing is Writing a book in four months sounds simple Four months is an eternity It turns out Tanner is only partly right four months is a long time After all it takes only one second for him to notice Sebastian Brother the Mormon prodigy who sold his own Seminar novel the year before and who now mentors the class And it takes less than a month for Tanner to fall completely in love with him BJU and Me Lance Weldy, 2022-06-15 Bob Jones University is a Christian fundamentalist nondenominational liberal arts school in Greenville South Carolina BJU was founded in 1927 by Christian evangelist Bob Jones Sr who was against the secularization of higher education and the influence of religious liberalism in denominational colleges For most of the twentieth century BJU branded itself as the World's Most Unusual University because of its separatist culture Many BJU students come from fundamentalist communities and are aware of BJU's strict rules and conservative lifestyle So why would queer students enroll at BJU A former queer student of BJU himself Lance Weldy has come to terms with his own involvement with the institution and has reached out to other queer students to help represent the range of queer experience in this restrictive atmosphere BJU and Me Queer Voices from the World's Most Christian University provides behind the scenes explanations from nineteen former BJU students from the past few decades who now identify as LGBT They write about their experiences reflect on their relationships with a religious institution and describe their vulnerability under a controlling regime Some students hid their sexuality and graduated under the radar others transferred to other schools but faced reparative therapy elsewhere some endured mandatory counseling sessions on campus while still others faced incredible obstacles after being outed by or to the BJU administration These students give voices to their queer experiences at BJU and share their unique stories including encounters with internal and or external trauma and their paths to self validation and recovery Often their journeys led them out of fundamentalism and the BJU network entirely Sapphic Adolescent Girls in Irish Young Adult Fiction Iria Seijas-Pérez, 2025-11-25 Sapphic Adolescent Girls in Irish Young Adult Fiction is the first sustained critical analysis of the representation of sapphic adolescent protagonists in contemporary Irish Young Adult YA literature Ten YA novels published between 2017 and 2023 by both well established and emerging Irish female authors are examined analysing sapphic characters to demonstrate how Irish YA literature can transform and re imagine sapphic literary representations This book offers a critical evaluation of how lesbianism and bisexuality have been introduced into Irish YA literature while also addressing the significance of racism religion violence against women and girls friendships and parental abandonment in shaping queer identities This study is ideal for postgraduates and academics in the fields of Irish Studies Cultural Studies Gender Studies and Queer Studies as well as students interested in YA literature comparative literature and contemporary literature
